

The Weather: Fair with rising temperature today; Wednesday, cloudy and colder in afternoon or night. Sun rises 7:19 a. m., sets 5:07 p. m.

THE FLAT HAT

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

INDIANS DEFEAT ROANOKE;
CO-ED DANCES IN FEBRUARY
F. H. CONSTITUTION PASSED.

VOL. XXII.

WILLIAMSBURG, VIRGINIA, TUESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1933.

NO. 13.

W. & M. PLAYERS CO-OPERATE IN NEW THEATRE OPENING

INDIANS DEFEAT ROANOKE MAROONS BY 36-26 SCORE

Tricolor Jumps Into Early Lead to Hold Advantage Throughout Contest. First Victory of Season for Outfit.

W&M LEADS AT HALF, 19-7

Second Team Sees Action at Close of Fray; Gallinant and Litwin High Scorers for Evening.

The William and Mary basketball outfit, smarting under the sting of two straight defeats, sailed into a stubborn Roanoke College five to score their first win of the year last Saturday night in Blow Gym, 36-26.

The Kellisonmen jumped into the lead soon after the opening tip-off when Gallinant made good on a free try and followed it up with a pretty goal from the side court. Litwin scored on a pretty play soon after and the Indians had a 5-0 lead. With Litwin and Gallinant leading the attack through the remainder of the half until Litwin went out via the personal foul route, William and Mary left the floor on the long end of a 19-7 score.

With Lefty Gallinant showing the way at the start of the second period the Indians rolled up a 27-8 lead over the Maroons but at this point the Roanoke team led by Turner and Garland found the meshes for eight points while holding the Tricolor scoreless. The second stringers finished up the game and matched the tied Maroon team point for point with the final tally bringing the score to 36-26.

Lefty Gallinant and "Mona" Litwin led the Indian attack with Captain Lynn showing up well on defensive. Garland and Turner were the loser's best bets.

(Continued on page 2)

MARSH TO DISCUSS RUSSIAN SITUATION

Economics Professor to Address the International Relations Club on "Status of the Russian Experiment."

Dr. Charles F. Marsh, professor of Economics, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the International Relations Club on Thursday night. Dr. Marsh's topic will be "The Current Status of the Russian Experiment." He will discuss the recently completed Five Year Plan of the U. S. S. R. from the standpoint of an economist, and will include the effect of the plan on international economics and finance. The meeting will be held in Philomathean Hall in the Wren Building at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30, in order that the members may attend the opening of the new Williamsburg R. K. O. Theatre.

The election of officers for the coming semester will also take place at this meeting. The present officers are Charles Marshall, president; Mary Minichin, secretary; Ben Bruner, program chairman.

New Library Books Purchased With Carnegie Endowment

The Library Department of the College of William and Mary has again received an endowment of three thousand dollars from the Carnegie Corporation Grant. The different departments of the College were appropriated definite amounts, and the order for additional books has been placed and filled. The new books will be ready for circulation by the beginning of next week.

Some of the better known of the books included in this group are "The Gods Arrive" by Edith Wharton, Ellen Glasgow's "The Sheltered Life," "Swiss Family Manhattan" by Christopher Morley, "As I See It" by Norman Thomas, Clarence Darrow's Autobiography, "The Road Back" by

NORFOLK DIVISION HEAD

Dr. W. T. Hodges, ex-Dean of Men at W&M, who began his duties as W&M Extension Dean on Jan. 3.

FLAT HAT CONSTITUTION DRAWN UP AND RATIFIED BY F. H. STAFF MEMBERS

Editor, Business Manager and Circulation Manager to Hold Office for One Year; Action is Taken on Sunday Night.

GOES INTO EFFECT FEB. 1

A Flat Hat constitution, drawn up in skeleton form by Barrett Roberts and Charles P. McCurdy, was presented to, amended, and ratified by the entire Flat Hat staff in a special meeting called on Sunday night. The action was taken in order that disputes in the future regarding certain Flat Hat matters may be eliminated, and that the organization may have a definite foundation to work on.

The document is as follows:
Constitution of the Flat Hat
We, the members of the Flat Hat staff submit the following articles which shall serve in the form of a standard constitution of the Flat Hat, weekly newspaper of the College of William and Mary. This constitution shall go into effect on February 1st, 1933.

Article 1: Election of Officers.
Section 1: There shall be three (3)
(Continued on page 6)

FRESHMEN MUST MAKE UP ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

The administration is now checking the preparatory records for entrance to the college. Those Freshmen who are found to be short on the requirements in Algebra, Plane Geometry, and Foreign Languages for either the Bachelor of Arts or the Bachelor of Science degrees, must make up the required units by the end of their Sophomore year. Letters to this effect will be sent to such students within a few days.

Erich Remarque, "I Like the Depression" by Henry Ansley, "Theatre Street" by Tamara Karavina, Du Bois Heyward's "Mama's Daughters," and "Peter Ashley," and Edna St. Vincent Millay's most recent publications, "Fatal Interview" and "The Princess Marries the Page."
This is the second year that William and Mary has been awarded this sum by the Chairman of the Advisory Committee on College Libraries of the Carnegie Corporation of New York City. This college is one of about twenty institutions for higher education which benefits from this fund. Sweetbriar is the only other Virginian school to be awarded such an endowment.

Examination Schedule

Date	First Period 9 to 12 A. M.	Second Period 2 to 5 P. M.
Monday January 23	Chemistry 101 Economics 201	T. Th. S. 11 o'clock classes
Tuesday January 24	M. W. F. 9 o'clock classes	T. Th. S. 9 o'clock classes
Wednesday January 25	English 101 Education 401	M. W. F. 12 o'clock classes
Thursday January 26	M. W. F. 10 o'clock classes	T. Th. 2 & 3 o'clock & Psych. 201 classes
Friday January 27	T. Th. S. 10 o'clock classes	M. W. F. 11 o'clock classes
Saturday January 28	Mathematics 101	T. Th. S. 12 o'clock classes
Monday January 30	M. W. F. 3 o'clock classes	M. W. F. 2 o'clock classes

GERMAN CLUB WILL SPONSOR DANCES ON FRI, FEBRUARY 10

Formal Dances to be Composed of Tea Dance on Friday Afternoon and a Formal Dance in the Evening; Four Sets of Price Scales.

VALENTINE'S DAY THEME

Bert Lown's Orchestra Being Considered by Dance Committee; Presentation of Favors Featured.

A series of formal co-ed dances will be sponsored by the German Club February 10. These will consist of a tea dance Friday afternoon and a formal in the evening. As usual, K. O. B. and G. G. will have corners at the dances. The decorations will carry out the theme of Valentine's Day. The presentation of favors will be a feature of the evening. As yet, the orchestra has not been decided upon, but Bert Lown's is being considered.

Prices for the dances are as follows: German club member stag, $1.50; German Club member with date, $2.00; non-German Club member stag, $2.50; non-German Club member with date, $3.00

Three Committees Appointed

The following committees have been appointed: decorations—Lucie Grossman, Virginia Hurdle, Ann Renforth, Helen Conner, Virginia Clark, Marie Keiley, Flora Wilcox, Margaret Clark, Anne Chalkley, Anne Page Moreland, and Elizabeth Toller; tickets—Ann Pharr, Amelia Fisher, Page Johnson, Kitty Blanton, and Anne Garrett; publicity—Frances Meader, and Alice Edwards.

The officers of the club are President, Honore Wickham; Vice-President, Lucie Grossmann; Secretary, Bessie White; and Treasurer, Lorraine Emory.

GROSSMAN AND BRITTLE DEBATE GENEVA COLLEGE

Resolved: "That the United States Should Recognize Soviet Russia" to be Debated February 22.

Lucie Grossmann and Sue Brittle, with Mary Louise Holliswell as alternate, will represent the Women's Debate Council of the College of William and Mary in the first debate the Council has ever had with Geneva College. The debate will be held in Phi Beta Kappa Hall at eight o'clock on February 22. The topic to be discussed is: Resolved: That the United States should recognize Soviet Russia. The decision will be determined by a shift of opinion ballot from the audience.

At the first regular meeting the Council has had since the holidays which was held at five o'clock in Washington Hall on Wednesday, January 4, plans were outlined for two northern trips to be taken this spring.

WILLIAM AND MARY DEBATERS ENGAGE O. W. U. HERE SOON

William and Mary Men Meet Ohio Wesleyan Here in Return Engagement. Team, Or Subject for Debate Not Announced.

OHIO HAS STRONG TEAM

Debate Squad to Engage New York University, Fordham, Columbia, Boston College and Boston University.

The William and Mary Men's Debate Team will engage the team from Ohio Wesleyan University in a return debate during the latter part of March. The two teams previously met last spring when the William and Mary debaters journeyed to the Ohio school's campus.

Team and Subject Undecided

The subject for the coming debate has not been announced but will be some major political or economic issue of the day. The team to oppose Ohio Wesleyan has not been selected according to Luther Bolton, president of the Men's Debate Council who is conducting the negotiations for the meeting between the two colleges.

This debate should furnish the audience with considerable entertainment as the Ohio Wesleyan teams are among the strongest in the country and should give the William and Mary men plenty of opposition.

To Tour Northeastern States

President Bolton has also announced that the Men's Debate Team will tour the north-eastern States either the latter part of March or the first part of February. On this trip the team will engage in debates with such schools as: New York University, Fordham, Columbia, Boston College, Boston University and others. It will also meet Penn State in a return engagement.

SENIOR CLASS WILL MEET TO SELECT TWO OFFICERS

Permanent Treasurer to be Selected to Handle Receipts From the Senior Play.

There will be a meeting of the Senior Class Tuesday, January 17, for the purpose of electing a class poet and a permanent treasurer to handle the funds from the Senior Play.

Financially the play was a success, over $125 being cleared by the class. At present this money is in the hands of the business committee of the play. It will be used by the class in the purchase of the Senior Gift.

The selection of a class poet was necessitated by the failure of John T. Brookhouse, of Brookline, Mass., to return to college this year. Brookhouse succeeded Lota Spence who was elected to the position in her Freshman year but failed to return to college for her Sophomore year, returning the following year.

