The Secretary, Admiralty

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th inst. in relation to the proposed alterations in the regulations for the issue of commissions to officers of the Royal Navy, and in reply to inform you that the same have been forwarded to the Admiralty for their consideration. I have also the honor to inform you that the Admiralty have been informed of the same, and that they are now under consideration. I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

We are charged Sir, with the pleasing duty, of delivering to you, a Resolution of the Legislature, and a letter from the Governour of Alabama, warmly approving your long, arduous, & eminent Public service.

In this affectionate Farewell, we trust, you will see; nothing of that, sympathetic whining adulation, so offensive, to merit, & deserving to its authors, but that you will readily recognize on the contrary, the ingenuous, & manly language of free men, flowing from the heart & approved, by the judgment — your glorious, & honorable career, is drawing, to a close — In Peace, & in war! at home & abroad, at all times, & under all circumstances you have been, the active, the able, & unyielding friend, & efficient, advocate of human Liberty.

Go, then to that Retirement, invited by the example, of your Illustrious Predecessors, & repose with them in the confidence and affections of a grateful, & intelligent People —

This Sir, is the richest reward, that free men, can offer, on a Patriot's service, & Permit us individually to say, that it is, the only suitable reward, that the Nation can, <sup>now</sup> make for services like yours —

For ourselves, & the People, we sincerely wish you Temporal, & Eternal Happiness —
