

President Monroe
to ex-President Madison.

Washington October 20th 1824

Dear Sir

Mr Douglas, with two of his Daughters, having intimated their intention to visit Virg:
:nia, & to take Richmond, & some of the upper counties, including orange in their route, I have taken the liberty to give them this introduction, to yours & Mrs Madisons ac: :quaintance. They are of New York, & well respected there, & my nephew & Monroe having married one of her Daughters, exhibit a strong motive with me, that they should be known to & kindly rec<sup>d</sup> by our friends.

With great respect & sincere regard Dear Sir yours
James Monroe
