

Sept 21, 1944

Dearest Jo:

Yosh darling you should of gotten a letter from me today.

But you can stake your life on getting one tomorrow.

I just got in from the show. I seen a wonderful picture. Fred Astair + Ginger Rogers played in it. The name of it was "Vernon + Irene Castle" Yosh it made me feel all the blues. Then today is the first of fall. Yosh that is a beautiful season. I can't wait till I get home on another leave which will be in two weeks. Won't that be grand. So far I have been home during all the seasons. Now I'll have to make winter to keep up the good work. I hope that will be alright with you.

while I'm writing this letter Dave is sleeping. The poor boy never even heard me come in, he is so tired, working so hard. You know how it is.

When I graduate I will get a big diploma. and of course we are going to frame it and hang it in the parlor just like doctors do. Because after all it is a profession.

Your night I'm still baking over a hot fire and burning my hands oh its dreadful the way I have to work for a living. Don't you feel sorrow for me. Well just a little bit.

To night It is really hot & close. As I write this letter I just sit hear drizzling.

So Walt's girl went to see him. That is wonderful. She's a lucky guy. Nothing like that ever happens to me. And I thought I was a lucky boy. Yes it really looks like the real thing. There's too no too way about it. The real thing has hit me also. Now that I will have a profession I can start making plans for the near future. Shall we say about March. I'll probably have something very important to tell you this weekend when I get home. Only two days till I have you in my arms. Gosh she counted every day this week. Why? Because I love you and always will.

Walt

UNITED FOR FREEDOM AND EQUALITY

YORK N.Y.
SEP 22
7-AM
1944

Miss Josephine Bohner
15601 Broadway
Lancaster
N.Y.

COPYRIGHT 1962 BY JACQUES MINNUS, NEW YORK, N. Y., U. S. A.