RAIN PREDOMINATES

Dr. John Garland Pollard, former Dean of the Marshall-Wythe School Government and Citizenship, and for many years professor at the College of William and Mary, was yesterday inaugurated Governor of Virginia mother state of the Union.

A colorful parade preceding the inaugural address of Governor Pollard moved off to the music of seven bands. Both the Army and Navy were represented as well as many civic and fraternal organizations from many sections of the state.

Dr. Pollard after being received at the John Marshall Hotel by Governor Byrd with a legislative reception committee, took his place in the parade escorted by Company A, 116th infantry and the Bedford Fireman's band. The parade moved west for a mile before returning to the capitol, where Dr. Pollard was given chance to review it before proceeding to the Capitol Square.

Inauguration ceremonies proper began promptly at noon, when Justice Preston W. Campbell, of the supreme court of appeals administered the oath to John R. Saunders who entered his fourth term as Attorney General. After the attorney general was sworn in, the Governor-elect was escorted to the south portico. After the inaugural prayer by the Rev. William C. James, pastor of the Williamsburg Baptist Church of which Dr. Pollard is a member, the oath was admini-

POST OFFICE NOTICE

All students in college have been urged by Post office officials to get their mail addressed to Station A, Williamsburg, Va., and also the Number of the BOX. This will facilitate mails, and enable the officials to give prompt service.

Students living in Fraternity houses are also urged to have their mail addressed to the particular house because if not, it will be held back in the college post-office until the address of the student is known.

All boxes have been rented, but 270 new boxes will be installed in the near future to accommodate the needs of the office, according to the postal inspector.

Schedule of daily mails follow:
 INCOMING MAIL — 12 M.; 3 P. M., and 6 P. M.
 OUTGOING MAIL — 9 A. M., 1 P. M., and 4 P. M.

MANY THRILLS IN PLAY

John F. Ward's "House of the Dead," which will be presented by the William and Mary Players tomorrow night, at 8:15 o'clock, is the first original one-act play to be given this year in Phi Beta Kappa hall. Mr. Ward will be remembered as the author of "The Back Trail," one of a group of plays written and produced by students last spring.

"House of the Dead" is in three scenes and has all the qualities of a mystery-thriller, with a touch of romance. It is a psychological study of the brilliant Dr. Von Holtz, whose belief in reincarnation results in a series of sensational incidents. All the action takes place in a country sanatorium for the insane, where intense situations are somewhat re-

FIVE JUNIORS CHOSEN

President Chandler, Dean Hodges and five students were initiated into the Flat Hat Club Society, oldest American college fraternity, at the annual banquet last Thursday night in the Colonial Hotel. The ceremony, by which the new men were inducted into the 180-year old society, preceded the dinner, at which a number of women students and wives of the faculty members were guests.

The students honored by the Flat Hat Club society are: Clarence Rives, Earl Swem, Herbert Lorentzen, John D. Scully, Jr., and William Parker.

The Flat Hat Club society, whose early rolls included the names of Thomas Jefferson and other men prominent in early American history, was founded November 11, 1750, at William and Mary. It has no other chapters. Each year not more than six men students are elected to membership. In point of age, it is a quarter of a century older than Phi Beta Kappa.

$50,000 IS AMOUNT

The College of William and Mary has been named among thirty-three institutions of the United States and Canada to share the benefits of $6,000,000 willed by the late Conrad Hubert for education and social betterment.

A committee of three prominent citizens of the United States, ex-Pres. Calvin Coolidge, Gov. Alfred Smith, and Julius Rosenwald of Chicago, chosen by the executors of Mr. Hubert's will, have allotted this college $50,000. A like sum goes to the University of Virginia and other donations vary from $500,000 to $10,000, being divided into three classifications: the first group of fifteen institutions to receive $4,600,000; the second group of eight institutions, including this college, to receive a certain portion; and the third group of ten institutions to receive bequests from the remaining funds.

Mr. Hubert, the donor of the funds, came to America as a boy and during his lifetime distinguished as a scientist and leader.

Literary Fraternity To Award Two Prizes

Sigma Upsilon, national honorary literary fraternity will award two prizes this year, the first, a silver loving cup will be awarded to the person contributing the best rounded group of literary work this year. The second prize will be a leather bound volume of the best plays of the year given to the author of the best one act play written during the year. These prizes will be awarded at the commencement exercises in June and material submitted for this contest is also eligible for the anthology "Script" to be published this spring, by Fay P. LeCompte and Lewis F. Brown.

TO LEAVE AT 8:30 A. M.

Hughes A. Kistler, of Denver, Colorado, has been selected by Dr. E. C. Branchi, professor of romance languages, as his companion on the 12,000-mile William and Mary Pan-American automobile expedition, Dr. E. C. Branchi has announced.

During two years on the William and Mary campus, Kistler has established himself as an adventurer. His latest exploit was the purchase of a Waco tapered-wing bi-plane with a Wright motor, with which he has startled the student body by his stunting. He is one of the leading promoters of the Gliders' Club at William and Mary.

Dr. Branchi, who is known to be greatly pleased with the outcome of the recent Flat Hat contest to determine his companion, says that he and Kistler will leave Williamsburg at 8:30 a. m. January 28. They will drive to Washington where President Herbert Hoover will autograph the book which Dr. Branchi is carrying with him on his trip through the courtesy of Dr. E. G. Swem and the Library. The pair will then drive straight to New Orleans in a light, specially equipped sedan. From there the trip will be hazardous in the extreme, there being five hundred miles of virgin land to cover. Professor Branchi hopes to reach Buenos Aires in approximately three months. The return trip will be made in the student's plane, which is being shipped from Hampton Roads.

The expedition is being sponsored by the College of William and Mary. In addition, the adventurers are representing the American Automobile Association, the American Geological Association, and the Associated Press.

LITERARY MAGAZINE

The student who left the manuscript signed "G. L. W." at the literary magazine office last week must see Fay LeCompte, editor at once. The manuscript was good, but it cannot be published unless the author is known, although a pen name may be used for publication if desired.

The next issue of the magazine will be out on February 1st, according to the editor. On account of the long Christmas Holiday the staff was unable to get an issue after the recess. It is said that this will be an unusually attractive magazine.

Work of "Y" Organizations For Past Year Reviewed

WORK OF BOTH CABINETS IS PLANNED TOGETHER

MANY ACTIVITIES PLANNED BY Y. M. EXTENSIVE PLANS MADE BY Y. W. C. A.

Both Organizations Are Working in Close Harmony

SPEAKERS ARE SCHEDULED

A brief resume of the activities of the Y. M. C. A. during the past year shows that many things have been done by this organization. Both "Y" organizations have been working in close harmony and are trying to plan their work together as they can obtain the most co-operation. Much of the work has been done by the members of both cabinets.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. for the year really began during the summer with the mailing of the Indian Handbooks to the Freshmen. This book is published in conjunction with the Y. W. C. A. each year and is mailed to all Freshmen who are entering in September.

During the first week of school a reception was given to the Freshmen in Phi Beta Kappa Hall. Several teas have been given by members of the faculty, under the auspices of the "Y," for the Freshmen.

Three achievements the "Y" obtained in the past year, and which it is very proud of: is the securing of a full-time secretary, the large number of members who were enrolled and the radio program which was broadcast last Sunday afternoon from Norfolk. Mr. M. T. Hipps arrived in November to take charge of the Christian activities on the campus. The membership campaign netted more than 500 members, which is the most the "Y" has ever had for one year. The radio program which was broadcast over station WTAR, in Norfolk, was the cause of many congratulatory messages. Some of the other activities of the "Y" consisted of the Christmas Pageant, taking charge of the Chapel Services each morning, trips of the deputation team to nearby churches, conducting educational tours through the Main Building, stunt night, sick visitation, holding discussion groups each Wednesday night, a week-end conference trip to the University of Richmond and a tea for Mr. and Mrs. Hipps. A great deal of this work was done jointly with the Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. has already planned several activities for the new year. The Hampton Institute Quartet will sing here on March 11. This quartet sang here last year and were well received by the students. Three well known national speakers have been secured to speak here before June, and it is hoped to have several more. The annual retreat of the cabinet will be made to Camp Orapax, and plans are being made to send a large number of delegates to the Blue Ridge Conference.

The Reading Room in Blow Gymnasium is kept up by the Y. M. C. A. This room is open each afternoon from 4 to 6 and each night from 7 until 10 o'clock. Mr. Hipps has an office in room 2 of the Citizenship building. He is in his office each morning from 9 to 12 o'clock and welcomes all students who wish to have a conference with him.

ADDITION TO STAFF

Harris Newman, of Boston, Mass., has been added to the reportorial staff of the Flat Hat.

Mr. Newman is a member of the freshman class, and comes to William and Mary with considerable experience in newspaper work.

Task For The Past Year Is Declared A Success By President

ACTIVITIES ARE VARIED

According to Dr. Elmo Jones, president, the Y. W. C. A. has had a most successful year and is making extensive plans for the first term of the new year. Beginning with the Big Sister plan and Freshman teas, the Y. W. C. A. traces its helpfulness and successful program through the joint publication of the Indian Handbook with the Y. M. C. A., a Freshman Reception given in Phi Beta Kappa Hall to many other successes. The Lantern Festival came a little later in the Fall with a group of songsters representing each section of the country. This was followed by a membership campaign in which 300 new members were enrolled. A delightful Halloween Party preceded the arrival of M. League Hipps, the new "Y" secretary. A tea was given in honor of Mr. Hipps and he was duly installed in his office in Citizenship Building.

