Iwanted the books to leave my darling Judor as I shall never see him again, and had nothing slee worth his acceptance. my heart sichnens at the Amonghat of an adernal separation from my ever de as m- Jucker - but - the scene of Jormer gorosperity and hazogowness is not littley to afford franquillity or health - whatever evils may attend the emigration, they cannot be so heart-rendering as those I have encountered in succession during the last right years - to extend the retro! spection garther wou'd be more than is on de sertain - Prese was an interval of greace allowed me - I rejouce at the restoration of Jachis Friendships - and am nightly gratified by m. .. nochenhaigs mond and we timed attentions me Consingtonie radness saved me, in the Sgring, from stal despoier - I was ell and without a single comfort of any desemption - Heaven blegs you my dear me Tuckner- Jam truly grieved to think I can never again see your wife even one short moment - always believe me your sincerely affec: a'C. 2.