"THE RECRUITING OFFICER" WILL BE GIVEN THURSDAY

NOTICE TO PREMEDICAL STUDENTS

Students who intend to apply for entrance to medical or dental schools in 1933 should secure their application forms during this month and have them completed as soon as possible after the close of the present semester. Dr. D. W. Davis can supply forms for the Virginia medical schools. Applicants for the other schools should obtain them from them directly. Recommendations of the instructors in sciences will be sent forward in each case with transcripts of the student's records.

Donald W. Davis,
For Premedical Committee.

NEW RKO THEATRE OPENS HERE THURS., JANUARY 12 TO AN INVITED AUDIENCE

Theatre is in Keeping With Plans of the Restoration and Is the Most Luxurious of Its Size in the Country.

OCCASION IS FORMAL

A new entertainment center for students and the city of Williamsburg, will be presented at the opening of the new RKO Williamsburg Theatre this Thursday night. The Theatre building, in keeping with the Restoration plans, is simple in design but modern in appointment. RKO has co-operated with the Restoration group to make this the most luxurious of its size in the country. Features formerly found only in the larger houses will be used to make the Williamsburg house comfortable under all conditions.

Entering the lobby, the lack of advertising signs will not be allowed to mar the architectural beauty of the design. Seats, deeply cushioned, are spaced with sufficient room to allow passage without disturbance. The carpeting, in old rose matches the interior. The central lighting fixture, a copy of the one in Symphony Hall
(Continued on page 5)

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB HEARS TWO PAPERS ON SPINOZA

A short meeting of the Psychology-Philosophy Club was held Monday night at the Alpha Chi Omega House. Two papers were read, but discussion of them was postponed until the next meeting, which will take place in February. The first, presented by Georgia Belle Bennett, dealt with the philosophy and works of Benedict Spinoza. The other paper was on the life history and background of the famous philosopher, and was read by Anne Chalkley.

John Powell Gives Excellent Recital In Phi Beta Kappa Hall

Hearty applause and several encores marked the appearance of John Powell, of Richmond, internationally famed pianist, before an audience of about 600 in Phi Beta Kappa Hall at 8:15 o'clock last night. Mr. Powell was brought to the William and Mary campus by the efforts of the Music Council and Mrs. J. S. Brockenbrough, sister of Mr. Powell and a member of the College Music Department.

Mr. Powell prefaced each selection with a short sketch of its significance in the music world, and its theme. The concert program, which was divided into four major parts, included: Concerto Grosso, in D minor, by Vivaldi; and Nocturne, in C sharp mi-

Theatre Opens Thursday, January 12, at 8 P. M., Under the Auspices of Williamsburg Holding Corporation and RKO

GOVERNOR WILL ATTEND

Play Under Direction of Miss Hunt.—Pictures Taken will Be Released for National Publication.

In an effort to carry the flavor of the 18th century at the opening of the new Williamsburg Theatre, the William and Mary Players have planned an unusual introductory program. They are going to produce "The Recruiting Officer," a play by George Farquhar, which was written in 1705. This play was given in Williamsburg by a theatrical company in 1736, according to the Virginia Gazette.

Pictures to be Released

The young gentlemen of the college participated in, and acted with the professional companies in this and other of the early 18th century plays. Miss Hunt has selected scenes from Act 1 and Act 2 of "Faughar." The cast is now rehearsing and pictures are to be taken which will be released for National publication.

The opening of the new theatre Thursday evening, January 12, at 8 o'clock is being conducted under the auspices of the Williamsburg Holding Corporation and RKO. Mr. Braden, publicity agent of RKO from New York City, is in charge of the program. He came to Williamsburg directly after the opening of the new RKO Theatre at Radio City, New York. This is a formal affair and the Governor and his staff will be present.

A veteran cast has been composed to support the action of the play. Their parts are listed below:
(Continued on page 2)

OFFICERS ELECTED BY PHILOMATHEAN

Daugherty, Hill, Vaiden, Kennamont, Robertson, Diamond and Armfield Will Hold Positions in Literary Society.

Guy Daugherty was elected president of the Philomathean Literary Society to succeed Bruce Johnson at the meeting of the society which was held in Philomathean Hall on last Friday night. Other officers elected at the meeting were: Sterling Hill, vice-president; Robert Vaiden, secretary; Gilbert Kinnamon, treasurer; Earl Robertson, program secretary; George Diamond, sergeant at arms; and John Armfield, chaplain. These officers will be inaugurated at the meeting on Friday night, and will hold office for the next semester.

Besides Johnson, the outgoing officers are: Henry Lowman, vice-president; Claude Wade, secretary; Robert Vaiden, treasurer; W. W. Savage, program secretary, and Earl Robertson, sergeant at arms.

nor, Impromptu, in F sharp major, and Scherzo, in C sharp minor, by Chopin.

The third division, composed entirely of folk dance tunes, country dance, in C major, by Beethoven; The Banjo-Picker, by John Powell; Hobby-on-the-Green, by Hilton Ruffy; and The Arkansas Traveller, by David Guion. In commenting on the importance of folk music, Mr. Powell stated that it often forms the heart of more intricate and impressive compositions. To illustrate his statement he played several short folk tune selections taken from some of Beethoven's longer works.

Don Giovanni Fantasia, by Liszt, was Powell's closing number.

BAR ASSO. PASSES AVIATION COURSES ON LEGAL SCHOOL TO BE CONTINUED

Dr. T. S. Cox Starts Work Towards the Securing of Recognition by National Body Upon Assuming the Position of Dean of the Law School.

The School of Jurisprudence of the College of William and Mary has been placed on the approved list of the American Bar Association, according to an announcement made this week by Theodore S. Cox, dean of the school. The granting or withholding of approval rests with the Council of the Section of Legal Education, and Admissions to the Bar, and favorable action by the Council is a recognition of an institution's standing as a satisfactory school for the study of law.

Work toward obtaining the recognition of the American Bar Association for this historic department of the college was actively begun shortly after the appointment of Mr. Cox to the George Wythe Chair of Law in 1930. Mr. Cox announced at that time that the intention was to bring the school up to the Association requirements in two years. An inspection of the School of Jurisprudence was made in October, 1932, by an officer of the Council of the Section on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the Association. Approval was given shortly afterwards.

The School of Jurisprudence, formerly called the School of Law, was established December 4, 1779, when the Board of Visitors created a professorship of Law and Police. It has the distinction of being the first chair of law to be established in America and the second in the English-speaking world, being antedated only by the Vinian professorship at Oxford, established twenty-one years earlier and held by Sir William Blackstone.

MISS HUNT REVIEWS BOOK

Miss Hunt presented a review of "Charming Sally," a novel by Mrs. Maud Hart Lovelace, in an address to the Portsmouth Women's Club on Friday, January 6th. "Charming Sally" deals with theatrical life in Williamsburg in 1772—the coming of the Comedians from London, England and the participation of College students in the plays of the 18th century.

INDIANS DEFEAT ROANOKE MAROONS BY 36-26 SCORE

William and Mary
Lembeck	1	2	4
Warrell	1	0	2
Lynn	0	0	0
Manning	0	0	0
Hulligan	1	2	4
Reid	1	0	2
Litwin	3	2	8
Franklin	2	0	4
Gallant	3	6	12
Stupalsky	0	0	0
Pulse	0	0	0
Total	12	12	36

Roanoke
Rice	0	0	0
Francis	1	0	2
Gurand	3	3	9
Wernick	1	2	4
Suttner	0	0	0
C. Turner	3	5	11
Total	8	10	26

Announcement is Made by Dr. Chandler that no Interruption in Work of Aeronautics Department.

The first official announcement to emanate from the administration this year, was Dr. J. A. C. Chandler's statement last Friday that there would be no interruption in the work of the Department of Aeronautics during this fiscal year. This definite announcement is greeted with satisfaction by the student body, many of whom are vitally interested in their aeronautical work in connection with their future professional careers.

With the sharply curtailed income of the college, not only from State sources, but from private endowments, rumors have been rife for the past few months that it would become necessary to discontinue this latest Department at the College as of January first, due to financial reasons.

In an interview recently, Colonel Popp complimented Dr. Chandler for being willing to pioneer the aeronautical flight courses in the College as a part of the curriculum, saying, in part, "somebody had to begin and prove that aviation could be taught with as much safety as any other course in College. Dr. Chandler, president of the College, was that man, and the youth of tomorrow, whether here or in some other College or University, will have reason to be grateful to him for daring to attempt such a project." It is not usual to find an educator willing to depart from traditional methods—especially when it involves the sponsoring of such pioneering work as aeronautical flight instruction. We are indeed fortunate that our President is willing to dare to give the youth of today a broader scope in his future career.

NEWPORT NEWS PRINCIPAL IS SPEAKER AT KAPPA PHI KAPPA INITIATION BANQUET

Honorary members, and initiates of Kappa Phi Kappa were entertained Saturday evening, December 17, at a banquet held at the Williamsburg Inn which was preceded by the initiation of several new men. Initiation ceremonies were held at the George Wythe House at 5 o'clock and the following were taken into the fraternity: William Harris, Joseph Fink, Claude Wade, and Epps Jones. An honorary membership was conferred upon Dr. Blocker. At the banquet, Mr. Alexander, Principal of the Newport News High School, gave a very interesting talk on "The Principles and Aims of our State Curriculum."

Among the faculty members present, were: Dr. Hodges and Dr. Krebs. Dr. Hodges, honorary member expressed his regrets regarding his departure from the College, but wished the fraternity a successful future.