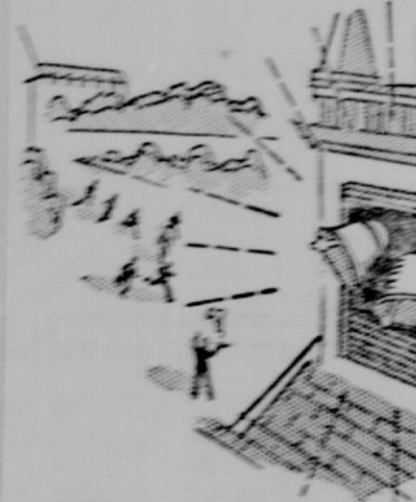

Shortly before Christmas, a stunt night was held under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. Dr. Fleming also talked to the students on "Personality." The Y. W. C. A. has also been in charge of an employment bureau to assist students in finding work and to help professors in securing the assistance of students. Plans for the coming semester include a series of talks by faculty members linking up their department with the life of a college girl. These talks are to be a primary help in adjusting the girls to their growth. A series of practical vocational talks will also be given under the auspices of both the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.'s.

A small bulletin will be issued telling of the work of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A.'s. This bulletin will be issued about twice a semester. The Y. W. C. A. is also planning a series of teas, for small groups of Freshmen, to be held at the homes of professors on Sunday afternoons.

A collection of the baby pictures of the faculty members is being made for a contest to be held in the spring when students will pay a small admission to guess who is who. The student making the greatest number of correct guesses will be given a prize.

Other activities planned for the coming term include a Valentine Party, the annual Madras Dance, the Cabaret school at Camp Orapax, the selection of the best all-around Freshman girl, and the sending of delegates to the Blue Ridge Conference.

To pipes, Men, to Pipes!

TRADITION has it that ye shall know the fellowship of pipes with seasoned, masculine, mellow men of every age and degree.

Some try to join this brotherhood, yet fail, and are absolved as born to pipeless lives. But honest effort is required—each man's own test with good tobacco in a good pipe.

That is the formula. Both pipe and tobacco must be good. The pipe must be pure of bowl, and the tobacco must be—

Well, Edgeworth, if you'll permit—good old Edgeworth, Class of '04. Tried Edgeworth yet? Now's your chance! Use the magic coupon, and we'll rush right back to you a free-for-nothing packet of genuine Edgeworth to fill your good pipe with.

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—"Ready Rubbed" and "Plug Slice"—15¢ pocket package to pound humidifier tin.

Alumna Writes To Alumni Office From Juneau, Alaska

Daily reports come into the alumni office from all sections of the United States. A few days ago, Dr. Hodges received a letter from Virginia P. Addison, '25, who has been out in Alaska for the past several months.

Miss Addison is in Juneau, reporting for the Daily Alaska Empire. The letter written to Dr. Hodges follows: My dear Dr. Hodges,

In a recent issue of The Flat Hat, I noticed a request for information as to the present addresses of various alumni of the College of William and Mary. It was only this past summer that I was walking down one of the busiest streets in the business section of Los Angeles, Cal., when I heard someone ask me if I weren't Virginia Addison—the person addressing this query to me was none other than Muriel Valentine Yale, Class of '29, of which I am a member. I had only been in Los Angeles for about two days and did not dream that Muriel was anywhere within 4,000 miles of me. It was indeed a pleasant surprise.

Nancy Makepeace Franch, who received her M. A. Degree from William and Mary in 1923, is now Mrs. Douglas Coulter (and has been for the past few years) and she and her husband reside at One Fifth Avenue, New York, New York. I just heard from her the other day, so you may consider the present address as correct.

I have been reporting on the Daily Alaska Empire for the last three months and have enjoyed every moment of this decidedly new experience. I have also met some very interesting people, and would not have missed working on this newspaper for anything in the world.

Juneau, the capital city of Alaska, is a fascinating town nestling at the foot of two towering mountains, Mt. Juneau and Mt. Roberts, whose respective altitudes are 3,590 feet and 3,800 feet. Mt. Jumbo, which is 3,333 feet high and which may be seen across narrow Gastineau Channel, seems to completely hem Juneau in with its lofty peaks.

I regret not being able to enjoy the most interesting program planned for Homecoming Day but hope to be able to attend the next one. I was there in spirit even though it was impossible for me to be there in person.

Mother, Dad and I expect to leave Juneau soon for Mobile, Alabama, where Dad is to assume command of the U. S. S. Pontchartrain. We are planning on going to St. Louis and there embarking on a flat-bottomed, stern-wheeled packet boat on which we may leisurely float down the Mississippi River to New Orleans—I suppose that we want to know just how Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer fared on their memorable trip down the same river. However, I will let the Alumni Office know of any change in my present address.

I hope that you will find the information contained in this pamphlet of some interest—I can not say that I like the pictures, but I suppose that they used the ones that happened to be on hand at the time.

Please extend my kindest remembrances to Mrs. Hodges, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Swann, Mrs. Hoke, and Dr. Chandler.

Sincerely,

(Miss Virginia P. Addison, Class of '25.)

Many Alumni Hold Joint Meeting

The Inter-Alumni dinner recently held at the Hotel Richmond was a very significant event in the history of education in Virginia. Many well known educators of the state were present, and talks were made on the subject of education. Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, president of William and Mary College, was one of the principal speakers.

About five hundred alumni from the five state-supported institutions—University of Virginia, Medical College of Virginia, V. M. I., V. P. I., and William and Mary—were present for the occasion. There were sixty-five William and Mary alumni from Richmond and forty from this section of the Peninsula present, including fourteen faculty members headed by Dr. J. A. C. Chandler and Deans K. J. Hoke and W. T. Hodges.

Each of the presidents of the state institutions was introduced by the heads of the various alumni associations. Mr. J. D. Carneal, Jr., president of the William and Mary Club of Richmond, introduced Dr. Chandler. Dr. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia; General Lejeune, Commandant of V. M. I.; Dr. Burruss, president of V. P. I., and Dr. W. T. Sanger, president of Richmond Medical College, also spoke. Dr. Eggleston spoke for the private institutions and Dr. Harris Hart for the State Department of Education. Colonel James H. Price, Lieutenant-Governor-elect, and Colonel Sinclair Brown, who will be the next Speaker of the House also responded to the toastmaster. Governor-elect Pollard was prevented from attending because of illness.

The Inter-Alumni meeting was arranged by Mr. W. L. Carneal, of the University Club, who acted as toastmaster.

CUBAN CONSUL PLANS TO ATTEND SPANISH DINNER

"Los Quijotescos" Gives Banquet Tonight At 8:00 P. M.

CHANDLER TO BE GUEST PHOENIX ISSUES PROGRAM

A banquet of the Spanish Honorary Society, "Los Quijotescos," will take place at 8 o'clock tonight in Pocahontas Tea Room.

Mr. Alvarez, Cuban Consul residing in Newport News and President Chandler, are expected to be guests of the evening.

As a mark of esteem for Dr. Branchi who soon departs on his South American expedition, the Society will present him with a William and Mary banner to carry as a standard on his travels.

A review of the activities of the Society during the past semester will be given and several selections by a three-piece orchestra.

All members and honorary members of the society are invited to be present.

the result of the election for Governor in Virginia, I had a feeling that Dr. Pollard would win, so I wrote to him and expressed my congratulations ahead of time. I addressed the letter in care of the College and trust that it will eventually reach him.

THE VIRGINIA GAZETTE

The revivification of the Virginia Gazette, oldest newspaper of the South and the first to be printed in Virginia, identifies another step in the restoration of Colonial Williamsburg. The first issue of the new series, bearing a replica of the original masthead, The Virginia Gazette, set in characters of the type used when the paper was founded by William Parks, August 6, 1736, was published last Friday. The revival of this venerable newspaper supplies a need in Williamsburg for a public ledger in which records of progress and development from the early days of the historic community can be permanently filed in accessible form.

It is true that Williamsburg has the "priority complex"—but does not every American city try to typify its urban organization in some esteemable fashion. Williamsburg does not lack a means to this end, a means embodied in its historical eminence of which few modern cities can boast. Once teeming with the statesmen who fought for the independence of the thirteen colonies, as the colonial capitol of the United States, it is justifiable that this city should preserve the spots men as Washington, Jefferson, Marshall and Monroe made hallow. Fortunately industry and commerce on which American prosperity are based have not made serious inroads in the effacement of the colonial city. Through the efforts of the Rockefeller Restoration Williamsburg will continue to hold its historic points of interest. Now again comes "The Virginia Gazette" to the residents here just as it did in the eighteenth century when it published the laws of the Journals of the House of Burgesses. The consensus of opinion from many prominent men in the state in open letters of felicitations to J. A. Osborne, managing editor, confirms the opinion that the republication of the weekly is desirable and merits wholehearted support. Closely resembling The Flat Hat in make-up, "The Virginia Gazette" should be a parity with it as a recognized institution in the city just as The Flat Hat is, in the College of William and Mary.

For national and international news Williamsburg will turn to the metropolitan dailies, but for the present and past events of its own community The "Virginia Gazette" will be read.

A MAIL ON MAIL

With the resumption of classes following the Christmas holidays the government post office made its debut on the campus. Doubtless it is an improvement over the old college-maintained post office for it offers all the advantages of a regular postal department which the former one could not provide.

