

Morrisania Feb^y 13th 1812

My Dear Friends: kind favor greeted my return home yesterday - we left this, for Washington, the day on which you wrote - I am much delighted with what you say - and determined to scribble a little - altho' we are preparing to quit our fire side early on the 15th inst - for Albany - I am keeping house with three men - not any female at all consequently enjoy little leisure Tell m^r. Tucker the person who dictated her prescription says that, standing - should be carefully avoided by one subject to the dreadful complaint in question: make my apology for the mistake about her Gaps - the border was to have been washed, and put on very differently - I trusted a clumsy hand.

Nancy Morris

Feb^y 13. 1812.

am^d? April 25th

Virginia

Williamsburg

Saint George Tucker Esq

PAID 20

the fashion is - for the lace to come down, only to the ear on each side, where it is met by a ribbon, from behind, to tie under the chin. I feared exceeding Mr. S. S. Franking powers - My good husband offers you his affections - mine to Mr. S. - Fan - and Polly - not for getting the dear little ones - your good brother looks well -

Having a large dinner on hand I must go to the kitchen - begging you to "take the will for the deed" and light your candle with this - Yours tenderly -
A. Morris.

Mr. Dear Sank wrote me a very pretty letter -

[Faint, illegible handwriting on the reverse side of the page, possibly bleed-through or a second letter.]