Next Tuesday evening at 8:15 the curtain in the Phi Beta Kappa Hall will rise on the performance of three one-act plays by the members of the Play Production Class of the College of William and Mary directed by Miss Althea Hunt who is assisted by Miss Carey and Miss Sellwold and sponsored by the William and Mary Dramatic Club.

Two of the plays, "Joint Owners in Spain" and "The Maker of Dreams," will be given by the Dramatics Class of this term, while the third, "The Rising of the Moon," will be presented by the class of last term. Miss Hunt has personally directed all three of these productions, and all those who have seen her former work, particularly her Christmas production, "The Goose Hangs High," are looking forward with a great deal of anticipation to the program of next Tuesday evening.

The Class promises an enjoyable evening, with plenty of laughs and just enough tears. The program is particularly varied. The first of the plays to be given is "The Rising of the Moon," an Irish Play by the well-known advocate of the Irish National Theater, Lady Augusta Gregory. The characters in this play will be as follows:

DEBATERS WIN OVER VISITORS

Bolton and Thompson Win From Westminster College, of Fulton Missouri; First Victory for W. & M. This Season on Home Floor

M. Weldon Thompson and William B. Bolton, debating the affirmative side of the proposition "Resolved: That the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States should be Abolished," won the first inter-collegiate debate this season for William and Mary here last Thursday night in the Phi Beta Kappa Hall. They were opposed by George E. Sweazey and Charles F. Lamkin, Jr., of Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri.

Having stripped the question of its prejudices the William and Mary debaters based their case on an analysis of the legal and sociological phases of the question. Westminster met the issues with an argument based on the sociological and ethical benefits derived from prohibition.

Both debates were characterized by the scientific handling of the question and failure of either team to play on the prejudices of the audiences to win the case. Various types of debating strategy exhibited not only a full

Alpha Chi Omega Southern Province Formally Installs Alpha Chi Omega Sorority; Many Social Functions Given

Alpha Beta Chi, local social sorority, was formally installed as Beta Delta Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega at the College of William and Mary on April 8, 9, 10. The local was founded here in February of last year and on petitioning Alpha Chi Omega later was granted a chapter from the national on January 24, 1927.

In addition to the installation services, the newly installed Chapter was host to the Southern Province, a division of the national Sorority created this year.

The ceremonies of installation began Friday afternoon, April 8 with a meeting of the Southern Province in the Phi Beta Kappa Hall. Dr. J. A. C. Chandler delivered the address of welcome. Delegates from Tau Chapter at Brenau, Alpha Upsilon, University of Alabama, Alpha Omega, Birmingham Southern and Beta Gamma at University of Louisiana were present at this meeting. A similar meeting of the delegates was held in the morning at which time they were addressed by Dr. J. R. Geiger.

Formal initiation took place in the Phi Beta Kappa Hall, Friday evening. Twenty-two active members of the local and four pledges were initiated. Prominent members of the sorority present for the initiation were Mrs. Irving Brown, National President and Mrs. J. Ellis Crosley Southern Province President.

On Saturday morning, breakfast was given by the Delta Chi Delta Sorority at the home of the Misses Morecock. Special luncheon was served at the College dining hall Saturday. On Saturday afternoon the Alpha Chi Omegas gave a formal reception to the faculty, students and prominent town friends. The reception was held at the home of Professor Krebs. Installation banquet was held in the College dining hall on Saturday evening. The Phi Beta Phis gave a breakfast at the Pochontas Tea Room in their honor Sunday morning. The Chi Omegas gave a tea Sunday afternoon in their rooms and the Kappa Kappa Gammas entertained the officers at a luncheon Sunday.

William and Mary Netmen Meet U. T. S. Team Today

The William and Mary tennis team will cross racquets this afternoon with the netmen of the Union Theological Seminary at Richmond in the first of this season's intercollegiate matches. This will mark the beginning of an unusual heavy schedule.

Six men, Captain Howard, Crossfield, Ober, James, Rhinestine and Lewis went to the Capital City this morning and in all probability, the entire lot will get into action.

The local netmen were originally scheduled to meet Randolph-Macon tomorrow in Ashland but this was cancelled the first of the week.

Y. M. C. A. CONTEST NEXT WEDNESDAY

General Information Contest to be Given in Phi Beta Kappa Auditorium Next Wednesday Evening, 7:45

Final arrangements have been made for the General Information Contest to be held under the auspices of the College Y. M. C. A. at 7:45 on the evening of April 20th in Phi Beta Kappa Auditorium.