Now that the general disorder of renting individual boxes has been passed, a general observance is that there are two unequal classes of comment: those who approve the new system and those who disapprove of it. The first got boxes,—the majority did not. The fact exists that 597 boxes were provided for a patronage of a thousand and some odd students, assuming that approximately 200 receive mail at fraternities, sororities or other points. This leaves a group of 500 or 600 students who are no better off than they were before, except for a probable quicker delivery and ability to transact postal business on the campus. The general delivery in window has its usual long and even longer line of potential mail receivers. Where is the long-looked for removal of post office congestion which had always been the plight in former days? What will be the result with the constant increase in the student enrollment?

The present lack-of-mail-box condition could be levitated by allowing students to double up on boxes. Roommates and associates have a habit of getting mail together and the number of students entering the post office would be cut almost in half. But even that method would only take care of the present condition; growth would soon bring a more pertinent need for increased facilities. The cry is—"We want more boxes."

New York.—Colleagues of Dr. Thomas H. Briggs, head of the secondary department of Teachers College, Columbia University, disagreed over his proposal, expressed in the annual lecture at Harvard last Thursday night to abolish all schools. Dr. Jesse E. Newlin, professor of education, supported Dr. Briggs with reservations, while Dr. Belle G. Reynolds, principal of the Horace Mann School of the college, declared that the suggestion avowed of bolshevism. Dr. Briggs vigorously reiterated his belief that private schools with few exceptions are "reactionary and conservative" that their main purpose is to educate snobs, and that they are hampering the public education program of the nation.

London.—Against all competition the Bible remains the world's best seller, says Dr. John H. Ritson, who has completed thirty years as secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, which publishes 12,000 Bibles a day. Printed in 62 languages and dialects, the society has circulated 27,000,000 Bibles. With the exception of Russia, where the society is excluded, Dr. Ritson has seen the European Bible circulation doubled, from 700,000 to 1,400,000 volumes. In South America it has risen from 41,000 to 565,000 annually.

Bollinger, Texas.—A horse's grave is delaying the widening of one of Texas' principal highways. Before automobiles became common, Dr. W. W. Fowler made his calls behind Coley, a standard bred horse. Pensioned, Coley died and was buried where he used to watch automobiles pass on the highway. Just before Dr. Fowler died he asked his heirs to see that Coley's grave be not disturbed. State Highway Department officials have been unsuccessful in preliminary efforts to obtain permission to move the grave and its painted fence.

Hackensack, N. J.—Chief Michael Sallman of the North Arlington police department is a stickler for etiquette, so much so that when he started to raid a "speakeasy" at midnight last Friday night and saw his superior, Police Commissioner Daniel Bentschler, at the bar drinking he saluted and decided to make the raid later. "Never let it be said that the foul breath of scandal polluted a North Arlington official through me," the chief told the commissioners.

Washington.—Perfection of chemical cooling for airplane motors, the death knell of the famous Liberty motor, the rapid advance in the use of air-cooled motors and the development of new types of fighting craft, including two-place pursuit planes, three-place twin-motored observation planes and the huge Curtiss Condor bomber, were outstanding events in the 1929 activities of the Army Air Corps, a War Department announcement states today.

Washington.—Representative Hamilton Fish, of New York, introduces a bill in the House authorizing an appropriation of $1,500,000 to buy 10,000 acres of land adjacent to the West Point Military Academy, subject to the approval of Major Gen. William R. Smith superintendent. According to Mr. Fish, the purchase of this property is essential to the proper development of the greatest military school in the world.

Vatican City.—Pope Pius, in his first encyclical of the new year, under the title "Of Christian Education of the Young" today upholds his educational policy, maintaining that education of the youth was the affair first of the Church, then of the family and then of the state.

THIS DEPARTMENT

Well, this looks like it's going to be our last column for a while—unless we bust that Spanish 301. We can think of no better way to bring the affairs of This Department to a close than by offering en toto a letter we received just before the holidays. We are sorry "Silent Contributor" did not write us his valued suggestions months and months ago.

This certainly ought to be a good column, for we have read the Silent Contributor's letter over and over and have profited thereby. We should like to remain at William and Mary another term, merely to receive the aid and moral support of the E. Contributor himself. All is not lost, however. We refer you thankfully, Silent Contributor to one Bill, who, we are informed, will take over our work of doing a weekly column. After we are gone, sir, give your strong, silent support to Bill. We are sure he will appreciate it.

The letter: This Department: Dan, or Whoever writes it: My friend you are wasting a lot of valuable space. Your column lacks it. You have some good ideas but you don't put them across. An expression such as we expected to find Wally wearing a porthole for a lavaliere would have expressed how sick he really looked and would have handed somebody a laugh. (See FLAT HAT, Dec. 6.—Ed.) You lacked that laugh. The punch isn't there.

Not knowing you, I don't care if I do know you, I can't offer much, I imagine, however, you get around quite a bit so why not stick in a few lines like this:

A Wise Crack We Heard and Liked: Fair Co-Ed. (with crooning voice, to a hot and bothered waiter in special dining hall): Oh, who put the overalls in Mr. Cook's chowder? (Set up in 9 10 pt. it won't look so bad when arranged right.) A nice way of putting things across, if you ask me. Not disgusting, you know. But then that soup! If you can't remember where she got her idea from, you might recall the old song, Who Put the Overalls in Mr. Murphy's Chowder?

If you lived in the dorms you could find fault with the mail situation. Uncle Sam owes us a better service.

The dining hall, post office and general look of the campus gives us all something in common. Wally, the Commodore and Little Giant don't get a rumble because nobody knows them.

If you eat in the dining hall you know there are plenty who would like to be given credit for the Chowder crack. Not that meals are bad, but then they could be better.

A final thought the new stadium. If you care for stuff like the above, just publish the one about the Chowder and from time to time I will give you a tip on what looks or sounds hot to me.

(Signed) A SILENT CONTRIBUTOR, if you wish it.

A fine letter, if you ask us, Silent Contributor. Keep up the good work. Pack along some more hot ones and don't forget to help Bill out with the new column from time to time. We're sure he will wish it.

En bien, that about ends the column. Here's a little song, though that we want to put down before we quit:

WONDERFUL! You may be wrong, but You think you're wonderful; You may be wrong, but You think you're swell! You like your style, say, You think it's marvelous, But you're always wrong, so How can you tell?

So endeth. With typewritten tears and well-inked lamentations we bid so long to Al, Barbara, the Little Blond, Art, yea and even to the Silent Contributor.

Merry Christmas, and best wishes for 1931. DAN.

OPEN FORUM LETTERS

One Writes About Quality of Colonel Wood's Address except for longer hours. We would appreciate if you would appeal through your editorial columns for an improved service.

Thanking you, we are, Sincerely yours, "PAT AND IKE."

"Joe" Wishes Flat Hat Success For New Year.

Editor of The Flat Hat, Sir: I understand that The Flat Hat is going to be printed in Williamsburg with the first issue for the year 1930.

I would like to take this means in congratulating you and the business manager for the choice, and think that you will have a much better paper by the change. I do not mean a better paper as far as contents are concerned, but mean in respect to the printing. Best wishes for a successful year, I am, Sincerely, "JOE."

Two students Want More Boxes In New Post Office

Editor of The Flat Hat, Sir: It certainly does seem that we should have more boxes in the new sub-station that has been established on the campus by the U. S. government. The way the office is operating now, it is no better than the old one

DEPUTATION TEAM BROADCASTS OVER NORFOLK STATION

"Y" Program Well Received By Radio Audience Last Sunday

Led by Albert D. Johnson, who is in charge of the deputation work of the Y. M. C. A., the deputation team broadcast a radio program through station WTAR last Sunday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, which consisted of solos, double quartet numbers, readings and talks. This program took the place of the regular Union Mission Sunday afternoon radio entertainment.

Both "Y" organizations were represented on the program. Many congratulatory telegrams and telephone calls came in during the rendition. One message came from Gloucester, New Jersey.

A double quartet opened and closed the program. The men from the Glee Club who composed this double quartet were William Koufman, Preston Ellet, Russel Collins, Lee Rice, William Smith, Thomas McCaskey, Arthur McLawhon and Ben Brunner.

The musical program opened with the rendering of "Alma Mater," by the double quartet, followed by an accordion solo by Lester B. Shelly. Hazel Starch sang "Danny Boy," and Preston Ellet sang, "Sweet Mystery of Life." A reading by Mary Stearns, entitled "Tommy's Prayer," was next on the program, after which William Scott sang "Mother Machree." Charles Snow recited "The Chambered Nautilus," and Sidney Kelsey, accompanied on the piano by Clarence Rives, played a violin solo, "The World Is Waiting For the Sunrise."

Several vocal solos were then presented, with William Koufman singing "Aren't We All?" Thomas McCaskey singing "Paint the Clouds With Sunshine," and Arthur McLawhon singing "Hear Me, Ye Winds and Waves." The musical program ended with the double quartet singing "Winter Song."

Talks were made by Albert D. Johnson and John V. Bauserman. Mr. Johnson talked on "The Valiant Life," and Mr. Bauserman used as his subject "Desire the Best Gifts."

Many requests came in for extra numbers, but the time was too limited to give them. The deputation team was requested to return in March and broadcast another program.

DRAMATIC CLUB PRODUCES SIX PLAYS THIS YEAR

Club Plans Extensive Program For Next Semester

This year the William and Mary Players have produced six plays, two of which were major productions, the rest being long one act dramas. With Henry Hubert Davis' "Mollusc" Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic fraternity, started off the season about three weeks after school began.

