My dear Sir
I have just received your letter of the 21st and am glad to hear that you are well and hope you will continue so for some time. I have not yet had time to write you more fully but will do so as soon as possible. I am very truly your friend

My ever dear Sir

Soon after my illness I wrote to you and was hurried to finish since that I have not had time to rest - but I always think of you and your good wife with affection and gratitude -

Alas! your dear St George is again in a mad house - Meade is here with great ulcers which smell so they made Govt throw up his dinner - Mercy on me what a mass of misery this world contains - Meade tells me he has studied and is studying for the Bar -

God bless you my dear Friend while I live my heart will glow with cordial regard for you and your wife -

Ever yours A. C. M.