As announced in a previous issue of the Flat Hat, Mr. Casey has donated a first prize of $10 in gold and a second prize of $5 in merchandise for the girls. Mr. DuBois has donated similar prizes for the boys.

The faculty committee has drawn up a list of one hundred questions which cover all fields of information. An attempt has been made to have a fair distribution among the various fields of knowledge to refrain from anything too technical. The questions in the various fields are not those which only one specializing in a particular field could answer but are so general that any well informed person should be able to answer them. Examples of the types of questions to be asked were published in last week's Flat Hat.

INDIANS DEFEAT YALE U. IN GREAT BASEBALL GAME

COLLEGE WOMEN HIGHLY HONORED

Co-eds are Granted Recognition by American Association of University Women on Basis of Excellent Scholarship and Work; Miss Powell Deserves Much Credit for Efforts

William and Mary has been admitted to full membership in the American Association of University Women according to word received here early this week, which means that it now ranks among the leading colleges for women through the United States.

All women students realize that a great honor has been conferred upon their Alma Mater, but many do not know just what the Association stands for and how much recognition by the Association will mean to each woman student.

The objective of the work of recognition are two-fold: to promote high standards of education, and to win recognition in advanced education for women students and for women on the faculty.

After the membership list of the Association of American Universities ceased to be adequate as a basis for determining the academic standing of applying institution, a new rating agency had to be found. In the absence of one nation-wide standardizing organization, the Association was forced to adopt four: the association of colleges and preparatory schools of the Middle States and Maryland; the association of colleges and secondary schools of the Southern

CHEMISTS VISIT COLLEGE TODAY

Four Hundred Members of the American Chemical Society Holding Convention in Richmond Will be Entertained in Williamsburg Today

Williamsburg and the surrounding historical neighborhood is receiving a visit to day from approximately 400 members of the American Chemical Society, which is holding its annual national convention in Richmond from April 11 to 16. There are over 1,000 chemists attending the convention, and, although the Society is arranged naturally, this is the first time it has ever held a meeting in Virginia and one of the first times in the South. Dr. R. G. Robb, professor of chemistry at the college, is chairman of the committee to provide entertainment for the visitors here.

The visitors arrived on the campus about 10:30 and will be the guests of the college until the middle of the afternoon when they will be carried by bus and automobile to Jamestown. At two o'clock a barbecue and fish fry will be given in their honor by the college on the campus of the Scotland Street Building. While in Virginia, the visiting scientists will inspect possibilities for industrial chemistry development in this state.

Ninth Inning Rally Sends Old Eli Down With Short End 3-2

EASON'S STICK PRODUCE RUNS

Hard Hitting Outfielder, Subbing at First Scores One Run and Drives in Other Two in Last of Ninth by Terrific Wallop

Led by the terrific batting of "Suey" Eason and the masterful pitching of Jimmy Wallace, the William and Mary baseball team nosed out Yale University in the opening game of the season Friday on Cary Field. The final score was 3-2.

Eason, with three hits to his credit was easily the batting star of the afternoon. He scored the first William and Mary tally after getting on base by one of these hits and drove over the tying and winning runs in the ninth inning by another, a triple to deep center in the last half of the ninth after two men were out.

The game as a whole was one of the best that has ever been played on Cary Field and the almost errorless ball played in a series of showers. Both teams were held scoreless for five innings, but the Yale batters got to Wallace in the first half of the sixth for two tallies. Captain Jones went to first on an infield fluke, was advanced to third on a double by Noble and both of these scored on a hit by Caldwell. William and Mary was unable to cross the plate until the eighth inning when Eason singled, advanced on Wallace's hit, went to third on a fielder's choice and scored on a single to the outfield by Zion.

The last two of the Indian runs were scored after Kelly and Dalton had fanned in the ninth. Blossom took one in the arm, advanced on Thompson's single and both scored on Eason's hit.

Kitty Rhodes Heads Edith Baer Club for New Year

Officers for the coming year were elected at a recent meeting of the Edith Baer Club. Katherine Rhodes, of Middletown, Va., was elected to the office of president. Miss Rhodes is a sophomore and is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. She brings to the duties of her office a good deal of ability and enthusiasm.

