ALUMNI EDITION

THE FLAT HAT

A LITTLE JOURNEY TO THE HOMES OF 100 WILLIAM AND MARY ALUMNI

Giving a Slight Idea of What The Old Boys Are Doing At Present

The purpose of this edition of the Flat Hat is to give each alumnus, into whose hands a copy may chance to fall, an idea of what his class mates have done since they left the old college.

For the benefit of the alumni, we have scanned the files of the register and collected the names of many of the old boys. We know not how many of these wore the orange and black upon the athletic field or who acquired fame in the literary societies but we take pleasure in introducing the men whose names follow as worthy types of William and Mary men—men who are making good in their chosen professions:

E. T. Carter is a practicing attorney, Gate City, Va; A. G. Brown is U. S. Consul, Mazathan, Mexico; J. A. C. Chandler is Supt. City Schools, Richmond, Va., J. H. Chitwood is assistant U. S. Attorney, Roanoke, Va., E. M. Cooley is Division Supt. Schools Carroll Co. Va., W. L. Davidson is practicing law at Jonesville, Lee Co. Va., K. A. HARD FOUGHT BATTLE LOST TO SPIDERS ON CARY FIELD

Richmond College Wins Exciting Contest by Straight Football. Bertschy Again Stars.

Before the largest crowd ever assembled on Cary Field to witness a foot ball game, Richmond College defeated William and Mary by a score of 7 to 3. The home team put up a game fight and several times checked their opponents under the shadow of their goal posts, but they were unable to score enough points to offset the single touchdown of the Spiders. The Orange and Black was on the defense the greater part of the game, and when in possession of the ball was unable to make much gain through the heavy Richmond team.

Captain Bertschy's work as usual featured. His tackling was hard and sure, and his running back of punts excellent, but his best work was with his toe. When kicking he was always forced to get the ball away fast, but time and again his punts went over forty yards, and were of that high twisting kind that are a blessing to ends. The field goal that he scored was superb. The ball was kicked from the forty-seven yard line and went high over the cross bar.

Besides the above named star there were Wyatt, Games, Taylor and Addington who did especially good work for William and Mary; while for Richmond, Logan, Craig, Robins and Newton starred.

William and Mary was the first to score, and it was during the first few minutes of play. Richmond received the kick-off, but after making one first down fumbled, and Addington recovered the ball. Gayle and Taylor made eight yards and Games made it first down, putting the ball on the Spiders 37 yard line. When Wyatt and Gayle failed to gain Bertschy dropped back to the forty-seven yard line, and placed a beautiful drop-kick squarely between the goal posts.

For the rest of the game the play was generally in William and Mary's territory but the Spiders were unable to score except during the third quarter when Logan received one of Bertschy's punts on his own 40 yard line and ran it back fifteen yards. Ancarrow, Logan and Robins then made first down, and a forward pass, Ancarrow to Logan, netted fifteen yards. From this point the ball was carried to the goal line by straight line plunges, and Craig carried it over for the only touchdown of the game. Ancarrow kicked goal.

Near the last of the fourth quarter Richmond attempted a field goal but the ball fell short and Bertschy ran it back twenty-three yards. The Orange and Black then started down the field. A long forward pass Wallace to Bertschy, gained twenty yards and another forward pass to Prillaman added eight more. Gayle made first down. Two line plays and an end run made it first down again, but on the next play the whistle blew ending the game.

ACADEMY ELEVEN EASY VICTIM OF STRONG JOHN MARSHALL TEAM

High School Boys Score Seven Touchdowns On Captain Tucker's Squad

The Academy was overwhelmingly defeated by the John Marshall High School Saturday on Cary Field.

The High School's back field tore through the line and around the end repeatedly and had little difficulty in scoring seven touchdowns. The first was scored before the locals got possession of the ball.

The Richmond preps were heavier and much more experienced than the locals.

The Academy boys seemed to have an off day and allowed run after run that could easily have been stopped. When the final whistle was blown the score stood 46 to 0 in favor of John Marshall.

Tucker, Taylor, and Wilson did the best work for the Academy while Owens, Sales, and Stringer starred for the visitors.

TO THE ALUMNI

This is the "Alumni Edition" of the Flat Hat and we are sending it to all the Alumni, young and old, whose addresses we can find.

To those of you who have been with us during the last three years, (the life of the Flat Hat) we need say nothing as to the value of the little paper as a means of keeping in touch with your Alma Mater. But to the older men we wish to say that the Hat comes out every Tuesday with all the happenings of the previous week, giving all whose hearts still beat for William and Mary a chance to follow the progress of the ancient college.

