

Dear Sir

Permit me to present to yr. acquaintance & recommend to yr. attention the young Mr. Gilmer, a son of our old friend & my late neighbour Dr. Gilmer.
He attends the philosophical chair in our college & means to follow the example of his father in becoming a practi-tioner of medicine. I know I need only mention <sup>him</sup> to you to receive yr. friendly re-gard to him. My best respects to Mrs. Tucker.
Believe me sincerely yr. friend & servt

Jas Monroe

Richmond June 1. 1795.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is mostly obscured by water damage and fading.]

[Faint vertical text or markings on the right side of the page, possibly bleed-through.]

J. George Tucker

Williamsburg

Oct: Monros.
June 1. 1798.