Oleta Bell Martin, elected vice-president of the club, was secretary last year. Alice Crutchfield and Jane Abbott are the new secretary and treasurer respectively. Both have been very active in the Edith Baer Club work for some time. Phyllis Hughes received the office of program chairman, and Dorothy Chalkley that of Alumni secretary.

The Club had its annual banquet last night at the Colonial Hotel Kitty Rhodes acted as Toast-mistress. Invited guests other than members of the organization included Miss Bessie P. Taylor, Miss Annie M. Powell and Mrs. H. M. Stryker.

DEBATERS DROP THREE MATCHES

Stewart, Elliott and Andrews Lose to Fordham, Gettysburg and American University on First Northern Trip Ever Made by Local Team

Three straight defeats by judges decision was the lot of three debaters representing William and Mary on the first Northern tour ever undertaken by a local team under auspices of the Debate Council. The men making the trip were R. E. B. Stewart, Jr., and M. Carl Andrews, seniors and W. H. Elliott, Jr., a member of the junior class. Fordham, Gettysburg and American University were the institutions met on the road.

The trip began on Saturday night, April 2 when the team sailed from Norfolk to New York by steamship, arriving in the Metropolis Sunday morning.

The ship ran into a North-east storm and was four hours late reaching harbor. The men reported an enjoyable trip nevertheless. Fordham mopped the travelers on Monday night on the question, "Resolved, That the United States Should Cancel its Inter-Allied War Debts." William and Mary took the affirmative. The debate without doubt, was the best of the trip and the delivery of both sides so well done that the decision was in doubt until the ballots were rendered at the close in favor of Fordham. The local debaters were guests of the University and while there managed to look over part of the city. They also visited New York University, the college campus of which is only a few minutes removed from Fordham. James H. Burns, John F. Doherty and Charles B. McGroddy, Jr., composed the victorious team.

The scheduled debate with Bucknell was cancelled just before the team left, due to their inability to prepare an extra debate on another question in such a short time.

Wednesday night found the debaters at Gettysburg, Pa., after a short stop in Harrisburg to look over the Keystone Capital city. The same question and side were taken at Gettysburg. Speaking in a small hall after having a large auditorium at their disposal the previous night, the men were not at their best. However, they made a very good showing as evidenced in the closeness of the vote which was rendered two to one in favor of Gettysburg. The victors were represented by Messers P. Rhoads, R. Tabor and G. Wilt, all juniors.

While in Gettysburg, the local team was given the opportunity to go over the famous battlefield and observe exact details of the mighty struggle waged there in '63. The field is covered with monuments and memorials in addition to cannon and other relics. It is said that there is several millions of dollars in monuments on the field.

The team left Gettysburg early Thursday morning, going to Washington by way of bus through the most picturesque section of Maryland, stopping off in Frederick, made famous by Barbara Fritchie. The team reached Washington Thursday forenoon and spent some time looking over the capitol. The debate with American University was held at the college campus in the Western end of the city. The travelers upheld the negative of, "Resolved, That the Eighteenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution Should Be Repealed." In this debate they sought to meet the other team on its own ground rather than to advance any new argument of their own. In this they were quite successful but failed to carry the judges' decision.

American University was represented by W. Willis Delaplain, Hugh Speer and Roland Rice.

Although the trip was one of defeats it is felt that the showing made was well worthy of the college and opens up a field which can be more

Little Hurler Who Beat Yale Puts Up Good Showing in Centerfield and Hits Well; Ably Seconded by Tyler With Two Safeties

Miscues and seven passes cost William and Mary her game Tuesday against the Crusaders from Holy Cross. The Indians garnered 8 hits to 3 for Jack Barry's visitors, but were unable to overcome the lead gained by Holy Cross in taking ad-

Charlie Stickel seemed invincible to the visiting batters, but the Crusaders used every advantage to score their six runs. In the second McEntree started the scoring when Stickel hit him, he went to second on a passed ball, stole third and scored on Cahill's hit. Two more tallies in each of the sixth and seventh frames and one in the eighth completed the scoring.

William and Mary's lone score came after Kelly reached first on Harrell's boot. Stickel sacrificed him to second and he scored on Thompson's long drive to right field.

Wallace continued his great work by getting two hits out of four trips and handling the outfield nicely. Bloxson, Thompson and Eason hit safely and Tyler landed two safeties in three trips. Clarke, pinch hitting for Ayers in the ninth, delivered a pretty single through second.

"Speaking of fine tobaccos —Have a Camel!"

