C. O. Small
House of Representatives U. S.,

Washington, D. C., Feb. 26th, 1887.

Mr. A. S. Garrett,

Lloyd,

Open Co. Va.:

My dear Sir:

Your post at ah hand.
I send you a few copies of my speech on the Col. bill. I would send you more but so great has been the demand for copies from all parts of the Country, my supply is nearly exhausted.

It is a fact as you state, that it is the only speech that has been made upon the floor of the House in its favor, and I suppose my democracy is unquestioned. Most truly

Yours truly,
C. O. Small.