FERGUSON'S GIFT SHOP
Books, Stationery, and Novelties
COMMERCIAL PRINTING

COLLINS CLEANING & DYEING CO.
Buy Cleaning and Pressing Tickets at THE COLLEGE SHOP

Phone 48 - - - One Day Service

Colonial Confectionery and Luncheonette
The Place That Serves You Best

West Williamsburg Service Station
OPPOSITE CARY FIELD
ICE CREAM, CANDY, CIGARS, CIGARETTES

W&M PLAYERS COOPERATE IN NEW THEATRE OPENING

(Continued from page 1)

Mr. Ballance, a Justice—Carlton Casey; Mr. Worthy, a gentleman of Shropshire, Robert Fifield; Captain Plume, a Recruiting Officer—Maurice Berkwitz; Kite, Sergeant to Plume—Selden Hadley; Bullock, a Country Clown—Jack Watson; Costar Pearman, recruit—Howard Scammon; Thomas Appletree, recruit—Douglas Hubbard; Melinda, a Lady of Fortune—Rhoda Pratt; Silvia, daughter to Ballance—Anne Garrett; Lucy, Melinda's maid—Virginia Tucker

Dr. Brantley Henderson
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
—Fitting Glasses—
Williamsburg, Virginia

For Printing—
OF ALL KINDS
Let the Virginia Gazette do it
Anything from a card to a full sheet Poster
ESTIMATES GIVEN
Phone 192
The Virginia Gazette, Inc.
We print the "Flat Hat"

Jones; Rose, a Country Wench—Elizabeth Brunstetter.

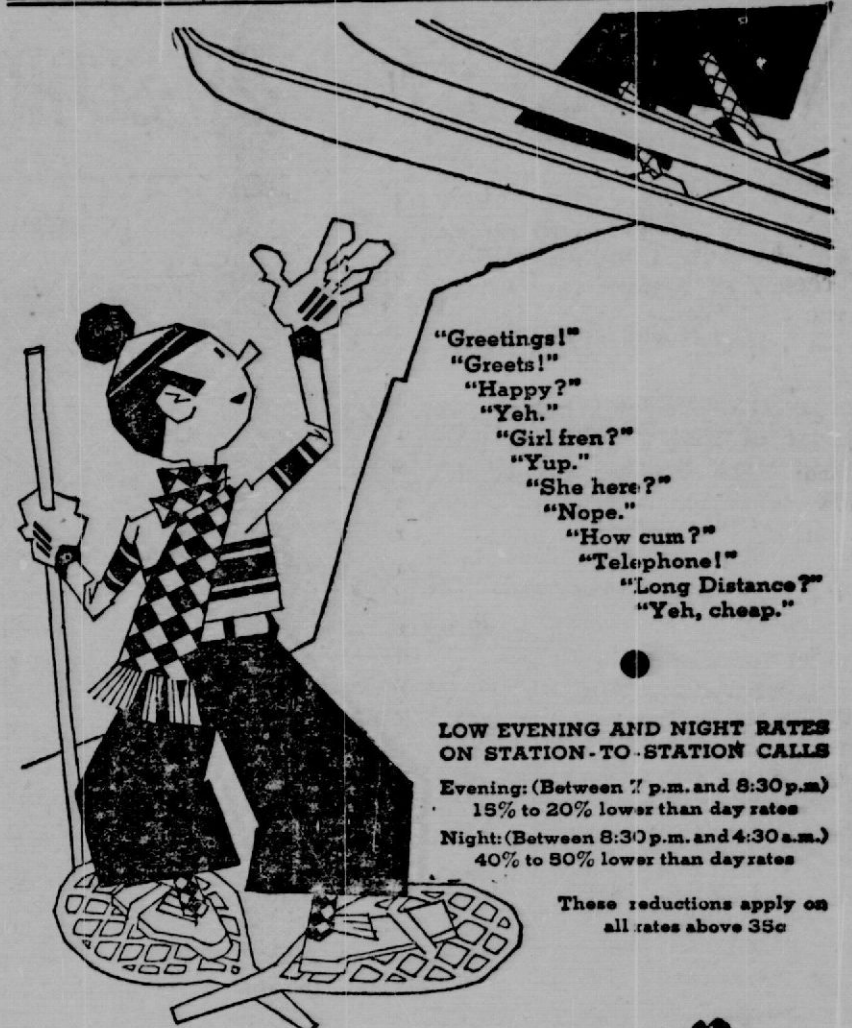

The setting of the play is in Shrewsbury.

THIS IS TO ANNOUNCE TO YOU OUR MID - WINTER SALE!

Beginning January the eighteenth and continuing for one week, we are offering our Entire Stock of Winter Dresses, Coats and Hats at drastically Reduced Prices.

Most of this Merchandise will go on Sale at COST!

BINNS
Duke of Gloucester Street, Williamsburg, Va.

"Greetings!"
"Greetings!"
"Happy?"
"Yeh."
"Girl fren?"
"Yup."
"She here?"
"Nope."
"How cum?"
"Telephone!"
"Long Distance?"
"Yeh, cheap."

LOW EVENING AND NIGHT RATES ON STATION-TO-STATION CALLS
Evening: (Between 7 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.) 15% to 20% lower than day rates
Night: (Between 8:30 p.m. and 4:30 a.m.) 40% to 50% lower than day rates

These reductions apply on all rates above 35c

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia
(Bell System)

136 28th Street Newport News 12000

When I like something I evermore like it!

THEY'RE Milder—
THEY TASTE BETTER

—and I like CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes.
To me, they are mild—that is, they don't seem to be strong; and there is certainly no bite, so far as I can tell.
To me, they taste better and they have a pleasing aroma.

Every CHESTERFIELD that I get is well-filled, and I feel like I am getting my money's worth—that there is no short measure about it.

I like CHESTERFIELDS. They satisfy me.

BOZARTH LUMBER & PACKAGE CORP.
Lumber and Building Materials

Peninsula Bank and Trust Co.

Williamsburg, Virginia

Announcing the incorporation of the MAPLEWOOD and COLLEGE INNS Under the Management of Mrs. Stallings and Mrs. Anderson Rooms and Meals at reasonable rates.
For information call at COLLEGE INN opposite Imperial Theatre "YOU DO NOT PAY FOR MEALS YOU MISS"

SWIMMING TEAM MEETS JACKETS

WILLIAM AND MARY SPORTS

PHI MU WINS BASKETBALL TROPHY

JOSEPH CARDILLO, JR., Editor

INDIAN MERMEN OPPOSE RANDOLPH-MACON TODAY

Swimmers Present Well Balanced Aggregation for Opening Meet.

CASEY TO LEAD SQUAD
Meade, Bragan, Flickenger, Horton, and Breen to Form Nucleus of Team.

The 1932-1933 William and Mary varsity swimmers open their season in Blow Gym pool this afternoon against Randolph-Macon. The Yellow Jackets invade Williamsburg with an unheralded outfit, this being the first season in which swimming has played a part in intercollegiate sports.

Coach Davis and Captain Casey are both expecting an exceptionally successful season this year. The squad while small in number, is well balanced in all events. In commenting on time trials, Coach Davis expressed himself as being well satisfied with the work of his charges at this early date. The squad will miss the services of such men as Cuddihy, Freeman, Goldstein, and Le Bow, who have either graduated or failed to return to school but there are still such stars as Captain Casey, Meade, Bragan, Flickenger, Horton, and Breen to form a nucleus for a strong aggregation.

The starters for each event will be selected from the following:

- 40-yd. dash (free style)—Flickenger, Breen, Weinberger, Glasser.
- 100-yd. dash (free style)—Flickenger, Phillips, Trow.
- 150-yd. breast stroke—Casey, Eiden, Stowe.
- 150-yd. back stroke—Horton, Ogdens, Stowe.
- 440-yd. swim—Weinbrum, Stanish, Warner, Bragan.

INTRAMURAL BOXING TO BE HELD NEXT SEMESTER

Many Men Already in Preparation for Coming Event; Tournament to Take Place in February.

Plans for an intra-mural boxing tournament which will take place at the College of William and Mary about the middle of February have been approved by the Athletic Committee of the College, it was announced by L. Tucker Jones, professor of Physical Education. Competition in all weight classes will be conducted and the winners in each class are to be given awards.

In preparation for the tournament, which was proposed by boxing enthusiasts during the 1931-32 session of school, boxing instruction was given to approximately 350 men in the freshman and sophomore gym classes as a part of the regular gym course during October and November. Mr. Jones stated that as a result a good quality of amateur leather pushing talent was uncovered.

Training for the coming contests has already begun by a large group of men in all classes, some of whom have had wide previous experience either at other colleges or athletic clubs. Outstanding among these in this group are Chet Tavenner, of Norfolk, Harry Spack, Gerry Quirk, Ed Meade, Jackie Lembeck, Walt Watkins, Bill Wilhelm, and Jasper Frank, of Norfolk.

Tavenner, who will fight in the unlimited class, was undefeated during a season of amateur ring work for a Norfolk club this past summer and during this fall. In addition to his prowess with his hands, he is also holder of the freshman shot put and discus record at the college. Spack, Quirk, and Meade, other outstanding contenders for the unlimited crown, have also had previous experience on the rosin. Each of the trio is a regular member of the varsity eleven.

Among the lower weights Watkins is outstanding as the holder of the middle weight belt at a C. M. T. C. for the past two seasons. The last season he also added a light weight title to his belt. Lembeck is a veteran of several seasons of fighting in the Golden Glove Tournament in New York City and is expected to

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE TO HOLD FIRST MEETING OF YEAR IN RICHMOND, VA.

William and Mary, Richmond, Davidson, Wake Forest and Furman Will Petition for Admission.

Next Friday afternoon, January 13, the Southern Conference will hold its first meeting of the year at Murphy's Hotel in Richmond.

At present there are three major college sport groups in the South, the Southern Conference, the Southeastern Conference, and the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. There are also more than a half dozen large institutions without representation in any athletic body other than state associations, so it is expected that some of these will petition to the Southern Conference for admission. They are William and Mary, Richmond, Furman (now a member of the S. I. A. A.), Davidson, and Wake Forest. All of these schools are in the Southern Conference territory and have produced athletic teams that compare favorably with the Conference squads.

One of the causes for the split in the old Southern Conference was that the league was composed of too many colleges. The new Southern Conference is now composed of only 10 members, a compact group in which the administration is simple.

(Continued on Page Five)

YEARLING QUINTET WINS OVER FIVES

Charlottesville Fives Bow by Score of 60-10; Blaker, Crist, and Hanna Shine in First Game.