The next program was about the middle of November, when four one-act plays were given by the play production class; the plays being "The Twelve Pound Look," "Poor Aubrey," "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets," and "The Travellers." Immediately after these Miss Althea Hunt, director of William and Mary dramatics, started rehearsals for one of the outstanding successes in the history of the club, which gave Eugene O'Neill's "Anna Christi" December 12-13. This is a brief summary of dramatic activity on the campus before Christmas, but it is well to note that the cast of "The Mollusc" made several trips with their play, the most worthy of which was to Schenectady, New York.

According to Truman C. Welling president of the club, the spring program will be as extensive, if not more so, than the fall one. There will be a Shakespearian production and possibly a Senior play to say nothing of the numerous one-act plays.

OLD GOLD INSTALLS NEW ADVERTISING IDEA

Those of our student body who fancy themselves in the roles of Lotharios, handsome ne'er-do-wells and old-fashioned heroes of romance, will do well to study the helps and hints contained in John Held, Jr.'s Old Gold advertisements now appearing in this paper.

The inimitable Held object lessons in successful courtship are among the funniest things we have ever seen in print. That they should appear as sales persuaders for Old Golds subtracts nothing whatever from their funniness.

We make no mistake about the fact that any advertisement in our columns gives us something of a thrill. Business is business often to a college newspaper, but when an advertiser gives us his money and a hearty laugh to boot, we feel like we are playing the game on the square.—Adv.

"Acceleration, rather than structural changes, is the key to an understanding of our recent economic developments."—From the report of President Hoover's Committee on Recent Economic Changes

YESTERDAY, the rumble, creak, and plod of cart and oxen. To-day and to-morrow the zoom of airplanes. Faster production. Faster consumption. Faster communication.

Significant of electricity's part in the modern speeding-up process is the fact that during the last seven years, consumption of electric power increased three and one-half times as fast as population.

General Electric and its subsidiaries have developed and built much of the larger apparatus that generates this power as well as the apparatus which utilizes it in industry and in the home.

The college-trained men who come every year to General Electric take a responsible part in the planning, production, and distribution of electric products, and at the same time receive further technical or business training.

DOWN THE LINE By CURLY

Now that 1929 is ancient history, we believe it is well that we give you a short review of the year in sports.

To begin with, the Fighting Virginians had three Virginia Conference championships to their credit; baseball, track and football. The year 1929 also saw "Cy" Young's diamond artists annex the state championship in baseball.

During the year the William and Mary varsity teams engaged in seventy-nine intercollegiate frays. Of this number they won forty-nine and lost thirty. The year's average in all varsity sports major and minor was .618.

The year at a glance:

Table with 4 columns: Sport, Won, Lost, Percent. Rows include Golf, Football, Track, Wrestling, Baseball, Basketball, Tennis, Swimming, Boxing, and Total.

Notre Dame was named the championship football team of 1929 in a ballot of the leading sports writers of the country. The result was announced a few days ago by W. O. McGeehan, the chairman of the Erskine Committee on Award.

The final ballot shows Rockne's team leading with 179 votes, Pittsburgh second with 41 votes, and Purdue third with two votes. The vote of Theodore Roosevelt, a member of the committee, was cabled from Porto Rico by way of the War Department in Washington.

The Notre Dame team received a huge silver cup signifying the football title, to be held for one year. Knute Rockne, the Rambler's coach, will receive a President Eight sedan.

The award will continue. "Reception of the Erskine Award in this, its first year, has been so enthusiastic on the part of both football experts and the public at large that it has been decided to renew it in 1930," stated W. O. McGeehan, chairman of the committee.

In the matter of versatility in athletics, which is pretty abundant, the following is a striking example. It is a concisely compiled record of what Henry "Zeke" Bonura, infielder purchased from New Orleans by the Cleveland Americans for 1930, has done:

Born in New Orleans, September 20, 1908; weight, 200 pounds; height, 6 feet. Bats and throws right or left handed.

Graduate of St. Stanislaus College, New Orleans, where he captained his team in baseball, football, basketball and track. He started as a pitcher and was very successful as such, but his coach shifted him to first base because of his batting ability. In one college game he hit a single, a triple and three home runs in five times at the bat. In 1925, he took part in an intercollegiate track meet in California and broke the American javelin record with a toss of 213 feet, 10 1-2 inches.

He joined the New Orleans club in 1929, playing first, second and third bases, batting 323 in 131 games, and gathering 149 hits, including twenty-four doubles, fourteen triples and eight homeruns.

In the recent game against Stanford University, Johnny Murrell, Army fullback, and Perry, who played a great game in the line, lost 15 pounds each, while Maxwell, a substitute, lost four pounds sitting on the bench under the California sun. The players weighed before and after the game. Stanford won this game 34-13.

Joseph Dombrowski, former Elizabeth, Pa., high school star and Westminster College tackle who ended his collegiate gridiron career several weeks ago when the Titans defeated Geneva 21-0, played in every quarter of every game for four years at Westminster.

Playing at a strategic point in the line, Dombrowski was never hurt sufficiently to be taken out of the game.

Six times during the last nine years, a Purdue basketball player has led the Western Conference in scoring. Last year "Stretch" Murphy, lengthy center, was the scoring sensation of Big Ten baseball.

Some college wit has dubbed us the Wahoos. Now we have been called most everything else—including some very uncomplimentary things—but this is the first time that we have got this nickname.

"Matsu to Davis" was again the by-word in Richmond on New Year's day.

NORTHERN JAUNT NETS TRIBE .250; TRIM DELAWARE, 38-32

Indians Lose To Maryland, Navy And Princeton On Annual Trip Before Christmas

Losing three out of four games on their annual northern invasion, the William and Mary hard-wood artists got off to a rather poor start in the 1930 season. The only victory registered on the trip was the 38-22 win over the University of Delaware.

All the other frays played were closely contested affairs. The Indians totaled 98 points to their opponents' 104.

December 13 found Coach Kellison at College Park with his charges. In the opening game of the season, the Redskins displayed a fine brand of basketball, scoring as many field goals as the Old Liners, but lost the game on their free throws. Captain Moseleski led his team in scoring with eight point to his credit. Gaylor was the scoring ace for Maryland.

Table with 4 columns: Player, fg, f, tp. Rows include William and Mary players: Silverman, F. Moseleski, Sauerbrun, Sykes, McMenamin, Shaffer, Sundin, Scully, M. Moseleski, and Total.

Table with 4 columns: Player, fg, f, tp. Rows include U. of Maryland players: Evans, Cohen, Rankin, Chalmers, Radice, Hetzel, Berder, Rooney, Heagy, May, Gaylor, Rabbitt, and Total.

The following night the Fighting Virginians traveled to Annapolis where the Middies defeated them 30-19. Shaffer was injured in this game and was forced out of the lineup in the remainder of the games on the trip. Colestock, Navy center, was the individual star of this fray with five two-pointers and three free throws to his credit.

After a layover on Sunday, the green, gold and silver outfit traveled to the University of Delaware where in a fast game they defeated their hosts, 38-22. The Indians had little trouble in handling the Delaware five and held the lead from start to finish. Barton, Delaware forward lead the scoring with eleven points to his credit. He was closely pressed, however, by Harry Light with ten.

Table with 4 columns: Player, fg, f, tp. Rows include William and Mary players: F. Moseleski, Sykes, Sauerbrun, Silverman, McMenamin, Light, Scully, M. Moseleski, Sundin, and Total.

In the final game of this jaunt, the Princeton Tiger took the Indians into camp by the score of 25-18. This was a closely contested fray, but the Princeton boys had a slight advantage. Nickolson led the scoring with seven points to his credit.

SWIMMERS SEEK WIN IN OPENING MATCH OF YEAR

Captain Phillips Pleased With Team; Looks For Successful Season

RECORDS GOOD

Varsity And Freshmen Stars To Compete In Initial Meet At Fort Monroe

Captain Lester Phillips and his water gladiators open the swimming season tomorrow night when they oppose the strong Fortress Monroe outfit in the latter's pool. Being the first skirmish of the year, the relative strength of both teams are as yet unknown quantities, but judging from pool workouts and time trials, the team appears to be the strongest in the history of the school. Several local tank records have already fallen in practice sessions. Phillips, serving as both captain and coach, seems pleased with the efforts of his men and predicts a win for the green gold and silver in tomorrow night's meet.

Phillips and Brodney will be entered in the dashes for the Indians. Both are able to negotiate the 40-yard route less than 20 seconds. Munnell and Seifert are the Redskins' best bet in the distance swim, the latter doing the 440 well under six minutes. This combination ought to give the soldiers plenty of trouble.

The breast-stroke will be handled by Broadney, Dailey, and Leach. Christenson and Van Schiver will take care of the back-stroke. Pre-season times in all these events indicate that each of these men ought to add their bit of poison to the army boys.

Leach, Meade and Flickenger will be entered in the dives with the probable addition of Casey. In the event of his appearance, William and Mary should easily pick up ten points in this event. Phillips, Seifert, Brodney and Murphy, forming the relay team, round out what seems to be a well-balanced tank aggregation.

Last season the college team left Fortress Monroe on the short end of a 45-15 score.

MAJOR ROBINSON SPEAKS

Major Gerald B. Robinson, commanding officer of the First Sound Ranging Battery, one of the two sound ranging units in the regular army, and an authority on physics, addressed Alpha chapter of "Sabre," recently organized national military fraternity, on the subject, "Terrestrial Sound Ranging" Tuesday in Rogers Hall.

