

Nancy Randolph

Saint George Tucker

[1807?]

Byland Randolphs will convey to you every assurance of my fond affection - I have omitted writing lately because you were expected in Town - Let me see you as soon as possible my dearest friend - my Father - I visit at every house on the hill, except the Governors - and will joyfully meet you at any moment - Believe me, the gloomy thoughts of your friend, flowed from the minds of others - not her own - Heaven bless you! your own A - C - B -

My dear Mother

My dear Mother

My dear Mother - I have omitted writing to you so soon as possible my dearest friend - my father - I wish at every hour on the hill, every the government and with joyfully meet you at any moment - believe me, the glowing thoughts of your friend flourish from the banks of heaven - not less our - though I do not see you - C. A.