Heretofore the Management has made no special effort to reach the Alumni, but now, acting upon the suggestion of several old friends, we have decided to bring our little journal to the attention of all the staunch old hearts we can reach, felling from what we have heard that we've been not only careless, but actually selfish in keeping to ourselves all the good things the old college offers the true William and Mary man, be he young or old.

We now not only ask forgiveness of those we have slighted, but we beg them to show that they forgive and forget by sending us a subscription to the Hat, thus treating themselves to a little letter from their Alma Mater each week, and also cooperating with the Staff in their effort to make the college a better and more potent factor in the lives of all who are fortunate enough to bear the name—William and Mary man.

On the first page of this edition you will find a subscription blank. Tear it out and mail it to the Business Manager at once. If your check book is ready to hand, enclose a check for $1.00; if not, sign your name, and the Business Manager will do the rest.

LITERARY PROGRAM

A literary program which ought to prove interesting to every student will be rendered in the College Chapel Thursday evening the 29th. The program will be short and spicy. The best talent of the Freshman Class will be represented. Four men have been selected from each society to make up this program and while they have never done any literary work in College they have a record in the high school from which they came. Clarence Jennings, president of the Senior Class will preside at the meeting.

SOUTHWEST CLUB ORGANIZED

The boys from Southwest Virginia met in the College Chapel Wednesday evening and organized their club for the year. True to its custom this club is yet the largest in college, there being about forty members this year. The officers chosen are as following: President, H. L. Harris, Wise County; vice president, Z. T. Kyle, Carroll County; secretary, B. W. Woods, Giles County; treasurer, W. C. West, Patrick County; chaplain, C. A. Moses, Montgomery County; executive committee, R. L. Combs, Lee County; J. M. Bishop, Scott County; "Bill" Lyon, Pulaski County.

ALUMNI AT RICHMOND COLLEGE GAME

The Alumni on Saturday last again proved the permanence of the old William and Mary spirit by turning out in large numbers to see our game with Richmond College. They began coming in already on Friday morning and by Saturday noon most of the recent graduating classes had a very good representation in town.

The youngsters could not claim the day as their own, however, for bald heads and grey beards were in evidence everywhere.

Below is a partial list of the old boys who were with us:

Chas. Taylor, John Weymouth, Joe Healey, T. R. Collier, Max Blitzer, F. P. Goodwin, G. P. Arnold, W. L. Drewry, J. D. Huffines, Chas. Smith, J. H. Wright, T. C. Tilley, J. L. Tucker, H. H. Blackwell, R. B. Blackwell, W. C. Metcalf, J. H. Brent, A. T. Leatherbury, Ike Young, J. H. Cato, A. W. James, John Hoskins, Clifford Ladd, J. C. Bristow, J. B. Terrell and D. B. Spencer.

Manager Ferguson has arranged for a special train to Newport News next Saturday.

ALUMNI

ALUMNI are the people who have crept in at the front door of a college and stumbled out the back door into life, where they are expected by their Alma Mater to paste upon her name sundry great achievements, superhuman ones preferred. There is, however, very little preferred stock obtainable. William and Mary has none, but she has realized a considerable dividend from her common stock. Most of this is now dead, death being an essential in acquiring fame.

For the benefit of those who slept during the performance, we will mention a few who have left our venerable halls in quest of the golden fleece. John Marshall, the man who didn't mind carrying fish for young squirts, found a considerable growth of fleece on constitutional interpretation; Wm. Munford beautifully anglicized Homer; Winfield Scott put many a blue bean in Mexican bones; Thomas Jefferson edited and published the Declaration.

Dear reader, you should get acquainted with us; we've been here over 200 years and expect to stay till Gabriel gets on the job. If you haven't knocked at our portals, do so without further delay; we turn out men thoroly surcharged with potentiality for fame.

Speaking of a recent batch, there's Wayne Metcalf, and Arthur James etc. They haven't humanly achieved yet, but their Alma Mater has her eyes on them. Of course, their accomplishments will never be known until they turn up their toes to the daisies; then their names will be painted in orange and white on the walls of the Hall of Fame, with this self-explanatory phrase: "Alumni of William and Mary."

SPOTTSWOOD CLUB NOTICE

The Spottswood Club will meet in Prof. John Tyler's rooms Thursday evening next. All members are urged to be present.