MODERN smokers find in Camels a nicety of blending, a friendly cordiality of flavor, an inherent goodness that thrills from the first puff to the last. That is why Camels are the favorite of the present age. The warmth of golden sunlight or autumn fields gleams in their smoke. Camels are the modern expression of all that is the finest.

Camel quality and Camel excellence are recognized wherever modern smokers gather. Particular smokers in this hard-to-please age find the best of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos blended in this famous cigarette. They find a consistent goodness that never fails, no matter how liberal the smoking.

And wherever modern smokers gather, wherever the conversation turns to tobacco, to the world's best, someone is sure to say:

INDIANS MEET GENERALS AT LEXINGTON TOMORROW AFTERNOON

EASON'S MIGHTY WALLOP SENDS OLD ELI DOWN TO DEFEAT 3 TO 2

Just A Word About Sports

By "DAUBA"

The Sports Department wishes to recall to the minds of student fans that in the excitement of athletic encounters they are very often apt to forget the ordinary courtesies and good manners which should be shown to all members of visiting teams and which the students, as gentlemen, should show them. During the recent game with Yale University there was a noticeable tendency among the spectators to engage in what is commonly referred to as "razzing," but which might more appropriately be termed absolute rudeness. We believe that such conduct in no way aids the interest of the team and that such actions are reflections on the school and the student body as a whole. There are always little acts of consideration which are "noblesse oblige" to the conduct of a true gentleman, and these little traits of character should never be absent from the demeanor of a man from William and Mary, the oldest institution of the oldest state, and one whose name has spread and become renowned as famous for its Southern Hospitality.

If the promoters of the famous Hollywood industries could only have been present at the game last Friday they would have been entertained with a real ball game that would do justice to the climax of the silver screen's best productions. The stage was perfectly set and those fans of many years ago who were present could easily have called to mind the never-dying old romance of the "Mighty Casey" whose lusty swat has rung down through the ages. Even the most fastidious sensationalist could find no flaw in the way that Mr. Eason broke up a perfectly good ball game. His healthy wallop has placed him in the Indian's Hall of Fame and little Williams and Marys will be entertained on grand-pop's knee with vivid accounts of the colorful incident.

Not only was Eason the leading light in the last winning of that memorable fray, but he made the first hit of the season on the home grounds when he singled in the opening frame. Incidentally the Bull Dogs were held hitless for four and two-thirds innings by the stellar hurling of Jimmie Wallace. Such a debut predicts a career of great things and the four years here will be filled with success for the Norfolk lad, unless some radical change occurs.

Offerings on the home fields are numerous and varied during the next week or two. Baseball games, tennis matches, and track meets are all slated for entertainment of local fans, and the class of opposition that is being encountered insures plenty of excitement for those who will witness the contests. Some of the very best in college baseball circles and fast stepping competition in track will feature the programs and ardent followers of the two sports will find plenty to amuse them during the next few days.

Those who enjoy that fascinating and healthful game of golf will be glad to learn of the recent opening of Williamsburg's nine-hole course. All reports indicate that it is in good condition and open to those who care to shoot a few games.

Following the example of our illustrious fellow columnists we are going to try our hand at the presentation of poetry and will begin with that rousing old ditty "welcome sweet springtime, We greet thee with song." However due to a bad cold our voice fails us and requests go out that readers of this page finish it out for us and oblige.

GAME CANCELLED

The William and Mary-Bridgewater baseball game which was originally scheduled to be played on Cary Field April 22 has been definitely struck off the schedule according to J. E. Hollinger manager of the local baseball team. Some tie-up in the Bridgewater road trip was responsible.

Women students in the physical education department of Wisconsin University are to be given college credit for canoeing. Prerequisites for entering the course include the meeting of certain swimming requirements.

Over 1,600 of the sorority women at the University of Illinois are engaged.

FRESHMEN WIN BY BIG MARGIN IN FIRST MEET

Little Indian Harriers Run Rough Shod Over Hampton and Newport Competitors Take Only One First Place

DONLON SUPERMAN

Takes Four First Places in Triangular Meet; Tying College Record in 100 Yards; Meet With John Marshall Tomorrow

William and Mary Freshmen ran rough shod over Hampton and Newport News high schools in the triangular track meet held on Cary Field last week, the papooses taking every first place except one, that going to Webb, the Hampton pole-vaulter. Due to the condition of the field there were no unusual records made outside the hundred yard dash which was run by Donlon in the fast time of 10.1 seconds thus equaling the college varsity record.

