

ROYAL HOTEL, NORWICH.

PROPRIETORS:
ROYAL HOTEL NORWICH LTD.

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS:
PRIMUS, NORWICH.

NATIONAL TELEPHONE, 182 NORWICH.

Mother dear:

I have just time to write you a few lines, as sort of explanation, for the lack of mail, from me, during the past ten days. Besides being very busy, at the hangar, I have been trying to get in all the good times, going, as sort of a glorious wendup, of our stay in Merry England. Now that does not mean, that we are leaving immediately, for "somewhere," but you see, we like to play it safe. Am in Norwich, for just a few hours. Sort of a week end pass.

Saturday noon till Sunday noon.

Norwich is a very nice city, rather antique, but yet lively. Saw a very good vaudiville show at the Hippodrome, last night, had supper at the Cafe Royal, (best in the city), and then put up at the "Copley" of Norwich. Oh it was fine.

Slept in a wonderful bed, with Joe Baylan, a "jersey skuter", and we never woke up till nine o'clock.

Just had time to have breakfast at the the Royal Dining Room, and beat it up, through the town to the Norwich Cathedral, to eleven o'clock Mass. The Cathedral was a wonderful place, finished off, inside, as is the "Immaculate", only much more beautiful. Sorry I can't say more, but if I postpone this letter, something may turn up, and I might not

w. get a chance to finish it today. We the now have just enough time to "dine" and get the train back to the camp.

With all the love of our affectionate son to you, dad and the girls, and kindest regards to all the relatives and friends, I remain,

Your loving son, Richard.

lock.

+

clock

ful

the lean-bit thing

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]

CENSOR.

3844

Mrs. John M. Elligott.
9 Fenwood Road
Boston, Massachusetts.
U. S. A.

OPENED BY

OFFICE