

Morrisania Sept 1st 1811

Permit me, dear Sir, to congratulate you on the birth of Beverley's Son - The infinite kindness evinced toward me by yourself and family, can never be erased from my memory, nor the gratitude excited by it be diminished in my heart, until I cease to feel - I must once more beg leave to have an assurance of my most affectionate remembrance tendered to Mrs. Tucker, Fanny, Henry, Beverley, Polly, and Charles -

Since the death of our amiable friend Col: Gattington, I have never been able to hear a word from his excellent widow - I have written to her more than a dozen times between that period and the present -

Adieu my very dear Mr. Tucker - that you may enjoy health and happiness fervently prays your A. Morris
