New York 21st Feb^y 1814

Sir

I have the honor to acquaint you that I arrived here on the evening of the 19th instant and received yesterday the several communications relative to the joint mission of that of Sweden which you had addressed to me -

I shall endeavour most zealously, to discharge the important trusts which have been reposed in me in a manner useful to the country and satisfactory to the President - and am with great consideration & respect Sir

to the Honble

James Monroe
