Dear Sir

I rejoiced to hear from Mr. Greenhow that you were well it was the first intelligence of your being alive since Christmas

My noble minded pure hearted child - and my business, occupy me constantly - In my dear husband's diary I see frequent mention of his "Dear, happy, quiet home" from Christmas

1809 - It is still "dear and quiet" - we have now an unusual interest to pay for D. B. Ogden's swindling, $5000 -

The infamous calumny was invented by Commodore Morris and an old Mrs. Macalvey whose daughter he was connected with -

So the world goes - Have the goodness to return me Judge Wilkins's letter # - his relations here say I forged it -

With best love to your good wife I assure you of my tender attachment -