Displaying excellent form in passing and shooting for the first game on their schedule, the paposes took an overwhelming victory from the Charlottesville Fives. The score was 60-10.

Although the score was too one-sided for Coach Meb Davis to ascertain the full strength of the frosh squad, the contest gave him ample opportunity to try out a goodly number of substitutes.

Blaker showed exceptional scoring ability and lead both teams by garnering a total of 16 points. Elmore and Hanna showed up well on the defense, limiting the visitors to but two baskets for the entire fray.

Crist, Warnock, Cataldo, and Robinson also showed good basketball ability. Capt. McGraph and Dove were the luminaries for the Fives.

The box score:

Freshmen		Fives
Blaker	8 0 16	Doves	0 3 3
Warnock	1 0 2	Arnett	0 0 0
Mitchell	3 0 6	Payne	1 0 2
Crist	6 0 12	Kase	0 0 0
Robinson	2 0 4	McGraph	1 1 3
Wilson	3 1 7	Morris	0 1 1
Stalling	0 0 0	Anderson	0 1 1
Elmore	3 0 6	Roberts	0 0 0
Cataldo	0 1 1
Turner	2 0 4		2 6 10
Hanna	1 0 2
Bruin	0 0 0
Jenkins	0 0 0
29 2 60

FIVE LEADING SCORERS

Varsity
Gallinant	9	10 28
Capt. Lynn	10	3 23
Lembeck	5	5 15
Worrell	4	0 8
Litwin	5	2 12
Freshmen
Blaker	8	0 16
Wilson	3	1 7
Crist	6	0 12
Mitchell	3	0 6
Elmore	3	0 6

INDIANS TO PLAY U. OF VIRGINIA AT CHARLOTTESVILLE FOR 1933 SEASON

Kellisonmen Out to Avenge 33-32 Defeat of Last Year; Cavaliers Favored to Win Tuesday Night.

Coach Kellison's Indian basketeers journey to Charlottesville tonight to engage Bus Tebel's Cavalier quintet. The Virginia outfit will be a top-heavy favorite to pin a defeat on the Tricolor but with the Roanoke game under their belts the Indians feel that they have hit a winning stride.

The squad has yet to show its best form and it is highly possible that with a slight shift in the starting line-up the Indians may be able to avenge the 33-32 defeat tacked on them last year.

The Cavaliers easily subdued Randolph-Macon 41-17 in their opening tilt last Saturday with Reggie Hudson, center, leading the attack with 16 points, while the Indians after having been laced by Navy 57-46 and St. John's 25-24 took Roanoke into camp 36-26.

Aside from the usual brilliant performances of Gallinant and Litwin a great deal of satisfaction came from the sterling play of Preacher Franklin, who is beginning to show real class this year and Jackie Lembeck.

Coach Kellison may decide to start Franklin at forward with Lembeck or Lynn, Halligan at center and Litwin and Gallinant at the guard posts. At any rate Franklin is certain to see much action during the fray. Virginia's starting lineup will consist of Marrett Harrison or Capt. Young forwards, Hudson center, and Sturm and Cox or Rogers at guards.

TRI-COLOR BOWS TO NAVY AND ST. JOHNS QUINTETS

Captain Lynn and Gallinant Outstanding for Indians; Litwin Injured Early in Navy Fray.

The William and Mary basketball team opened its 1932-33 schedule losing to a powerful Navy quintet at Annapolis 57-46 and dropping a hair-line decision to St. John's 25-24.

The Middle-Indian encounter was a thriller throughout. Litwin, reliable guard for the Tricolor, suffered a painful leg injury on the third play which forced the Kellisonmen to resort to different tactics. Loughlin, star forward and Borries scored 25 and 16 points respectively for the Middies while Lefty Capt. Lynn led the Indians with nineteen points.

In the St. John's fray the Tricolor held a lead of 19-10 with only seven minutes to play but a determined onslaught in the last few minutes overcame the lead and turned the tide in favor of the homesters. Gallinant led the Indians while Lynn and Lembeck played good defensive games for the Indians.

PHYSICAL ED. TESTS ARE ANNOUNCED BY CHANDLER

Intramural competition which has gained a great deal of favor since its inception this semester by Scrap Chandler, will be completed for the period by a series of eight tests outlined by the Physical Education Department. These tests are to be scored on the basis of the individual performances, the winner of each class receiving a gold medal, the runner-up a silver medal and third place a bronze medal.

Most of the team championships have already been decided but final announcements of the winning teams in swimming and basketball will be set forth in the next issue of the Flat Hat. Boxing has also occupied the time of the Physical Education classes and with swimming, basketball, and apparatus work the attendance has picked up noticeably during the last few months.

LAFITTE ELECTED LEADER OF HOCKEY FOR 1933 SEASON

Brown Chosen Manager, With Personius, Duvel, Sterling, and Stevenson as Assistant Managers.

The Varsity Hockey Squad at a meeting in Jefferson gym on December 14 elected Dot Lafitte to serve as Captain of Hockey for the 1933 season and Alice Brown as Manager. Ruth Personius and Maxine Duvel are to be the assistant managers while Adele Stevenson and Dixie Sterling will be the sophomore assistants. Elsie Hudak came in a close second for Captain and Maxine Duvel was the other candidate for Manager.

Derothy Lafitte has been a member of the Varsity Hockey Team for the past three years. She was one of the two freshmen taken into the Monogram club her first year on campus. Last year she captained the sophomore basketball team. Miss Lafitte's abilities, however, are not limited to sports for she is Junior Representative to the Honor Council, Women's Sports Editor of the Colonial Echo, a member of the Flat Hat Staff, History Club, Le Cercle Francaise German Club and G. G. G.

Alice Brown has been on the Varsity Hockey Squad for three years and assistant manager for the same length of time. For the past two years she has belonged to the Honorary varsity baseball team and last year received her Examiner's Badge in Life Saving. Euclid Club, J. Leslie Hall, and Flat Hat staff are numbered among her other activities.

PHI MU WINS HOOP TOURNAMENT AGAIN

Win Six Out of Eight Games to Gain Trophy for Second Successive Year.

The annual inter-sorority basketball tournament ended Thursday, December 15 with the Phi Mus taking first place for the second consecutive year. They won six out of eight games, being defeated only by Alpha Chi and Kappa Delta. This gave them a total score of 12 against the 11 which the Kappa Deltas, their closest rival, received.

The tournament was played in a two week schedule of four games each day. At the end of the first two days, Theta and K. D. were tied for first place while Alpha Chi, Phi Phi, Phi Mu and Tri Delt were all tied for second. By the end of the week, however, Theta had lost to Phi Mu and Alpha Chi thus going to second place while Phi Mu moved up to first still tying with Kappa Kappa Delta. Alpha Chi was then tied with Theta for second place.

The final Phi Mu took the lead with no defeats while K. D. lost to Theta and Kappa and tied Tri Delt. In the Phi Mu-Kappa Delt game which was played on the last day the K. D.s won by a 15-11 score giving Phi Mu her second loss during the tournament.

The final count awarded Phi Mu the championship for 1932 with 12 points to her credit, and Kappa Delt second with 11. The other scores were: Theta 10, Alpha Chi 9, Chi Omega 8, Kappa and Tri Delt 6, and Gamma Phi 4.

SPORTS THIS WEEK

Varsity Basketball
Today: William and Mary vs. Virginia at Charlottesville.
Saturday: William and Mary vs. Hampden-Sydney at Hampden-Sydney.

Freshman Basketball
Wednesday: W. & M. Freshmen against Norfolk Division at Norfolk.
Friday: W. & M. Freshmen against Hampton H. S. at Hampton.

Swimming
Today: Varsity and Freshmen against Randolph-Macon here.

TEEPEE TOPICS

Well, here goes. A new year, a new issue, and another column with the same old stuff. I've resolved, with the advent of the hopeful 1933, that I would try to make this column readable. When you get to the end of this, you'll know that new year resolutions are made only to break.

There is some good sporting dope right herein good old William and Mary. Chances for our boxing team are assuming a tangible nature. A little more than talk is being produced.

Besides the wonderful entertainment which the "King's Revellers" provided, it seems that another result of that inimitable show will be the purchase of a boxing ring. The proceeds of the minstrel show will go to this purpose, in hopes that the boxing aspirants now at the college will have fairly decent facilities with which to polish up. Soon some one will step right up and demand that boxing team.

How did you all like that Roanoke game, last Saturday night? It took the Maroons a little time to get started, but once they did, the game got to be true basketball—typically exciting, interesting—no; not breath-taking. Les Litwin thinks that the referee was a little off on his basketball rules. Hmmm. I think so too! (Who trug dat brick?) Anyway, the concensus of opinion seems to be that the energetic and eagle-eyed arbitrator was a trifle too strict.

Speaking about basketball, V. P. I. is having its troubles along this line. Coaching in itself is no soft job. But there are limits. Consider the case of Monk Younger, basketball coach at Virginia Tech. Younger had a fine-looking cage squad, and then:

January 1 he was notified that Scrapper Day, sophomore star, was unable to return to college.
January 2 Benny Palmer, his crack guard, was declared ineligible because of scholastic work.

January 3 Paul Wolfe, veteran center, sprained an ankle and will be out for two weeks or more.
January 4 Bob Craig, new varsity "find" at forward, resigned from college to begin work.

January 5 the freshman team humbled the remnant of the varsity.
January 6 Kemp Kibler, promising sophomore, signed up for two extra classes in chemistry and gave up basketball to study.

—Hey! We got some sorority girls!

But it's not only the coaching angle that has its ups and downs. This schedule making business isn't so hot either.

Take good old W. & L. Maybe they're not "yelling like hell" now. Up in Lexington the Washington and Lee wrestlers were having their own troubles. They're going to wrestle somebody, anyway.

Johns Hopkins was substituted, but last week the Surgeons also canceled. Finally, Davidson scheduled to take Johns Hopkins place, sent in another cancellation.

The grapplers have finally got somebody, though. They will open the season January 12, when they meet North Carolina State. State's boxers will meet the Generals the same night. Congratulations!