Neither one of the competing visitors had a ghost of a show against the best Freshmen track team ever turned out at William and Mary. The ducs gobbled up 85 1/2 out of the possible 110 points.

Donlon was the super-man of the day when he took first place in the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, broad jump, and javelin. It is seldom that such a performance as this can be witnessed and seldom has been seen on Cary Field. The little Indian star is one of the brightest prospects seen at William and Mary for some time and his performance in this meet was beyond criticism.

Word comes from Richmond that John Marshall Hi. School is bringing to Williamsburg tomorrow the strongest track team ever produced there. John Cronly, coach of the Richmond team, has high hopes of giving the duc runners one of the stiffest competitions they have ever had. The visitors, it is reported, are exceedingly strong in the running events, and although their field men are not as strong as they might be, they can at least be depended upon for a good showing.

Results of the triangular meet:

100 yard dash—Donlon, frosh; Neighbors, frosh; Davis, frosh. Time 10.1 seconds.

440 yard dash—Davis, frosh; Pierson, Newport News; Hollis, Hampton. Time 54.4 seconds.

220 yard dash—Donlon, frosh; Davis, frosh; Neighbors, frosh. Time 24.4 seconds.

880 yard dash—Campbell, frosh; Graham, frosh; Slavdon, Newport News. Time: 2 minutes, 8 seconds.

220 low hurdles—Baggett, frosh; Steffy, Newport News; Webb, Hampton. Time 27.2 seconds.

Mile—Babb, frosh; Campbell, frosh; Scott, Newport News. Time 5 minutes, 11 seconds.

MATCHES CANCELLED

The tennis matches between William and Mary and Washington and Lee and Virginia Military Institute have been cancelled, according to a statement issued by Manager Terry Cennamo. These were to have been played in Lexington, May 5 and 6.

The two matches with Randolph-Macon have also been cancelled. The Indians will play U. T. S. tomorrow.

TRACK MEN WIN BY LARGE SCORE

William and Mary Runners Win Easily From Randolph-Macon Track Team. Meb Davis High Point Man.

Piling up 110 2/3 points to 5 1/3 by their opponents, the William and Mary track team romped on Randolph-Macon Monday afternoon. The Indians took every first place but one, the high jump, and tied with the visitors for that.

The meet was clearly a case of too much William and Mary as the locals outshone the visitors in everything except the mile run where Randolph-Macon managed to place two men. Campbell, Indian trackman, however nosed into first place at the end of the fourth lap.

As usual the wearers of the Green, Gold and Silver were especially strong in the weights. Led by Captain Grove and Stribling they took all nine places in the shot put, discus toss and javelin throw.

Baggett and Grove each took two first places in the meet, the former grabbing off honors in the hurdles and the latter in the discus and shot.

Meb Davis was high point man of the afternoon with 12 points to his credit. Grove and Baggett were second with 10 each.

The summary:

100 yard dash—1, Davis, W. & M.; 2, Green, W. & M.; 3, Neighbors, W. & M.; Time 10:3-10.

22 yard dash—1, Green, W. & M.; 2, Davis, W. & M.; 3, Neighbors, W. & M.; Time: 23:3-10.

PRINCETON AND HARVARD PLAY BASEBALL HERE

Indians Meet Northern Teams on Cary Field Tomorrow and Monday as Princeton and Harvard Make Southern Trip

LARGE CROWDS EXPECTED

Both Northern Aggregations Expect to Have Good Teams to Match Against the Fighting Virginians

With Princeton as their opponents tomorrow and Harvard as their opponents Monday, the William and Mary baseball team will play two of the biggest games of the season over the week-end. Both of these affairs will come off on Cary Field.

These two games will mark the second and third that the Indians will play with the so-called Big Three this season, they having already crossed bats with Yale last Friday. On the Northern trip the local team will also meet each of these again.

Both of these games are being played as part of the Princeton and Harvard annual Southern trips. Princeton started south this week and is playing some of the outstanding teams in Virginia and neighboring states. Harvard leaves for Williamsburg Sunday night.

Princeton has excellent prospects for an excellent team this year. With ten lettermen back and several outstanding stars from last year's freshmen squad in the fold Tiger coaches are in high hopes of turning out a nice working machine this season. The hurling staff is not as strong as it might be, only two pitchers, Kellogg and Rankin, returning to college this year. The rest of the squad however will be made up almost entirely of veterans.

