I have anxiously wished to address my ever Dear Friend - particularly as you were kind enough to congratulate me on the birth of my lovely Son - Mandolys Harrison will do Him justice - you cannot avoid hearing of the boy's fame - he now sleeps - I have not a creature now to hold him one moment - his dear father has been compelled to travel for health - your hair would stand on end to hear of some of the northern nurses - a neighbor of ours lost a child in a horrid way lately - it was stung in bed, by a spider - I often watch my babe more than half the night - he is indeed, a perfect object - Democracy in this State is every vice in its most horrid form - The war has completed the arduous task of keeping house - all our waiters are fighting - except a Frenchman who fortunately for us cannot acquire any language but his native one - My Infant cries out - Take the will for the deed - and believe me tenderly

Dear Mother
 I received your kind letter of the 20th and was glad to hear from you
 I am well and hope these few lines will find you
 the same
 I have not much news to write at present but will write again
 soon
 Your affectionate son
