

Sep 11, 1944

My Darling;

Below you sweet little thing + how may you all be. I know you think I'm a fine one for not writing. After all I can't blame you one bit. My only excuse is that I didn't have any writing paper. I'm going to do a lot better though. Really. After this I won't have no excuse at all.

I really can get around N.Y.C. with out getting lost. Isn't that swell. Yesterday Dave + I went down and looked China town over. What a place. I would hate to be there after dark by my lonesome.

We also was down to Central Park. Golly its pretty. Wish you would come

Apr 11/1904

My darling,

Believe me must write thing & how many you all be

When you think for a fine one for not writing. After all you don't know you over it. I'm sorry because in that didn't have any writing paper. I'm going to see but better through. Help.
After this I must have no more at all.

I really can get around 10/10.
with out getting bad. Just that sore. I'm sorry but I must have and I'll be there over and over a place. I would hate to be there after that by my business.
we also now down to Central Park.
I'll be at party. I'll be at party.

GIVE THEM THE TOOLS TO FINISH THE JOB

C. J. M., N.Y., 1942

to New York so I would show you around.

Saturday we got shot in the arms again, and it mad me quite ill. Dave was also quite ill. But we are over it and are in the best of condition once again

I wish you could come down for a few days. Because its gets awful lonesome ~~son~~ with out you. Its very boring going to show night after night.

This coming week end I think we get out of school early. I hope so because I'm coming home. I hope you still love me as much as ever. I'm constantly thinking of you and loving you. I love that girl. Please write & may god bless you & keep you for me
~~you see~~ Darling
Love Don.

Miss Josephine Bohner
5601 Broadway
Lancaster,
New York

COPYRIGHT 1942 BY JACQUES HINKUS, NEW YORK, N. Y., U. S. A.