COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY
NAMING OF MUNFORD PLAZA

The Committee celebrating 100 years of co-education at William & Mary, led by Professor Emerita Jayne Barnard and Ms. Val Cushman, have given considerable thought to how best to recognize and honor the contributions of Mary-Cooke Branch Munford to William & Mary. Mary-Cooke Branch Munford (1865–1938) devoted her life to the improvement of public education in the South, to the advancement of women in higher education, and to the improvement of race relations, and was instrumental to the introduction of co-education to the university in 1918. She was also the first woman member of the William & Mary Board of Visitors, where she served from 1920 to 1924. Mrs. Munford also served on the board of the National Urban League, was a founding member of the Virginia Inter-Racial League and a trustee at Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee.

Throughout her life, Mary-Cooke Branch Munford was an advocate for women and for women's education. She was a founder of the Richmond Women's Club. She advocated universal public education (K-8), traveling and lobbying with an interracial team throughout the South. She was a founder and leader of the Richmond Education Association, which lobbied for education for both black and white children. Under her direction as president, this organization worked for such goals as rural high schools, improved teacher training, agricultural and industrial education, and the establishment of local school improvement leagues. She was also a founder of the Cooperative Education Association of Virginia, an organization with similar goals, focusing particularly on rural Virginia schools. Her career as a social and educational reformer directly affected the lives of many Virginians

On the William & Mary campus, at the heart of the new campus, there is a clearly defined "diamond within a square" situated between Swem Library, Andrews Hall, the Integrated Science Center and Small Hall. Barksdale Field is in plain view. This area connects – physically via brick walkways – the fine arts, the sciences, literature, history, social sciences and more. These were the opportunities that Mary-Cooke Branch Munford longed for as a young woman and fought for in her advocacy for co-education. This area is traversed by thousands of students and alumni each year.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That upon recommendation of the President and in recognition of Mary-Cooke Branch Munford's lifetime of support of higher education and tireless advocacy on behalf of women that helped bring co-education to William & Mary in 1918, the Board of Visitors of the College of

Board of Visitors

Resolution 27

William & Mary hereby names the area between Swem Library, Andrews Hall, the Integrated Science Center and Small Hall in her honor; it shall henceforth be known exclusively as "Mary-Cooke Branch Munford Plaza;" and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be presented to the family of Mary-Cooke Branch Munford, with the best wishes and grateful thanks of the Board of Visitors and the entire College community.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY
2018-2024 SIX-YEAR PLAN UPDATE

WHEREAS, the College of William & Mary has a long tradition of providing an excellent liberal arts education to the citizens of the Commonwealth and the nation.

WHEREAS, the Governor's Commission on Higher Education has indicated "the Commonwealth's commitment . . . to having a distinctive 'public ivy' at William & Mary;"

WHEREAS, consistent with the requirement of the Higher Education Opportunity Act (the Act), William & Mary developed its 2018-24 Six-Year Plan rooted in this commitment, the goals set out in its Strategic Plan, and the objectives of the Act. This Six-Year Plan was approved by the Board of Visitors of the College of William & Mary in September 2017.

WHEREAS, the Board of Visitors remains committed to the William & Mary Promise as a business model to enhance the quality of its education while improving predictability and affordability for in-state undergraduate students.

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth's planning process requires an update to the Six-Year Plan on an annual basis, incorporating the most recent funding actions by the Commonwealth and the most recent (FY 2019) operating budget approved by the Board of Visitors in April 2018.

WHEREAS, the university has reviewed those expenditures necessary to support and enhance its instructional, research, student service, and administrative operations, prioritized those expenditures, and recommended funding through a combination of Commonwealth, university, and reallocated revenue.

WHEREAS, the university continues to evaluate opportunities to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of its academic/administrative programs and activities.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED That upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Visitors of the College of William & Mary, approves William & Mary's Six-Year Plan Update to reflect the university's FY 2019 operating budget as approved by the Board in April 2018.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Visitors recognizes the incremental state support for operations appropriated by the Commonwealth for the 2018-2020 biennium and as a result, the update reduces the projected four-year guaranteed in-state undergraduate tuition and mandatory E&G fee increase for new in-state undergraduate students from 6.4% (or 1.58% on a compounded, annualized basis) as contained in the original plan to 5.4% (or 1.31% on a compounded annualized basis) as contained in the updated Six-Year Plan. Under the William & Mary Promise there is no increase in the tuition charged to continuing in-state undergraduate students. The Board will take formal action on in-state undergraduate tuition for FY 2020 at its November 2018 meeting.
