

Feb. 1811.

My Dear Sir

My humbler occupations (having kept house without a single Female, this winter) debar me the pleasure of writing - I lament exceedingly, the account, which Judy's last letter contains, of Fanny's state of health - Your very welcome favor has just reached me - it must have been detained a long time, at some post office -

God bless you and all

Yours fervently prays your affectionate

Ann Morris -

Mrs. Morris 1811.

My husband offers you his best respects -

Miss Morris
January 1841.

My dear Miss Morris -

I have just received your letter of the 27th and am glad to hear that you are well. I have been very busy lately and have not had time to write you more fully. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I have been thinking much of late and have been very much interested in the progress of our country. I have been reading much of the history of our country and have been very much interested in the progress of our country. I have been thinking much of late and have been very much interested in the progress of our country. I have been reading much of the history of our country and have been very much interested in the progress of our country.