I guess very few of us remember Tom Sharkey. He was one of the famed heavyweights of the 90's. Perhaps the greatest rival of Jeffries. Yes, you remember Jeffries!

Well, Tom is a good sixty years old, today. And he's finally down with rheumatism. But, he claims that it's not going to hold him down. He claims that he's going to get well soon, and when racing season comes around again, he's going out there to make some more money.

Reminiscing for a short while the other day, he told some of the boys about his victory over Bob Fitzsimmons. Somewhere around 1898. Well, Tom was awarded the bout on a foul, and the mob wasn't particularly pleased about the whole thing. And they didn't hesitate to let Referee Wyatt Earp know about their displeasure with the decision. Whereupon, our gallant referee pulled a brace of six-shooters in order to enforce the decision. Of course, a riot followed; but he enforced the decision!

Every once in a while you run across something good in the line of poetry. Seldom, however, does poetry ever enter the realm of sports. Of course there is the immortal "Casey at the Bat." (They tell me there are still times when Ed Meade thinks he's responsible for that. I got my doubts!) Well, to get back on my story—if that's what I may call it—besides the already mentioned masterpiece, we have few examples of sports writers ever bursting forth into poetry. (Hey, don't take anything for granted.)

I'll try again. Grantland Rice does, every once in a while, become profuse and write up a neat little poem or two. I got one of his saved that I think is right good—though a trifle too sentimental. Remember, though, he has a pretty daughter.

Well, I came across this little thing the other day. It's one of the few I think is rather good. John Kierman, of the New York Times, is responsible for the little "ode" and, despite any threats because of plagiarism—oh, well—listen:

Owed to Melancholy
Tell in low in mournful numbers or in sobbing cadence sing
The ghastly fate of Pittsburgh, of woe the direful Spring.
The East is laid in ashes of a long-since smoldered fire.
And lo! our football pomp is one with Ninevah and Tyre.
In California's golden clime there rings a scornful laugh,
And what is there for us to do but bitter hemlock quaff?
Come, fill the cup with fatal brew and trust to Claron's oar
To ferry us to shaded groves where we shall hear no more
Of California's sunshine and the Bowl of Roses score.

Well, what do you think? Not bad, not bad. Sounds like Lembeck, but it isn't. The Trojans did, I think, pull a little surprise. I wasn't looking for any 35-0 score. And I guess John Kierman wasn't either. But, oh, those Californians!

While we're at it, we might discuss what a pretty good freshman team we got. Yeah, and I mean it. They were giving the varsity a tough go of it yesterday. That frosh squad has a flock of stars—no one of them exceptionally flashy. Topped by Elmore, who plays a conservative and steady game, the squad boasts Hutzie Blaker, Wilson, Crist, Mitchell, Hanna, Wes Warnock, Everett Cataldo, and a few others.

Yes, sir! Not a particularly flashy bunch—no individual star; and they are all giving Coach Meb Davis his troubles. He can't make up a definite first squad.

By the way, they trimmed the Charlottesville Fives last Saturday, it looks as if they are going to have a nice season. We're wishing them luck. They've got the stuff!

THE FLAT HAT

Founded October 2, 1911
"Sabilitas et Fides"

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, Barrett Roberts
ASSOCIATE EDITOR, Lucie Grossman

EDITORIAL STAFF

MANAGING EDITOR Donald Gordon
ART EDITOR Fred Eilers
FEATURE & ALUMNI EDITOR, Betty Sargeant
MEN'S STAFF: O. C. Southern, James E. Mallonee, John A. Mapp, Raymond Tallmage, James J. McPherson, Sidney J. Paine, John Shepard, Richard Velz, Jack Henderson, Tyler Matthew, Wes Warnecke, Ed Hessian.

WOMEN'S MANGAGING EDITOR Marion Banks
WOMEN'S STAFF: Sarah Dobbs, Ann Chalkley, Ruth Cobbett, Edith Manning, Dorothy La-fitte, Jane Steele, Ann Thomas, Ann Bradford, Frances Smith, Leona Yoder

SPORTS STAFF

SPORTS EDITOR Joseph Cardillo, Jr.
WOMEN'S EDITOR Louise Lang
SPORTS STAFF: Jimmie Jobbins, Murray Trinkle, Harold Wolff, Joseph Stankus, Dorothy Dunlap, Lester Walker

BUSINESS STAFF

BUSINESS MANAGER Charles P. McCurdy, Jr.
ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS: Walter E. Pierce, Sterling Chambers, Jack MacDonald
ADVERTISING MGR. Joseph DeGange
ASSISTANT ADVERTISING MGRS: F. Boardman Fish, Robert M. Mul-lowney, William T. Marsh

CIRCULATION MANAGER Henry Land
Entered at the Postoffice at Williamsburg, Virginia, as second-class matter.

THE FLAT HAT is published every Tuesday by the students of the College of William and Mary, except during holidays and examinations. Contributions and expressions of opinion are welcomed from students, alumni, faculty, and friends of the college.

Advertising rates furnished upon application to the Business Manager. Subscription rates: $3.00 per year; single copies, 10 cents.

Member of the Va. Intercollegiate Press Association

LEADER

It was with a great sense of shock that the world received the news of ex-President Calvin Coolidge's death last Thursday afternoon. He was a man who led a simple life and yet possessed a dynamic force in his convictions and decisions.

It will be remembered by some that Coolidge visited Williamsburg in 1926 on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the passage of the Virginia Resolutions, which in 1776 called on Congress to declare the colonies free and independent states. Coolidge also spoke on the occasion and together with Gov. Harry F. Byrd was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by the Board of Visitors of the College.

The country has lost one of its outstanding leaders and William and Mary, along with the rest of the world, salutes the memory of a great man.

CONGRATULATIONS

Faculty members and undergraduates of William and Mary extend to Dr. W. T. Hodges, former Dean of the College, their heartiest congratulations and wishes for success in his new position as Head of the Norfolk Division of William and Mary.

An alumnus of the College, Dr. Hodges has served at this institution for many years. During his stay here, he has always been the friend of every man in the college and while the undergraduates are glad for his appointment to his new position, they nevertheless feel to a great extent his departure.

Upon the announcement of Dr. Hodges' appointment, the following editorial appeared in the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch:

New Dean of Norfolk Division

William and Mary is fortunate and the city of Norfolk is fortunate that the ancient and royal college seated at Williamsburg has available so good a man to head the Norfolk Division of the College of William and Mary as Dr. William T. Hodges, who will succeed Dr. Edward M. Gwathmey when the latter leaves to take over the presidency of Converse College at Spartanburg, S. C.

To say that Dr. Hodges is "available" is to use a not quite accurate word. He is available, in that he is already a member of the academic staff of the college. He is not available, because he, as dean of men and director of the extension work of the college is a highly important member of the faculty. If the college can arrange to give him a more or less permanent assignment to the Norfolk Division, that division will be particularly well served. That this arrangement will be effected, the Ledger-Dispatch gravely doubts.

As any scholar, pedagogue, academician, or college executive would say, Dr. Hodges is "a good man." By that he would mean that he is a learned man, capable of imparting his knowledge, that he keeps on studying, that he loves learning for the sake of learning, and that he handles well not only his class room but his department.

But he is far from being a Dry-as-Dust, a professional recluse, as any man of affairs in the community. So far from being narrowed, he has been broadened and ripened by his years in the academic shades. From the educational point of view, Dr. Hodges is very much "a good man." From the point of view of the man in the street, in the home and in the office, he is also—with becoming apology for the informality—a thoroughly nice fellow.

We again congratulate Dr. Hodges and wish him every success.

POOR POLICY

Last week, William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor, appearing as the first witness before a senate judiciary sub-committee on the Black bill to establish the five day week and the six hour day in all industries, announced that, if necessary, "economic force" would be put into force by the Federation in order to pass the Black bill.

Green, convinced of the necessity of shorter hours, said: "We are prepared to support the plan to bring it about either through legislative enactment, persuasion of those ready to yield, or to exercise our economic force in compelling employers to accept it." When asked how he would exercise such force, Green replied: "By calling strikes where men are organized and thus withhold the services of the employees until industry establishes the shorter week."

Green also intends to have the plan go through with no reduction of wages for employees, an intention which will be met with stern opposition from industry leaders.

In order to relieve the unemployment situation and condition, Green's advocacy for the five day week and six hour day is commendable.

Green's advocacy for the five day week, six hour day is commendable but his plan to enforce adoption of such a bill through strikes would seem to be anything but practical. The industries of today, taken as a whole, are operating in so-called red ink and can't afford to yield to the plan with no reduction of wages. The unemployment situation has and will be a serious one for some time but the solution lies not in strikes and "economic force" but through calm, thoughtful and intelligent thinking.

OPPORTUNITY

Veterans' bonus fires are again smouldering following the disclosure of the fact that Representative Patman, leader of the bonus exponents in the House, has had a number of conferences with leaders of ex-service men's organizations in regard to outlining a plan of strategy for Legislative enactment of the soldiers' bonus. There is little chance that the bonus advocates will attempt to pass the measure during the present short session of Congress but will in all likelihood present their case when the extra session to be called by President-elect Roosevelt shall meet after the latter assumes office.

Leaders of the veterans have resorted to a nation-wide "educational program." Propaganda is being sent to all Congressional districts in an attempt to mould public opinion in favor of a soldiers' bonus. In all probability, Roosevelt will be the one who will have to make the ultimate decision. Although Roosevelt, in his campaign speeches did not promise bonus legislation, he nevertheless indicated that he would favor this $2,300,000,000 bill when the budget is favorable for such action.

The country at this time is far from ready to pay the bonus. The government is operating on a dangerous deficit, depression still stalks the world, a number of nations have declined to pay their war debts to the United States and these factors coupled with many others hardly makes the budget "favorable" for such action.

The buck naturally will be passed to the Democrats when they assume power next March. The present Congress will never pass the bonus nor will Hoover. Roosevelt slid out of the question very nicely during the recent presidential campaign but today he has an opportunity to take a definite and commendable course by shelving the entire question until the country is ready for it. The country is not ready for the question now and it won't be ready for it when and if the extra session is called.

