Dear Margaret:

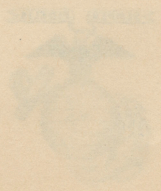

I recieved your letter yesterday and was very glad to hear from some of Rosemary's friends.

You ask if Rosemary gets mad easily & often? Well if you mean by some girl writing to me. I don't think so because she isn't a jealous type.

Rosemary said that you and her had a bet that you wouldn't write but I supposed that you had forgotten and didn't want to write. but I'm glad that you did write.

Have you recieved any letters from some Marine yet? I believe that there are two and they are both pretty good guys.

By the time you get this you will be out of school. boy I wish I could be there the night that Rosey graduates but I can't be so I will just have to be there in thought. I suppose Rosemary told you how easily that I got my diploma. didn't she? but I don't think

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 2nd inst
and was very glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I hope to be home soon but I cannot say for certain.
I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again. I will write you again as soon as I can. I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again.
I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again.

I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again. I will write you again as soon as I
can. I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again.
I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again. I will write you again as soon as I
can. I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again.
I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again.