Major Robinson was commissioned to the rank of second lieutenant in the coast artillery, regular army on March 30, 1916, and rose to the grade of captain on February 9, 1918. He was appointed to the rank of Major on August 14, 1918.

Members of the local chapter of the physics fraternity were invited to be guests of the evening.

Varsity Track Coach Leaves Columbia To Take Over Duties

Indoor track practice got under way last week with twenty-five candidates for positions on the varsity and freshman relay teams reporting. Light workouts were held last week, but heavier assignments have been given the men since Monday, ending with a time trial which is to be held this afternoon.

The team for the present is training under the leadership of Captain Marshall Baggett, who will be in charge until the first of February, at which time Mr. Chandler, track coach, will return from Columbia University where he has been completing graduate work.

Rudolph Zabel and Ed Trice are the only members of last year's varsity relay team who are available. Graham and Davis, other members of 1929 quartet failed to return to school, the former entering the United States Military Academy and the latter accepting a position.

The relay team, however, will be bolstered by men from last year's freshman quartet. "Wink" Johnson, fresh anchor man, is making a strong bid for the same position on the varsity team. "Speedy" Britton, "O. N. T." Clark, "Billy" Renn, "Oats" Johnson, and Poterfield are other men who are promising prospects for positions.

The freshman team will be picked from the following men: Brookhouse, Eiler, Neale, Williams, Berkwitz, Uldrich, Eaton, Cornell, Humphries and Townend.

Coach Chandler will probably take a varsity relay team to the Milrose Games in New York and to the Meadowbrook Games in Philadelphia, which are held the first week in February. The entire squad of varsity and freshman will make the trip to the University of Virginia Invitation Meet, which will be held on Saturday, February 15.

Last year the William and Mary freshman team walked away with honors in the fresh half of this meet. At present there are but few freshmen out. All track men of the class are asked to come out for the indoor team.

PHOENIX ISSUES PROGRAM

The Phoenix Literary Society will elect officers for the ensuing semester tonight at 7 o'clock in 200 Washington Hall. All members of the Society who have attended as many as three meetings during this semester are eligible to vote. Immediately after the election of officers, the meeting will be turned over to an informal social and smoker at which refreshments are to be served. Inauguration of the newly elected officers will be postponed to February 3rd, at which time a banquet will be given at the Colonial Hotel.

According to E. C. Shortt, president of the society, February 7th and 14th have been set aside for the annual freshman contest. On February 7th, the Phoenix will hold its preliminary contest by which representatives to the final contest to be held on the 14th will be elected. The final contest will be between the representative freshmen of the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies. The contest includes reading, reciting, declamation, oration, and debate. Any freshman member of the society is eligible to

INDIANS DEFEAT HAMPDEN-SYDNEY

Hardwood Artists Win First Virginia Conference Game Easily

William and Mary's basketball team in its initial start in the Virginia Conference easily defeated Hampden-Sydney College last Saturday 35-17. The Indians had things their own way from the opening whistle, and were leading at the half 13-7.

The Tigers were held to a single field goal in the first half by the excellent work of the Braves, and managed to garner but three more two-pointers during the remainder of the game. The majority of their points came by way of the foul line, as they registered nine markers from the free-throw zone.

The playing of Light and Captain Mitchell Moseleski was outstanding for William and Mary; both scored three field goals and two fouls to be tied for leading scoring honors, with eight points apiece. Moore, Tiger forward, led Hampden-Sydney's scoring with six points.

Coach Kellison substituted freely as his entire squad saw action at one time or another. F. Moseleski, substituting at forward and Shaeffer at center contributed materially toward the Indian victory.

Mr. Shortt, as president of the society, urges all the freshmen members of the societies to participate in this contest, reminding them that such training is invaluable to them and especially so in view of the fact that they will shortly be called upon to assume the many responsible now resting upon the shoulders of upper-classmen.

WILLIAM AND MARY CAPTAINS 1

J. V. Bauserman
Captain of Football

It is fitting that the sketches of this year's captains starts with a sketch of the captain of one of the greatest of intercollegiate sports, football. J. V. Bauserman, or "Teddy," was born in Woodstock, January 1, 1908. He has remained there ever since.

"Teddy" came here from Massanutten Prep with an enviable sports record and has kept it up while at William and Mary. During his four years in secondary school, he played football, basketball, and baseball. Having the honor of captaincy of a team is nothing new to "Teddy" for he captained all three sports teams while at Massanutten.

Upon entering here as a freshman, he went out for football and basketball. During the following years he confined his efforts to football and baseball with much success. For the last two years he has held down an outfield berth on the varsity nine.

Last year he was chosen to lead the Fighting Virginians in what turned out to be one of their most successful grid campaigns. As a fitting climax he led the Indians to a 25-6 triumph over Richmond, the largest score ever run up against the Spider by a William and Mary football team.

In addition to his athletic prowess, "Teddy" is a member of the Sigma Epsilon social fraternity, Omicron Delta Kappa, Interfraternity Council, Senior Tribunal, and vice-president of the Monogram Club.

NOTICE

Members of the Art Department will refuse to paint posters for organizations on the campus if the practice of removing them from the bulletin boards and places for advertisement is continued in the future, according to a recent statement from this department.

Many of these posters are class projects and the students are graded on them. When a poster is missing from the boards, the student must either do another or receive a failing grade and the department finds that it will be urged to take this drastic step.

Varsity Invades Charlottesville For Game With Virginia; Others In Blow

W. & L. MATMEN DOWN REDSKINS

Generals Too Experienced For Indians; A Win 33-3; Frosh Lose, 36-0

Both the freshmen and varsity wrestling teams inaugurated their season by losing their initial meets to the Washington and Lee grapplers. The yearlings lost every match to the Little Generals, the final score of their meet being 36-0, while the varsity succeeded in winning only the unlimited event. Captain Douglas obtained a tie advantage over Tonsmeire of Washington and Lee. The final score of their meet was 33-3.

Coach Wilson put a well balanced team of mat artists against the Generals, but the latter's experience proved to much for the Indian necktwisters.

Detailed results of the two matches are as follows:

Freshmen, detailed as follows: Evans, 115-lb., W. & L., won by fall over Beall, W. & M., in 58 seconds; G. Bank, 125-lb., W. & L., won over Williams, W. & M., by fall in 7 minutes 15 seconds; Atkinson, 135-lb., W. & L., won over Savedge, W. & M., by time decision, 9 minutes 2 seconds; Thomas, 145-lb., won over Calhoun, W. & M., by fall after 2 minutes 40 seconds; Mahler, 155-lb., W. & L., won over Murphy, W. & M., in a fast bout, by time decision of 9 minutes; Acting Captain Vanek, 165-lb., W. & L., won over Mitchell, W. & M., by a fall in 1 minute 4 seconds; Wofford, 175-lb., W. & L., won over McLawhon, W. & M., by a fall in 1 minute 45 seconds; Dennison, heavyweight, W. & L., won over Hines, W. & M., by a fall after the latter had a time advantage of 4:20, and there was only 50 seconds left to go. Final score: W. & L., 36; W. & M., 0.

Varsity: Nelson, 115-lb., W. & L., won by fall over Vaughan, W. & M., after 7 minutes 5 seconds of fighting; Captain Kaplan, 125-lb., W. & L., won by fall over Cuddihy, W. & M., in 6 minutes 15 seconds; Marshall, 135-lb., W. & L., won by fall over Thornet, W. & M., in the short time of 1 minute 55 seconds; Belser, 145-lb., W. & L., won by fall over Wright, W. & M., in 2 minutes 50 seconds; Mathis, 155-lb., W. & L., won by a time decision over Grover, W. & M., of 7 minutes 40 seconds; Hall, 165-lb., W. & L., won by fall over Potterfield, W. & M., after 3 minutes 11 seconds of fighting; Mitchell, 175-lb., W. & L., won by fall over Poole, W. & M., after 3 minutes 35 seconds; Douglas, heavyweight, W. & M., defeated Tonsmeire, W. & L., in a time decision of 5 minutes 24 seconds.

DUCS WIN ANOTHER

Last Saturday the Little Indians continued their quest for an undefeated season by winning over the Apprentice School of Newport News 36-16. The victory made it two wins in as many starts and added to the good impression made in the first game. Despite the one-sided score the game was well-played.

The playing in the first half was fairly even the score being 17-12 in favor of the Paposes. However in the second half the freshmen ran away from their opponents, tallying 19 points to Apprentices' 4.

The star of the game was Wally Lynn. His score alone practically equaled the visitors' tallies. On the whole all men played up to form with Goldblatt and Techlor outstanding.

Court Team Meets Virginia Tonight; Richmond Here Saturday Night

EXAMS CAUSE LULL Play Medical College Of Virginia Here On February Fifth

The Indian court team runs up against some of the stiffest opposition of the 1930 campaign within the next few days. This evening the Redskins are in Charlottesville where they will take on the University of Virginia.

Saturday night Blow Gym will be the scene of the first of the annual Indian-Spider court frays. Last year the two rivals split even in basketball, each team winning one contest. Last season also the Dobsonites were successful in annexing the Virginia Conference court title.

The Richmond boys have been stepping at a fast pace this season. They have put up good games with all the teams they have met so far. Last Saturday against Washington & Lee the Spiders fought desperately only to be defeated in the last few minutes of play, 39-35.