DON'T STRADDLE

The crisis of the Japanese comes to a head on the 19th of this month when the Committee of Nineteen meets to deliberate on the delicate question of whether or not Japan is to be censured for her attacks on China or whether the Nipponese are to be allowed to go scot-free and continue their murderous activities.

The Japanese-Chinese struggle was a most unfortunate affair but there is one consolation which we can find in spite of the war. That consolation is seen in the fact that the strength or weakness of the League of Nations will be broadcast to the world. Thus far, only weakness has been shown by that body.

When the Lytton Commission was instructed to make an investigation on the Japanese actions, it presented a report placing the blame entirely on the shoulders of Japan. Japan, since the issuance of this report, has again invaded China. The League has side-stepped, practically ignored any definite action and thus far has proved a decided failure in living up to the ideals expected of such an immense and widespread organization.

It is likely that if the League continues to back water on this question and does not arrive at a definite decision, the reputation and perhaps the very existence of the League will be demolished. Let us hope that the League does not continue to straddle in the future.

"The King's Revellers" was held in what now seems way back in December but we'd like to offer a few congratulations to Professor George M. Small of the Music Department and Tom McCaskey for their efforts in making one swell show go over in one swell style.

Japanese officials would make great gangsters (some of them are) if the ability to make denials were a qualification.

And the Flat Hat finally got something it has needed for a long time, a constitution.

THE LOWDOWN

BY LIT

Restless

"To Hell with men!" she fiercely said,
And crept into her lonely bed . . .
"I hate the lying brutes," she cried,
Then sobbed and moaned and tossed and sighed.
She lay awake till nearly dawn
And cursed them while the night
sped on.
Then wearily she closed her eyes
And slept, and dreamt of several guys.

Well, the holidays are over and the old school still looks the same . . . So many pretty women that the books are second choice . . . A certain young lady at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house would give anything if she hadn't lost that art book with its tell-tale evidence . . . Rupe Hewes is conducting a reading class in poetry at the College Shop . . .

Some man-about-town joined a group of six girls at the same Shop a few days ago . . . Presently the femmes departed and "unconsciously" left their checks behind, leaving the poor man to pay, to pay . . . Nothing like College to teach a girl how to come in out of the rain . . . Ray Carroll is that way about Margaret Clark . . . The waiters in ye olde dining hall don't relish the job of serving Jersey gals . . . They say the gals eat too much . . . Now I know why there are so many more curves in school this year . . .

"Gin"ny Horton cast her net and guess what she caught . . . Allen Ayres' pin . . . Well, that leaves five Kappa Siggs who still retain the emblem of their brotherhood . . . They can't get Billy Kendall's . . . It's in the hook shop . . . Betty Brunstetter's lasso has fallen over the shoulders of "Short-stuff" Palase . . . Without seeming too inquisitive, who is the young lady in whose lap the college gardener is tossing a daily offering of flowers? . . .

Have you seen the way Inez Powell is carrying her left arm these days? . . . I'll bet Joe Stankus (the wife-beater) had something to do with it . . . I could be an old meanie and mention what happened on the observation platform of a southern-bound train from New York after the holidays, but we'll let sleeping dogs lie . . . Jimmie (football manager) Warner is the holder of a certain record . . . Ask him about it . . .

Emil Johnson qualifies as a first row burlesque queen . . . In the recent panic put on by the King's Revellers, he nearly lost his "undies" . . .

By the way, this week will mark the retirement of Barrett Roberts as the editor-in-chief of the Flat Hat . . . This column wishes to take the opportunity offered to congratulate him on a job well done, and to express its sincere wish that his future journalistic activities be as successful as the one he has just completed . . . and now, until we can scent some more of that good "hot" news, Auf Weiderrsein . . .

SOCIAL NEWS

Jean Simmons of Louisville, Ky., was a week-end guest at the Chi-Omega house.

Professor and Mrs. H. C. Krebs were dinner guests at the Alpha Chi Omega house Sunday, January 5.

Helen Johnson, of Franklin, visited the Phi Mu house over the week-end.

Howardine Robinson of Washington, D. C., visited the Chi Omega house during the week-end.

Grace Mitchie and Sally Wright, both of Richmond, visited the Alpha Chi Omega house Sunday, January 3.

Helen Glass and Vera Wilhelm, of Roanoke, were recent visitors at the Phi Mu house.

Ann Parker, of Newport News, was a week-end guest at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

For Week of Jan. 10-13, 1933

- Tuesday—
Rev. A. B. Clark.
- Wednesday—
Margaret Harter.
- Thursday—
Merrill Brown.
- Friday—
Vi Martin.

COLUMN BY BUD

Well, today spells the swan song for the Bud of this column for after this issue, he goes into journalistic (?) oblivion as far as the old Flat Hat is concerned. It's been a lot of fun as well as work spluttering out these six or eight hundred words, fun which has probably been a selfish pleasure for Bud and a misfortune for those readers who may have been so unfortunate as to run across the contents of the column. At any rate, a new columnist will probably make his bow before William and Mary's public beginning next semester and Flat Hat readers will be presented with some form of column which will have as its nucleus a much sounder form of literary value than has been the underlying theme of "Column by Bud."

Did you hear of the sad case of the fellow who, shooting pool a la "one ball" last week, had a run of thirteen balls only to have his opponent sink the one ball on the fourteenth shot? Who gives a damn, anyway?

In Fall River, Mass., one "Mary" Lovering Swasey, 20, returned from a boarding school and announced:
"I'm a man now. I shall be 21 soon and I want to live like a man."

Parents and the family physician investigated and found the announcement to be true. Mary's name was changed to David, his hair was cut, and cards were sent to friends announcing the change.

F. W. Robbins of Attica, N. Y., advertises that he is a Radiotrician, Electragist and a Refrigeratorer.

In Milwaukee, a Wellington Lytle, a suicide, willed that "my body should go to science, my soul to Andrew W. Mellon, and sympathy to my creditors."

In Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. McLean lay on their folding bed listening to the radio. The bed snapped shut, killed Warren.

In Oke Vale, Miss, "Uncle" Willis Pittman, 101, died, and was survived by 12 children, 110 grandchildren, 150 great-grandchildren, and 75 great-great-grandchildren.

In Brocton, Mass., William T. B. Nelson lost his glass eye. He later caught a street urchin using it as a "shooter" in a game of marbles.

In Potsdam, Germany, a man was arrested for greeting the Republican flag with catcalls and groans. He protested the action of police, claiming that he had cried "Hoch" because he had swallowed his cigarette. The catcalls, according to the gentlemn, came as the result of a "reflex regurgitation." He was sentenced to three weeks in jail.

In Oakland, Calif., Norman Arthur Lee Flood, convicted bigamist, told police that he had married and divorced 29 women in 23 years. Said he: "And sweethearts? I figure I've had about 400 sweethearts. Ever since I was 17 years old, I've had a way with women. I soon learned that if you treat a woman as you would a square-shooting man, the woman will fall for you every time."

In Ecorse, Mich., Judge John H. Riopelle fined speeders pairs of shoes for 21 shoeless Ecorse children.

Thomas McBride, in Elyria, Ohio, when sentenced on a liquor charge, brought his own bed to jail when he heard that the jail was overcrowded and that he would have to sleep on the floor.

At Crestwood, New York, Eugene C. Tobin, 13, ran to catch the 7:41 a. m. train for Manhattan, stumbled on the platform steps, and was killed. In Manhattan, William Johnson, 40 and drunk, fell under a subway train, had every button of his coat sliced off, was unhurt.

Ralph Cagle of Knoxville, Tenn., cosmetic salesman, told doctors in a frenzy that he had swallowed his false teeth. The doctors quickly x-rayed his stomach and throat, found nothing of the teeth. Mr. Cagle continued to moan and groan. Mrs. Cagle then walked into the room carrying the lost teeth. The convulsions ceased.

In Bangor, Me., one George A. Powers sat on a jury for 33 days. It was then discovered that George was deaf and all verdicts reached during his service were declared null.

In Thomasville, Ga., eight-seerers were unable to see the "Famous-White-faced-Gorilla, the most-marvelous-creature-ever-beheld-by-man," because the man and the Gorilla were too drunk to stand up.

In Baltimore, a 30-lb. carp jumped out from a stall in a wholesale fish market and bit Mrs. Tille Levy on the ankle.

Near Apine, N. J., police found and removed David Testori from a narrow ledge on the Palisades 300 feet above the river. He had lived there for two months, with a tarpaulin cover, a newspaper bed, some bread and potatoes, a razor, a fish hook and a bank book showing deposits of $719. He said that he was living in this fashion because he was afraid of people in New York.

Sam Venuti of Quincy, Mass., was fined $18 because he drove his sedan with 18 passengers.

In Mexico City, a man appeared on the street, took off his coat and danced before approaching autos like a matador before bull. When the cars veered away, he shouted "These animals have no fighting spirit."

Taken to jail, the gentleman claimed that he was a millionaire and that he would pay vast sums for his freedom.

At Syracuse, N. Y., Mrs. Emma Willis offered to sell her six-year-old son for $50,000 because she wanted him "to have luxuries and the chance for an education that a rich man's son would have."

In Richmond, Va., Cecil Cline, 16, swore to a marriage license clerk that she was "between 21 and 22." She procured the license and married Hollie Jones. Her father swore out perjury warrants for her, her husband and two friends. But Mrs. Jones explained that she had put a slip of paper with the figure 21 written on it in her shoe, and another paper marked 22 in her hat, proving, in her estimation, that she had not lied.

In White Plains, N. Y., Frank Beattie, 24, went to an office where his girl was employed as a stenographer and pleaded with her to marry him. She refused and Frank drew a pistol (Twas raised from a colt) from his pocket and discharged a blank cartridge against his chest. Frank was then arrested for violating a fireworks ordinance.

In Platteville, Wis., James Rickard while motoring stuck out his hand to signify that he was going to make a turn. A speeding auto came up from behind, broke James' outstretched arm.

