

Richmond Jan<sup>y</sup> 23<sup>d</sup>: 1804

I have rejoiced, during this whole season, at the happiness experienced by my beloved friend and his family - The sight of dear Henry and Beverley afforded me real delight - Fate has also permitted me, once more, to clasp my darling Tudor in my arms =

Your friend, M<sup>rs</sup>. Carrington, is at Shirley - M<sup>rs</sup>. Ambley was well a few days ago - and much handsomer than I ever saw her before I have kissed the little Saint a thousand times for his name - He is indeed a lovely Babe - it is a charming family both young and old =

Present my cordial love to all under your roof - also to M<sup>rs</sup>. Peachy's family if you think of it when you see her - Tell Miss S. M. - I recollect her with sincere affection = Adieu my dearest M<sup>rs</sup>. Tucker Remind Virginia that she still has a sis: ter in existence whose whole tenor of con: duct toward her has been marked by true regard =

God bless you!

Yours tenderly A. C. F.