Onesty, flashy guard, can be counted upon to cause some trouble in the Indian camp, as well as Adams, the Spider's leading scorer. In addition to these two men, Captain Mann will probably start at forward for the visitors; Eacho, at center, and Sherman at guard. The game is scheduled to get under way at 8 o'clock.

After the Richmond game, there will be an intermission in the sports calendar, due to examinations.

On February 5, however, the Medical College of Virginia cagers are scheduled for a fray here. John Todd, former William and Mary athlete, is coaching the Medicos this season and has developed quite a formidable outfit that may cause Coach Kellison's charges plenty of trouble.

Following this game, the Fighting Virginians travel into western Virginia on their annual invasion, where in four days they will meet Washington and Lee, V. M. I., and V. P. I. The freshman team will accompany the varsity on this trip.

Indian Wrestlers Meet Flying Keydets On Mat Saturday

TRIBE TRAVELS TO LEXINGTON FOR CONTEST

V. M. I. Host To Both Varsity And Freshmen Teams In Second Meet Of Year

DOUGLAS INJURED

Keydets Present Experienced Team: Four Lettermen Form Nucleus Of Squad

Saturday finds both the William and Mary freshman and varsity wrestling teams in Lexington for their match with the V. M. I. neck twisters. This is the second meet for the grapplers this season, the other one turning out rather disastrously.

Coach "Red" Wilson was not disappointed with the showing that his teams made at Washington and Lee before Christmas, for it pointed out the weaknesses of his various contestants. These have been ironed out and a much smoother and powerful team has resulted.

About the same men will be entered in the V. M. I. meets, as were entered in the Washington and Lee contest. The Indians will be handicapped by the loss of acting-captain Douglas who is in the hospital recovering from an operation. Douglas wrestled in the unlimited class and was the only man to score a point for the tribe in the last meet.

Pete Hesmer, the Flying Keydets' mat coach, has built his team with four letter men from last year's squad as a nucleus. Captain Ducky Feild, Talman, McCreary, and Parker are the only veterans back. Each one except McCrary has been shifted to a heavier weight, with the vacant berths filled by substitutes or last year's freshmen. Forsythe is the leading 115-pounder, with Will and McCown dominating the 125-pound class. Captain Feild and Dewey head the 134-pounders, and two newcomers, Wood and Ireland, lead the 145-pound contenders. Noble and Stone, in the 145-pound group, and McCreary, in the next class, are outstanding. Talman has the 175-pound division to himself, though he wrestled twenty pounds lighter last season. Parker and Leach are the leading heavies. In all probability the Keydets' entries in Saturday's meet will be chosen from this group.

This is the first time that the Indians and Keydets have met on the mat, and no prediction as to the outcome can be given. The V. M. I. grapplers, however, are outstanding among the wrestling teams in the Southern Conference, but Coach Wilson expects his men to make a credible showing in their second meet.

APPOINTED TO POST

Captain T. P. Walsh has recently been appointed Commander of Battery A, Fort Eustis, Virginia. He and Mrs. Walsh have moved to Fort Eustis. Captain Walsh has also served in the capacity of military instructor for "Sabre," national military fraternity, the Alpha Chapter of which is located at William and Mary.

FRESHMAN CABINET SELECTED

The Freshman Cabinet of the Y. M. C. A., consisting of six girls elected by the freshman class and six girls selected by the members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, was chosen last Saturday.

The following girls were elected by the girls of the freshman class: Virginia Romm, Annis Wilkerson, Katherine Cubberly, Elizabeth Pratt, Eleanor Harwood and Page Johnson

The girls selected by the Cabinet were Theodora Parker, Gladys Monroe, Margaret Otis, Michigan, Jean Lyly of Washington, Duer McNair, and Emily Dunlevey.

BASKET BALL COACH

COACH KELLISON

Former William And Mary Athletes In All-Stars' Lineup In New Year's Game

Meb Davis, Art Matsu, Svey Eason And Bill Fields Star For Collegians

Experience and weight were two big handicaps that enabled Benny Friedman's Professionals to win the New Year's Day game in Richmond over an all-star collegiate eleven 20-7. Several William and Mary athletes were in the starting lineup for the collegians, including Art Matsu, Meb Davis, Svey Eason, and Bill Fields.

The college stars showed a lack of practice together in the ragged play that they put up, but individuals showed spectacular flashes at times. The collegians could do little against the heavier forward line of the Pros and most of the All-Stars gains were made on passes from Matsu to Davis, both former Indian starts and captains of Fighting Virginian elevens. Several years ago, "Matsu to Davis" was a by-word for every sports writer in the Old Dominion.

Passes were the big threat in each team's offense. Most of those were failures, but one from Matsu to Nutter was good for twenty yards. After three passes had failed late in the final period, the fourth in succession found its way into the waiting arms of Meb Davis, who raced sixty yards behind perfect interference for the collegians' only score. In the attempt for the extra point, Matsu fumbled a bad pass from center, but recovered in time to pass to Davis for the extra point.

The work of Davis, Matsu, Barnes, and Littlejohn featured the play of the collegian's backfield, while Smith and Willard of V. M. I., and Eason and Fields of William and Mary were outstanding men in the line.

The entire professional team displayed a powerful brand of football. The versatility of the professionals was an interesting feature of the game. Most of the men could play the backfield as well as the line. Several times linesmen carried the ball with the backfield stars filling up the gaps left vacant in the forward wall. Plansky, Friedman, Friedman, Wycoff and Moran were the outstanding men on the Pro team.

MORTAR BOARD MEETS

Alpha Chapter of Mortar Board held a meeting for all Freshmen women in Phi Beta Kappa Hall Monday night at which time Dr. Grace Warren Landrum and Dr. Paul A. Warren talked to the students on how to study for examinations. The main theme was to study hard at the time to study and to get plenty of sleep and rest before the examinations.

FROSH DOWN SURRY

Last Tuesday night the William and Mary freshmen basketball team opened their season by defeating the Surry High School Quint in Blow Gym, 47-18.

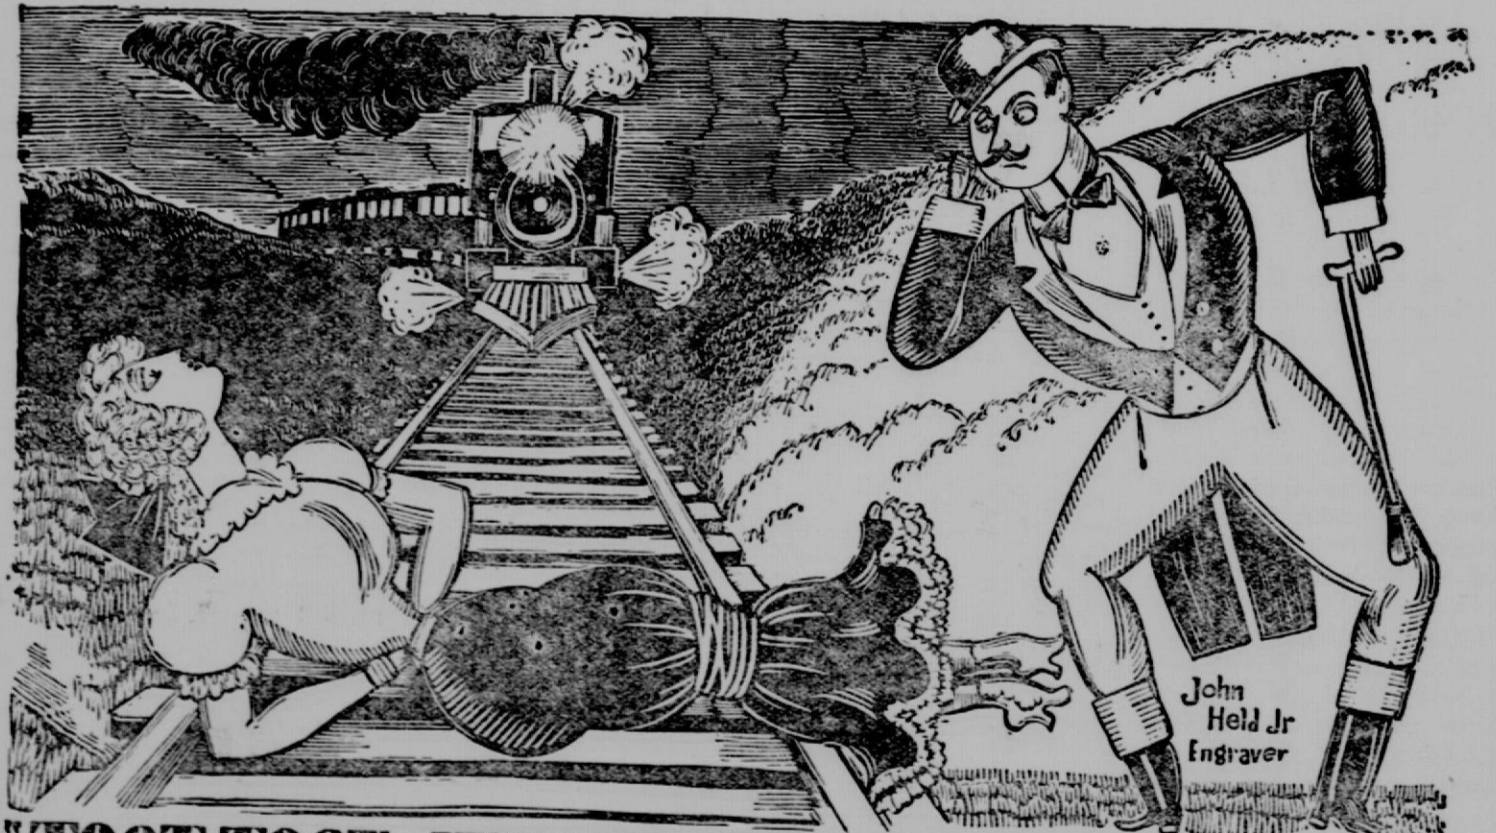

The yearlings had the edge from the first whistle and never were behind at any point of the game. At half time the score stood 18-1 in their favor. In the second half they opened up a scoring barrage with Reed and Halligan in the leading roles and scored 29 points to their opponents 8.