Charles Drayo, while eating lunch in Leroy, N. Y., read a news item which said that Emile A. Gilbert, champion egg-eater, had eaten 36 eggs in eight minutes. Drayo, vexed, broke 40 eggs into glasses and drained the contents in five minutes.

The Alumni Association

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS OF V. & M. GRADUATES

Miss Kathryn Mabel Peace, were married in Richmond, December 31, last. Mr. King is an enthusiastic alumnus of the College and is connected with Whittet and Shepperson, of Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. King are making their home at 2209 Graydon Avenue, Richmond.

Octavia Theresa Caulk, '31, of Suffolk, was married in Washington, D. C., December 27th, to Robert Ryland Taliaferro, of Hustle, Essex county. Since her graduation, Mrs. Taliaferro has been a member of the faculty of the Mariott High School, King and Queen county. She is the daughter of Mrs. Stella Caulk, of Suffolk. Mr. Taliaferro is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Taliaferro and a great-grand son of Dr. Robert Ryland, first president of Richmond College. He is engaged in business with his father at Hustle, where they will make their home.

Miss Augusta Christian Harman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Harman, of Augusta county, became the bride of Barton Duvall Pattie, '31, of Waynesboro, Va., on Monday, December 26th. She is a granddaughter of Major John Harman, Quartermaster-General for General Stonewall Jackson. Mr. Pattie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Pattie, of Waynesboro, is an alumnus of Fishburne Military School and a graduate of William and Mary, class of 1931. He is a life member of the Alumni Association, was editor of the 1929 Colonial Echo, a member of the S. P. E. fraternity, an O. D. K., and Flat Hat Club. Last year he did post-graduate work at Columbia University. At present he is a member of the faculty of the Churchville High School.

W. J. Cox, '23, and Miss Elizabeth Goddin, of Barhamsville, were married recently. Mr. Cox is principal of the New Kent High School and president of the New Kent County, Williams and Mary Club.

PROMINENT ALUMINUS, G. C. SCOTT, SUCCUMBS

George Cole Scott, banker and industrialist, died December 13, 1932, at his home "Ballyhannon," near Richmond, Va. Born June 23, 1875, a son of Major Frederick R. Scott. Mr. Scott received his early education at McGuire's University School and the Episcopal High School. He attended William and Mary in '93 and '94, took his civil engineering degree at Princeton in '98 and a year later obtained a graduate degree at Columbia University.

Mr. Scott had a wide business experience during his life and was also interested in welfare work, especially in the national Boy Scout Association. He entered politics for the first time last fall, running for Congress on the Republican ticket, but was defeated in the November elections. Funeral services for Mr. Scott were held in St. Paul's Church in Richmond, and interment was made in Hollywood.

Catherine Elizabeth Bunch, '31, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bunch, of Newport News, Va., was married on December 9th, in Roanoke, Virginia, to Ernest Everett McGinley, '23, of Narrows, Va. Mrs. McGinley has, for the past year, been head of the History department of the Narrows High School. Mr. McGinley is a son of Charles E. McGinley, of Narrows, Va., and is deputy to the Commissioner of Revenue of Giles county, and an exporter of walnut lumber. Mr. and Mrs. McGinley will make their home in Narrows.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE TO HOLD FIRST MEETING OF YEAR IN RICHMOND, VA.

(Continued from Page 3)
There is some doubt therefore that the schools applying for admission to the Conference will be rejected. In the event that these schools are not admitted to the Conference there is a possibility that another conference may be organized in the Virginia-North Carolina region.

DR. D. J. BLOCKER SPEAKS AT Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION

Association Is Integral and Necessary Activity of Campus Life, Speaker Points Out.

That the Young Men's Christian Association is an integral part of the college campus activities and exists solely for the benefit of the students of the college, was pointed out by Dr. D. J. Blocker, professor of Sociology, at a convention held Monday morning at 11 o'clock in Phi Beta Kappa Hall. Dr. Blocker stated that the Y. M. C. A. is just as purposeful and necessary to the students as any one of the academic departments in the College of William and Mary, and like these departments, must have student support to function.

The program opened with a ballet selection from Rosamund by Schubert played by the Dining Hall Trio. This was followed by two vocal numbers, "Indian Love Call," by Frinal and "From the Land of Sky-Blue Waters" by Cadmon, both sung by Miss Elizabeth Jackson, a member of the freshman class, accompanied at the piano by Henry Wolf. This musical introduction was followed by Dr. Blocker's plea in behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association, after which, Dr. Chandler proceeded to cover briefly the purpose of the campaign and announced the quota.

The object of this association is to create a fellowship of students vitally interested in the highest meaning of life, and thereby to develop the highest type of Christian character in the men who are to represent the college. Dr. Blocker brought out the fact that "The Young Men's Christian Association is not a matter of solemnity but a matter of service. It is a young Men's Christian association and the college falls or stands, according to the kind of men that it produces. Take the order of the campus needs and fill it."

The Y. M. C. A. room is open to all students, whether they be active members of this organization or not. A meeting of the "Y" cabinet was held Monday night in the Y. M. C. A. room to complete the plans for the campaign and assign the canvassing committee special tasks.

WATERMAN GIVES LECTURE AT LOS QUIXOTESCOS MEET

Society Decides to Hold Formal Banquet on February 14th.

"Los Quixotescos" held its regular meeting Monday night, at 8 o'clock, at the Phi Mu House. Thomas Waterman, president of the club, gave an illustrated lecture on "The Architecture of Spain." He showed a number of interesting pictures of Gothic and Romanesque cathedrals, taken when he was traveling in Spain and abroad. Richard Weinburn read a paper, in Spanish on "The Importance of Spanish." "Classes of People on Chile," was the title of a brief speech by Henry Seymour, who has lived several years in South America.

The annual formal banquet of the society has been announced for February 14. The Valentine theme will be used in the decorations. A short discussion followed the program, after which refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held the first Monday in the new semester. The place is to be announced later.

DR. W. G. GUY GIVES TALK AT CHI BETA PHI MEETING

Dr. W. G. Guy, Professor of Chemistry, gave a talk on the "Essence of Matter" at a meeting of Chi Beta Phi, national scientific fraternity, which was held in Room 212, Rogers Hall, January 5 at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. Stetson, Dr. Taylor and Mr. Lambert were present; and among the visitors present was Douglas Matthew. Following the meeting refreshments were served.

INTRA-MURAL BOXING TO BE HELD NEXT SEMESTER

(Continued from Page 3)
offer high class opposition to other fighters in the light weight division. Krank, of Norfolk, a fast 125 pounder, in addition to having previously tried out his spurs in a number of amateur bouts, was also boxing instructor last summer at a boys' summer camp. Wilhelm, in the light heavy weight class, although inexperienced in actual ring combat, has been showing clever form during training bouts.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Dramatic Club will give its annual Shakespearean production selected for this year is "Much Ado About Nothing." This play will be open to the campus for try-outs. Announcements concerning try-outs will be posted on the William and Mary Players bulletin board in Washington Hall at least a week before try-outs. In the meantime Miss Hunt suggests that all people interested, read the play in preparation for try-outs.

There will be a meeting of all Jewish students at the college interested in continuing services during the coming semester, at the George Wythe House on Friday night at 7:30 P. M.

Alpha Mu of Delta Delta Delta announces the pledging of Maud C. Weaver of Gloucester, Va.

SIGMA NU PLEDGES

Epsilon Iota Chapter of Sigma Nu announces the pledging of Robert Ramsey, Needham Heights, Massachusetts, and John Hocutt, Newport News, Virginia.

PLEDGE

Beta Gamma Chapter of Alpha Phi Delta announces the pledging of Everett George Cataldo, of Franklin, Mass.

NEW RKO THEATRE OPENS HERE THURS. JANUARY 12 TO AN INVITED AUDIENCE

(Continued from page 1)
in Boston, diffuses a soft glow over the auditorium, aided by colonial fixtures on the sides. No expense has been spared to make this house one of beauty and dignity. The protection machinery is the most modern on the market, and an RCA sound system insures perfect sound throughout the theatre. A specially-built screen, which is as large as that usually found in large theatres, will show a picture twenty-three feet wide. A "Carrier Air Conditioning system" will be used to heat the air in winter, and refrigerate the theatre during the summer months. A constant stream of pure air is always entering the theatre through this system. Lighting, throughout the house, is controlled by dimmers located in the booth, and the lights in the house are also controlled from the manager's office. The building is fireproof throughout, and all safety devices will be used to keep it safe. Thomas McCaskey, a graduate of William and Mary, is managing the house, and students will be employed in the service organization. Ushers will be in uniform at all times. The Governor of Virginia, President

Chandler of William and Mary, high Army and Navy officials of the RKO company, Restoration officials, and other guests will view the first program of the new theatre.

Before the opening, college planes will stage an aerial exhibit over the building, while anti-aircraft lights will illuminate the sky. The College band will play outside the theatre at 7:45. The program will begin at eight with a concert by the College Symphony Orchestra, followed by a play "The Recruiting Officer," presented by the Dramatic Club. The feature picture will be Richard Dix

FAISON'S TAXI AND BAGGAGE TRANSFER
Phone 3 - U Drive It
Back of Douglas Bakery

LAKE MATOAKA RIDING SCHOOL
Safe Saddle Horses
Phone 367-J, Jamestown Rd.

Peninsula Hardware Corporation
We Frame Pictures

and Ann Harding in the "Conquerors."

The Campus-O. K. Shoe Shop
Soles Sewed on all kinds of shoes
Prices Right
Shoes called for and delivered
Phone 399-W, 324 D. of Gloucester

DUKE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE DURHAM, N. C.

Four terms of eleven weeks are given each year. These may be taken consecutively - M.D. in three years, or three terms may be taken each year, M.D. in four years. The entrance requirements are intelligence, character and at least two years of college work, including the subjects specified for Grade A Medical Schools. Catalogues and application forms may be obtained from the Dean.

