

Aug. 24, 1826

My dear Madam

Believing the enclosed to be a cer: tain remedy I hasten to send it — Not an hour goes in which I cease to remember you with the most grateful affection
 If my darling boy recovers from the horrible hooping I shall write to my dearest friend Mr. Tucker — for many weeks I have been a stranger to rest Present me tenderly to your lovely daughter — God bless you & pray your truly affectionate A. C. M

Paid D.D.
 Mrs. Selia Tucker
 near Warmist Amherst
 Virginia
 Paid

Henry Morris
 F. Tucker.
 August 24. 1826.
 Ending of Proscriptive.
 Amherst
 September 8.

My dear Mother
Believing the enclosed to be their remedy? better to send it - but as I am going in which? case to remain
you with the most grateful affection of my Mother's love & affection from the lovable looking? shall write to my dearest friend Mr. Tucker - for my mother? have been a stranger to it I want to tell you how I am
I am truly affectionate to A. C. W.
2000

My dear Mother
I am truly affectionate to A. C. W.
2000

My dear Mother
I am truly affectionate to A. C. W.
2000

From the Lansingburgh Gazette.

Cure for the Piles.—A friend has called upon us, and says that a safe and speedy cure for the piles can be found by this simple receipt. Take a piece of sheet lead, such as commonly comes in tea chests, upon the inside of which you are to put hog's lard, and with a leaden weight rub the same until it becomes a lead color, and with this salve for a few times, annoint the part affected, which in short time will remove, what to those who are in like manner troubled, is a desideratum "devoutly to be wished."

The steam boat NAUTILUS, capt. Vanderbilt, will on and after this day run as follows: On every Sunday

Leave Staten Island.

Leave Whitehall Dock.

At 8 A. M.

At 10 A. M.

12 A. M.

2 P. M.

5 P. M.

8 P. M.

And on every day, (Sunday excepted) when not engaged in towing vessels, she will

Leave Staten Island.

Leave Whitehall Dock.

At 8 A. M.

At 10 A. M.

3 P. M.

5 P. M.