"Never!" cried Our Nell, bound to the rails, her eyes blazing with defiance. "Death is preferable to a life with such as you."

"How do you make that out?" he purred.

"A rasping voice such as yours would make life a living hell," she answered him. "Unbind me, change to OLD GOLDS and maybe I'll listen to reason."

FASTEST GROWING CIGARETTE IN HISTORY... NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

"Cy" Young's Charges Play Maury Here Tomorrow Nite

DUCS TO GO ON WESTERN JAUNT WITH VARSITY

Fray Tomorrow Night To Be Hotly Contested; Maury Has Strong Team

GAME AT 8 P. M.

Yearlings Meet Little Generals, V. M. I., V. P. I., and A. M. A. On Trip

Tomorrow night in Blow Gym, the William and Mary freshman five meets the Maury High School team from Norfolk. From all indications this fray will compare favorably with the Indian-Spider tilt on the following night.

Last Friday night the Maurites defeated the strong Central High court team from Washington, 24-18. The freshmen are anxious to mak it four straight and leave a clean slate to start their trip through the western part of the state.

Accompanying the varsity on this trip, the freshmen quint will open February 7 with Washington and Lee fresh in what promises to be a close contest. On the following night, also in Lexington, the yearlings play the V. M. I. rats. Both of these games will force "Cy" Young's charges to the limit and provide plenty of opposition. February 10 finds them in Blacksburg playing the strong V. P. I. first year quint, and they end up their jaunt on February 12 in Staunton, meeting the Augusta Military Academy five.

This trip is the lengthiest and hardest ever attempted by a William and Mary freshman team, and finds them meeting some of the strongest freshman and prep school teams in this part of the country.

"Wally" Wynn, fleet and sure forward, has been the yearlings' outstanding point getter. Goldblatt and Teckler have been displaying some very pretty floor work, while Gordon and Reed round out a fast, well balanced team.

TRI DELTS WIN FRAT TOURNNEY

Varsity Defeats All-Sorority Team To Close Tournament, 17-12

On December 12 the Delta Delta Delta sextette defeatd the Alpha Chi Omega's, 14-8 to win the championship of the sorority tourney. All the other sororities had been eliminated before this time, and this was the final game of the tournament.

Ford played a great game at center for the winners, while Thomas copped scoring honors with seven points to her credit.

The lineup:

Tri Dents	Pos.	Alpha Chi Omega
Thomas	rf.	Becherle
Fulwiller	lf.	Horsey
Ford	c.	Allan
Harper	sc.	Quick
Roberts	rg.	Foreman
Shumate	lg.	Johnson

Scoring: Tridelts—Thomas 7; Fulwiller, 7—Alpha Chi Omega's—Becherle 3, Horsey 5.

As a fitting close to this tournament, and all-sorority team picked by the women's physical education department played the varsity, the latter winning, 17-12.

The sorority team took the lead at the whistle, but soon dropped behind. At the half the score stood 6-9 in favor of the varsity. Sollenberger led in scoring with thirteen points to her credit. Munson, of the all-sorority team, lead her squad with five points.

The lineup:

All-Sorority	Pos.	Varsity
Munson	rf.	Sollenberger
Dabney	lf.	Wyatt
Ford	c.	Brown
Wilcox	sc.	King
Roberts	rg.	Chewning
Dunleavy	lg.	Wynn

Substitutions:—Sorority — Kuberly for Munson, Fulwiler for Dabney Thomas for Fulwiler, Dunleavy for Ford, Harper for Wilcox, Quick for Harper, Johnson for Roberts, Clark for Dunleavy. Varsity—Young for Wyatt, Wyatt for Young, Young for Brown.

Scoring:—Sorority — Munson, 5, Kuberly 3, Fulwiler 3, Dabney 1; Varsity—Sollenberger 13, Wyatt 4.

ART CLUB PRESENTS EXHIBIT

An exhibit of original paintings obtained from the Art Center in New York City was presented by the Art Club in the activities room of Barrett Hall, Friday and Saturday, January 11th and 12th. These works of Theodore Coe present scenic views in Virginia and the coasts of Maine and Florida. This is only one of many exhibits being planned by the association and to be presented in the near future.

WORK OF BIOLOGY CLUB IS SCANNED

Plans Are Now Being Made For Next Semester By Members

Two field trips and a series of successful semi-monthly programs mark the term for the Clayton-Grimes Biology Club. The field trips—one to the James River and one to the York—were most hunting expeditions that resulted in gratifying "finds" and provided interesting discussions followed by regular meetings. Both were directed by Dr. Davis on Sunday afternoons—the first in early October, the second late in November. They represented only a portion of the work undertaken by the club this year. Features of the regular meetings have included papers on individual researches by members and addresses by authorities on Biology. Lectures have been frequently supplemented by motion picture slides, and student research has been marked by real results. Perhaps the most outstanding work which has been achieved by members of the organization was that done by Margaret Blaney, when she reported her own field notes on Scotch Broom. It was the first time that similar work has ever been done with this familiar plant.

A schedule similar to the one followed this term is planned for the coming semester. It is expected that a second expedition will be conducted to the York River to hunt fossils, and that the annual winter trip in May will complete the year's field work. A laboratory study night, or exhibition of interesting biological phenomena is planned for the early spring, and more unusual programs are forecast.

WOOD ADDRESSES MEN AND WOMEN AT CONVOCAATION

Colonel Talks On "Crime" and "Prison Reform"

FREQUENT VISITOR HERE

Colonel E. Wood, frequent visitor to Williamsburg and president of Williamsburg Holding Corporation, addressed the student body on "Crime and Prison Reform."

Colonel Wood is recognized as an authority on this subject, having been Deputy Commissioner and Commissioner of Police of City of New York for some years.

Colonel Wood prefaced his talk on Prison Reform with the remark that he was not a sentimentalist in this matter. He described present conditions saying, "Must any change would be for the better?" He believes in a humanitarian, common sense prison reform; one which would do away with the present stigmatized, machine-like methods of handling law-breakers of all sorts in the same manner instead of giving them the individual treatment which he thinks so necessary and beneficial to both the criminal and society. Colonel Wood is a graduate of Harvard University. He was a professor for ten years, saw service in France during the last war and in it won the Distinguished Service Medal. He has since seen service, as has been said above, as Police Commissioner of New York City.

TUCKER JONES HONORED

L. Tucker Jones, Professor of Physical Education of the College of William and Mary, has been elected to the Advisory Council of the Society of Physical Directors of Colleges. Professor Jones is one of twenty-five members of the advisory association. He has recently returned from New York where he attended a meeting of the national association. He is also a member of the National Committee of Physical Education Curriculum.

ARE YOU INFORMED AND DO YOU REALIZE THAT?

(By: S. H. and B. H.)

- 1.—That the College of William and Mary received this year's largest appropriation of funds has since had many other uses, operated in institutions.
2.—That the total yearly enrollment has increased over 150% since the session 1919-20. From 633 to 1,564 for 1928-29.
3.—That the new library will when fully furnished and installed accommodate one-third of the resident student body. This is the highest proportion of any school in the south.
4.—That work has been begun on an additional office and shop building for the City of Williamsburg.
5.—That the oldest newspaper south of the Potomac River has been revived in Williamsburg. (Virginia Gazette was founded in 1736.)
6.—That the membership of William and Mary alumni association is only one-tenth of what it should be. Only 40% out of about 4,000 alumni are members.
7.—That the library of the college has the original minutes of the first Greek letter of fraternity in America? It has those of Phi Beta Kappa, founded in 1776 in Raleigh Tavern, Williamsburg, Virginia.
8.—That the old Sir Christopher Wren building, second oldest college standing building in America, has been burned three times: 1705, 1849, and 1892—and still has its original walls.
9.—That this building has seen services during four great wars.
10.—That there is preserved in the William and Mary library as pieces of the original bed of the college, with the date 1717 stamped on it.
11.—That there is also in the library a copy of "Commentaries" studied by John Marshall, with his signature on it.
12.—That the papers of Lord Botetourt, the first Governor of the colony, were placed in 1795 where they are today.
13.—That all members of the faculty of the college registered in as body in 1861 to join the Confederate army, and that each student old enough also enlisted.
14.—That THE GREAT HAT is doing all in its power to produce an interesting college weekly, and that in the future it will appear on THURSDAY instead of Friday.

Lewis E. Brown and Ray E. De Camp, co-editors of the anthology of William and Mary literature to be entitled "Script" state that more material is needed for the publication. A good deal of material including poetry, short stories, essays and plays has already been turned in and additional material will be accepted until February 26.

The book is to be bound in a dark green cloth binding with the college seal in gold and silver on the back to carry out the college colors, green, gold and silver. On the front cover there will be a seal of the college in relief.