Holly Brook Springs

Jamestown Road, two miles from Williamsburg
TEA ROOM
Dinner Parties, Teas, Bridge Parties and Banquets
Home-Made Candies. Phone 17-w

THE
ELECTRIC WAY
Is The Modern Way

When you are buying gifts, or appliances for your personal use, keep electrical convenience in mind

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER COMPANY

VISIT GARNER'S

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

Bostonians and Brennan

Shoes for Men

Were $6.50 Sale Price $4.95

— SIZES: 6 1-2 TO 10 1-2 —
— WIDTHS: B, C AND D —

GARNER & CO.
INCORPORATED
WILLIAMSBURG, VA. VIRGINIA

Imperial Theatre

Announcing Change in Policy

EFFECTIVE
MONDAY, JANUARY 16
Admissions, Matinee 20c
"Nights" 25c
Children, Any Time 10c

Monthly Tickets on Sale at Box Office for All Shows for One Month. Price $2.50.
Book Tickets at Special Reduced Prices. Good Any Time.

CONTINUING OUR SAME HIGH GRADE MOTION PICTURES
Next Week's Program...

IMPERIAL

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, JANUARY 16-17—
LEE TRACY - CONSTANCE CUMMINGS in
"WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND"
COMEDY AND CARTOON

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18—
SALLY EILERS—BEN LYONS in
"HAT CHECK GIRL"
NEWS AND COMEDY

THURSDAY-FRIDAY, JANUARY 19-20
MIRIAM HOPKINS—KAY FRANCIS in
"TROUBLE IN PARADISE"
COMEDY AND SPORTS

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21
NANCY CARROLL—CARY GRANT in
"HOT SATURDAY"
NEWS, COMEDY AND CARTOON
Coming:—"Strange Interlude"

COL. POPP DONATES RADIO AT AIRPORT

Daily Weather Service Given Peninsula; Blind Flying and Radio for Kitty Hawk.

Through the courtesy of Colonel Earl C. Popp genial head of the William and Mary Department of Aeronautics, his Department is now owner of an all-wave radio receiver that he obtained from Eastern Air Transport, Inc.

Between 200 and 400 kilocycles, the dot-dash, dash-dot, and long dash signals of the Byrd Airport, Richmond, radio beacon is brought into play the entire day. Three times the hour--on the half, five to, and on the hour--the radio beacon signals are temporarily stopped and the weather conditions from Atlanta to New York are broadcast, Seventy-two times daily prevailing weather conditions, ceiling, and other aids to the aviator and laymen are given to Williamsburg through the courtesy of the Department of Aeronautics.

During the latter part of next week the former small Kitty Hawk, will be commissioned as a big Kitty Hawk, following extensive alterations and added features to the ship by Chief Mechanic Otto Z. Johnson. The Kitty Hawk will be equipped for blind flying instruments, together with a radio receiver and transmitter, which Colonel Popp announced will be installed. The student flyer will be given orders in flying the ship correctly through the medium of these instruments by a radio operator at the College Airport Operations Office.

POWDER PUFF BEAUTY PARLOR Complete line of Beauty Culture So. Henry St., Phone 86

DOUGLAS BAKERY TRY OUR Cream Puffs, Eclairs and Pecan Rolls Baked Twice Daily Open on Sunday

Williamsburg Coal Co., Quality Coal -- Prompt Delivery Telephone 127

STRINGFELLOW ELECTRIC CORP. Williamsburg, Virginia

DELICIOUS DINNERS Special Catering for Banquets Comfortable Lounges The Williamsburg Inn Phone 400

WADE'S TAXI SERVICE Phone 39 Williamsburg Inn Building

Norfolk Cafe Next to Methodist Church ALL HOME COOKING Special Rates for Students

TRY Whitman's Candy Sold At WILLIAMSBURG DRUG COMPANY

COLONIAL BOWLING ALLEYS Entrance South Henry Street Basement A&P Building

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING POSTPONED UNTIL LATER

The Dramatic Club meeting which was scheduled to take place on the night of January 12th, will be postponed until the following week.

The January meeting of the club will be a joint meeting of the Play Production class and the Play Writing class which will be held at the Phi Mu House, where they will be entertained by the Dramatic Club.

The Play Writing class will present manuscripts of one act plays to be produced next semester and the Play Production class will present the "Playgoers," by Pinero.

DEAN IS PRESENT AT YALE MEETING

Dean Landrum Attends Meeting of Modern Language Association; Grierson of Edinburgh Spoke on Scott; Goethe Manuscripts Exhibited.

Dr. Grace Warren Landrum, of the English Department, attended the meetings of the Modern Language Association, which were held at Yale University, on December 29, 30 and 31.

Among the most outstanding features of the meeting was an afternoon devoted to Scott and Goethe. Professor Grierson, of the University of Edinburgh, spoke on Scott. There were also exhibits of Goethe books and manuscripts, and material connected with Faust, and early editions and manuscripts connected with Scott.

William Lyon Phelps, professor of English at Yale, introduced Governor Wilbur Cross, a former English professor at Yale, as the speaker at the dinner on Thursday night, given for those attending the meetings.

The Shakespeare section, is announced, plans to appeal to some foundation for a continuation of the Variorum edition of Shakespeare's works. With the publication of a volume a year, all of the plays not in the Variorum edition will be issued in twenty years.

Professor Padelford announced the rediscovery of a brief lost work of Spencer, a translation of one of the Dialogues of Plato, which has been added to the Spencer section.

The Chaucer section hopes to promote the republication of the originals and analogues of the Canterbury Tales.

FLAT HAT CONSTITUTION DRAWN UP AND RATIFIED BY F. H. STAFF MEMBERS

(Continued from page 1)

elective officers, which shall be the Editor-in-Chief, the business manager and the circulation manager.

Section 2: All elective officers shall serve during good behavior for one (1) year.

Section 3: If, during the term of office, any of the three elective officers become vacant, a special election shall be held to elect a man or woman to fill out the unexpired term.

Section 4: Elections shall be held at least within one week after the publishing of the last issue of the Flat Hat in the fall term, with the exception of the Circulation Manager.

Section 5: The Circulation Manager shall be elected by the circulation staff at a special meeting. He shall hold office for one (1) year.

Section 6: A plurality vote shall govern all elections.

Section 7: Announcement of the date of election shall be made at least one week prior to the day of election.

Article 2: Eligibility for holding office. Section 1: To be eligible to hold an elective office, candidates must have served for one (1) year on the Flat Hat staff prior to the day of election.

Article 3: The Business Manager of the Flat Hat automatically becomes the Flat Hat representative to the Board of Control of the College.

Article 4: Amendments. Section 1: An amendment to this constitution shall be made by a two-thirds vote of the masthead members.

Article 5: Flat Hat Keys. Section 1: The following members of the staff shall receive keys upon assuming office: the editor-in-chief, the business manager, the circulation manager and the associate editor. All seniors who have served three and a half years on the Flat Hat shall automatically receive keys.

Article 6: Proxies. Section 1: All proxies must be signed and contain a definite decision.

Article 7: Credits. Section 1: A list composed of the names of the masthead members and members recommended by the circulation manager shall be forwarded to the Registrar of the College at the end of each college year. Each person shall receive one credit per year.

W. & M. DEBATED FIFTEEN INITIATED TO ETA SIGMA PHI IN PHI BETA HALL

Bolton and Horton for William and Mary Upheld the Affirmative on "Cancellation of Allied War Debts and Reparations."

AN OPEN DISCUSSION HELD

Affirmative Argument Based on Fact That Cancellation Would Speed Recovery Because of Psychological Effect.

William and Mary met Penn State here in debate, in Phi Beta Kappa Hall, on December 19th, 1932. Luther Bolton and Barrett Horton upheld the affirmative of the question: "Cancellation of Allied War Debts and Reparations," for William and Mary. There was an open forum discussion following the debate. This was the first attempt at an audience discussion at the college. The audience participated freely in the discussion and one of the most successful debates in the history of the school was held.

Bolton and Horton based their case on the grounds that cancellation would speed recovery because of the psychological effect on the world. The international attitude was stressed by Bolton who said that "We could no longer remain isolated from Europe and the world as we have tried to do, with any degree of success and prosperity to the world. The well-being of any major nation is important to us and we must take a world attitude if we are ever to see the dawn of a prosperous era again. The politicians of the country say that payment must be insisted upon, but the economists insist on cancellation!" The moral side of the case was upheld by Mr. Horton on the grounds that we owe a moral debt to our allies who furnished the men for battle while we were furnishing the money.

Prospects for the continued success of the William and Mary debate teams are very good in view of the

WIL - MAR Cleaning and Pressing JOHN ROGERS, Mgr. Phone 118

KANDY KITCHEN HOME MADE CANDY We Serve Hot Lunches --and-- Regular Dinners

1933 sports frocks FROM McCALL McCall 7232

There are new details all over the sports side of the mode this season. McCall shows them all, as you might know. You won't ever find this up-to-date easy-to-use pattern neglecting a single vogue.

McCall 7244, 7243

CASEY'S, Inc. "Peninsula's Shopping Center"

The following were initiated as senior members of Eta Sigma Phi: Ada Kelley, Lucille Ozlin, Alberta Alperin, Irving Silverman, Mary Frances Wiley, Dorothy Green, Ann Page Moreland, and Mary Gallagher. Those who have been made junior members are as follows: Ned Cole-

THE NEW YORK TAILOR Have Moved to their New Location next to Person's Garage.

WILLIAMS Barber Shop For Those Who Care

man, Helen Davis, Jane Gilmer, Ernest Goodrich, Christine Hudson, Ann Northington, and Marguerite Stribling.

Students Cruise Magazine Subscription Scholarship workers and crew managers, write immediately for very best Student Scholarship offers of leading publication. Can be worked there now. Permanent positions if experienced. Also summer crews for U. S. and Foreign territory.

For full details, write THE COLLEGIATE SCHOLARSHIP INSTITUTE 219 Republic Building MIAMI, FLORIDA

Advertisement for Williamsburg Theatre featuring Richard Dix, Ann Harding, and The Conqueror. Includes text about the theatre's dedication, the film's plot, and showtimes for January 13th, 14th, and 16th-17th.