

Aug. 17, 1814

I was ashamed of my last scrawl more than ever hurried as it was - but attached as my heart is to you & it approves of any thing rather than neglect toward you - To be sure Dearest Sir I might lead a life of amusement even with the execrable servants of this State - but - when a woman does that here - her family goes inevitably to ruin -

My amiable Tudor has been with me about ten days I trust in God his health will be restored it has had a great shock Oh! my Friend you know not what I feel for dear Saind - My good husband and myself delight in attending to Tudor who is a most interesting youth - My lovely boy begins to grattle charmingly =

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting on the reverse side of the page, appearing as bleed-through from the other side.]

regime to locate the charmingly treating people - my lovely boy attempting to order who is a man in good husband and myself delight in what I feel to be a kind - my to - my friend you know not retard it has had a great share stayed in God his health will be has been with me about ten days my amiable father goes necessarily to town - a woman goes that have - her family concern of this state - but when amusement even with the over-concern in I might lead a life of respect toward you - Yours truly
Friend of any thing rather than attached as my heart is to you more than ever desired as it was - but I was ashamed of my last journal

Nancy Morris
August 17. 1814

20 Paris
Trogo
Tuchsen
Barrminster
Amherst
D. Virginia
Paris