Publicity concerning "Script" has spread rapidly and the editors are daily receiving letters of congratulation and encouragement from people both in the state and outside. The volume will be good publicity not only for the college, but also for the contributing as it will be readily outstanding literary people all over the country, it is believed. This is the first time that an anthology of William and Mary literature has been attempted although similar projects have been successful at many other colleges. The editors wish to emphasize the fact that anybody on campus is eligible to contribute manuscripts.

SPEAKERS TO COME HERE

Under the auspices of the local Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. several prominent speakers will be brought to the campus during the spring term. In February, Dr. W. D. Weatherford, of Blue Ridge, N. C., will speak. Dr. Allyn K. Foster, a well-known platform speaker, has been secured for March 4, 5, and 6, and Dr. William Pettie, President-emeritus of Wake Forest College, will speak on April 10 and 11.

NEWLY REMODELED LIBRARY OPEN FOR STUDENTS

These New Reading Rooms Feature Complete Structure

The newly remodeled library of the College of William and Mary will be one of the most complete college libraries in the south, according to a recent statement issued by Dr. E. G. Sween, Librarian.

Three new reading rooms with seating capacity for 500 students have been added at a cost of $105,000.00 to the state of Virginia. The furniture for the new rooms, especially designed in marble, will conform to the William and Mary period and will be installed by June.

The new library has a shelving capacity of 400,000 volumes. At present the library contains only 70,000 volumes but before the end of the year an additional number of from five to eight thousand is expected.

Although not definitely decided the third floor is planned to be devoted to the law library and to use of students of the law school exclusively.

"Waffles" Winn Decides To Accompany Branchi

Popular Senior To Take His Light Roadster With Branchi's South American Expedition. To Carry Another Student

W. Warfield Winn, '30, of Richmond, Virginia, has decided to accompany Dr. Branchi on his direct highway expedition to South America. Mr. Winn made this decision yesterday and by special efforts The Flat Hat has been able to get this story before any newspaper or syndicate has.

Mr. Winn will also have a companion, who has not yet been selected. He will make the trip in a special equipped light roadster with ten or twelve pairs of wheels. The party will consist of four, namely: Dr. E. C. Branchi, Hughes Kistler, Warfield Winn, and the other person to be selected tomorrow, Saturday. The four will be known through the entire world as "The Branchi South America Expedition."

The party will leave from the college entrance at 8:30 A. M., January 28. From here they will go to Richmond, Washington, and New York City; from the latter city the trip will really begin. Through the untiring efforts of Dr. Branchi, much publicity has been secured, and it is understood that the party will be formally received in many cities.

Mr. Winn was to graduate in June, but his like for adventure has lured him to accept the invitation, and his car will accompany and follow the light special equipped sedan of the explorer and adventurer, Dr. E. C. Branchi.

"Waffles" is a member of Gamma chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha, social fraternity; Flat Hat Club Society, America's oldest Greek letter fraternity; "7" Club; "13" Club, and Special Staff Correspondent for The Flat Hat.

As the party goes from city to city, Mr. Winn, will write a complete bulletin of the trip, and wire it to the editors of The Flat Hat for publication. He will return in about three months.

Chicago.—A $1,000,000 closed corporation to convert cornstalks to industrial use has been organized here as the result of three years of research work suggested by Former Governor Frank O. Loudon. The announcement of the organization includes the names of prominent farm readers and Chicago business men who advanced half a million dollars to develop processes of converting cornstalks into cheap but good quality thin lumber substitutes.

Washington.—Desertions from the army dropped from 13,760 to 9,690 in the last five years, as compared with the previous five-year period, indicating that a better class of men were entering the army. Representative Wainwright of New York stated in the House. This statement was prompted by the suggestion of Representative LaGuardia of New York that the term of enlistment should be one year instead of three. He contended that a shorter term of enlistment would stop desertions.

London.—The latest example of the "Americanization" of Europe is seen in an announcement today of a $5,000,000 hotel to be built near the Marble Arch with 2,000 bedrooms and 2,000 baths. It is expected to be the largest hotel in all Europe.

Home of Lee Purchased By Southern States

(By John T. Goelrich, Fredericksburg.)

Cally Ryland in her "By the Way" column, in the Richmond News Leader: For more than sixty-five years the name of Robert E. Lee has been on the lips and engraved on the hearts of Southerners, who have found no adjective too noble or too majestic to describe the loftiest character that any country ever produced.

The project to purchase Stratford, the birthplace of Robert E. Lee and his immediate ancestors, is one that thrills the heart of every Southern man and woman. The purchase price is $240,000, of which $50,000 has already been paid. Virginians will raise $100,000 of the $190,000 still due on the purchase price.

In the meantime other Southern states are putting forth their best efforts to get in their contributions ahead of Virginia. In North Carolina, always our strongest rival in any public-spirited campaign, the committee chairman said that she considered it the highest privilege that had ever been accorded her to work for the purchase of Lee's birthplace, adding that with the enthusiasm displayed in her state they would have no difficulty whatever in raising the amount they had promised before Virginia has her quota.

If Virginia should fail in this sacred duty and privilege every Virginian who has not contributed should turn his face to the wall in shame and never let the name of "Lee" pass his lips again.

A contributor writes on this subject. "The newspapers tell us that the birthplace of Robert E. Lee has been purchased, that a first payment has been made and that a second payment (and, it is to be hoped, the whole amount due) will be made this Sunday, Lee's birthday.

"No Southerner, wherever he is, fails to soften his voice at the name of Robert E. Lee. He belongs to the whole South, but thank God! he was born in Virginia and his remains rest in Virginia. It seems to me especially fitting that Virginia should lead all states in the effort to purchase his birthplace. It is unfortunate enough that it does not belong to the state, but I cannot believe that Virginians will ever have it said that Virginia did not do her part towards its purchase."

Virginia will never have to make such a statement. From the child in the most prosperous citizen in the school and the man in the street to community there will be an outpouring of pennies and dimes and dollars by hundreds and thousands to assure to Virginia and the South the birthplace of the man whom, above all other men, the South delights to honor.

Before the Southern Historical Society in Atlanta, Ga., in 1874, Benjamin H. Hill pronounced this eulogy: "He possessed every virtue of other great commanders without their vices. He was a foe without hate; a friend without treachery; a soldier

AN ANNOUNCEMENT

The editors of the Flat Hat are very sorry that this issue is appearing late, but due to difficulties at the new Printing Plant, the printers have been unable to get it out on time on account of the Intertype machine breaking down.

The paper is dated for Thursday and all articles written accordingly.

We hope that the student body and faculty will accept our apologies.

New York.—The National Automobile Show closed its thirteenth annual session Saturday night after running for a week in Grand Central Palace. The paid attendance and sales totals, according to S. A. Miles, show manager, surpassed those of every year except 1928. An attendance of approximately 35,000 persons daily gave proof that public interest had not waned, as had been feared by many car manufacturers.

without cruelty; a victor without oppression, and a victim without murmuring. He was a public officer without vices; a private citizen without wrong; a neighbor without reproach; a Christian without hypocrisy, and a man without guile. He was a Caesar without his ambition; Frederick without his tyranny; Napoleon without his selfishness, and Washington without his reward."

Contributions may be given to the local committee, or at any newspaper office, or mailed to Herbert W. Jackson, Virginia Trust Company, Richmond.

CHIMNEYS FINISHED

Article Contains Complete Description of Reconstruction

During the past few months students of William and Mary have been busy with the reconstruction project to restore the Main building. An undertaking made possible by the munificence of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Four tall chimneys, two on either side of the building are already completed. Of interest is the fact that these bricks were prepared in a pug-mill by the method of colonial days. This consists of a large wooden tub without heads, set upright on the ground, and furnished with an iron spindle at the axis, carrying knives, which cut and compress the clay as it falls by gravity towards ground level. A small rectangular hole, cut in the tub at ground level, allows the ground clay to extrude so that it can be cut away with a spade and placed in a moulder. In brick form, and fairly firm, it is then taken from the moulder and piled over ovens running tunnel-like under the pile. After two weeks of drying, the finished brick is obtained.

Gunitite, under air pressure has been blown into the crumbling hollow parts of the original outer-brick walls. To this has been added a four-inch layer of terra cotta and finally plaster, making the walls average two and one-half feet in thickness.

The roof has been taking shape by the erection of the structural steel girders and frames of the dormer windows which, when completed, will be found to resemble the roofing of the present buildings.

In recent excavations, another drainage tunnel leading from the north wing of the main building and due west has been disclosed. This tunnel, and the one leading from the rear entrance, will be used for piping.

From what is known at present, the Main building will be ready for use January 1, 1931. Once again classes will be held in rooms on the first and second floors; the chapel will be a place of daily worship; the grand hall will witness many gaieties. The third floor wings of the building, over the chapel and grand hall, will be given over to the Phoenix and Philomathean literary societies as places of meeting; while professors will have offices in rooms on the same floor.

lieved occasionally by the humorous observations of the negro servant, Sylvester.

Maurice Berkwitz, who made his initial appearance on the William and Mary stage last December, as "ole Chris," in in Anna Christie, will portray the coldly clever Dr. Von Holtz; Dimi Wallace will have the juvenile lead, with Nancy Johnson playing opposite him as Mae Stillman. Minor characters include Marshall Baggett as old Mr. Stillman; Mary Parry as Princess Teth-Ramon, a mummy; Robert Moses and Lee Rice as Heitman and Herder, the two hypnotised servants of Dr. Von Holtz, and Hugh Clements as Sylvester, the chauffeur.

The production will be directed by Miss Althea Hunt, assisted by the Play Production Class.
