(Circular)

Department of State
July 21st 1795.

Sir,

I do myself the honor of forwarding to you copies of a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, and of a resolution of Congress, relative to certain lands in the State of Georgia. You will, in your discretion, do, what shall appear to you advisable upon the occasion.

I have the honor to be, with great respect and esteem,

Sir,
Your most obedient servant