The dope points to one of the most successful seasons in years up at Harvard, for Coach Fred Mitchell has an all star team in the making. He has not yet finally determined all of the first team, but it probably will be made up as follows: Chauncey, catcher; Tobin or Prior, first base; Ullman at second; Sullivan or Howard at third. The outfield will be made up of Jones, Burns and Lord. The pitching staff is especially strong, the entire string of last year being back.

The Harvard affair will be the only game that the Indians will play next week on account of the Birdgewater fray being cancelled.

Library Facilities

Since the College Library seems to be coming into the limelight of discussion we are tempted to say a few words on the subject. The student body is pleased to know that in addition to the three thousand dollars collected in fees, the Library received the amount of thirteen thousand from the college appropriations. With these the college maintains the present building, a librarian, three full-time and four part-time assistants. There is no question as to the fact that Mr. E. G. Swem is doing the best he can with his opportunities. If the truth were known he is probably doing much more for the college than anyone else could ordinarily do under the circumstances.

The problem facing us is that fact that the college library is not what a library should be in a college the size of William and Mary. The building now is altogether too small, with no separate reading rooms where quiet can be maintained. Relics, trophies and paintings can not be kept in a room by themselves as they should be. Instead they are scattered throughout the building. There are no definite visitor's hours, it would appear, and as a result at times it is almost impossible to concentrate upon reading that must be done in the library. True, there is a good deal of work done in the library that could be done elsewhere, but why should not the library be a place to study?

The fundamental makeup of a library is books. If there are no books, there is no library, an obvious fact. The present handicap, of which many students are complaining, is the fact that reference books for courses fall into three classes. They are not in the library, they are there but only number one or two copies when there should be a dozen, or students are requested to help purchase parallel for their courses.

Another source of trouble in the library, although of a different nature, is the noise of constant disturbance. Students are to a large degree responsible for much unnecessary noise but there are other reasons and also remedies. A rubber carpet through the passage from the library proper to the stack room would help as would the laying of linoleum in the stack room to absorb much of the noise made by heels coming into contact with concrete floor. Then again there is the problem of lighting in the stack room. Six small lights try to cover a room all out of proportion to their strength. This situation could be remedied at very little cost and would certainly save much eyestrain and inconvenience.

All of this is said in a spirit of cooperation and for the general good, and we hope that it will not be taken otherwise. Mention may be made that the college is doing all that it could for the library with the fees collected. The answer should be and we believe that the students would support it, simply raise the fee a dollar or so and secure some of the much needed changes. And by the way, it does seem that thirteen thousand dollars is a small portion of the total revenue of the college. This might also be increased or some money diverted from other sources, temporarily at least.

The college and the student body is to be congratulated upon the opportunity to hear Mr. Rupert Hughes last Tuesday at the weekly assembly. It was a talk well worth hearing and also one that was instructive in addition to being entertaining. It is this kind of attraction for the assemblies that should be brought to William and Mary. Certainly if the administration follows such a policy there will be little trouble in getting the student body to attend. When they do not they will be forced to feel that they have missed something really worth while.

Right about this time the students begin to wonder again just why we are to have no Easter holiday. Probably if the privilege had been respected a little more last year we would have it. Whether that is the whole reason we do not know.

INDIAN RUNNERS LEAVE TO MEET W. & L. TOMORROW

William and Mary Track Men Run Today in Third Meet of Season as They Match Speed With Washington and Lee

SEVERAL STARS INELIGIBLE

Freshmen are Barred from Participation in Today's Meet by Conference Rules; Dash Men Will be Missed

Weakened considerably by the loss of some of its stars because of the freshman rule, the William and Mary track team checked out this morning for Lexington, Va., where they will meet Washington and Lee tomorrow afternoon. This will mark the third meet that the Indians will have participated in this season.

The places where the local team will be hit hardest in tomorrow's meet will be in the dashes, distances and hurdles on account of the ineligibility of Kirby Davis, Baggett, Campbell and Graham. They will also be handicapped in the high jump on account of Davila not being able to participate. As usual the Green, Gold and Silver is especially strong in the weights.

Washington and Lee has a fair team this year. Seven lettermen including Milbank, a dash runner, Patterson, Reardon and Simmons, hurdles, "Buck" Wilson, quarter miler, Sutton, a distance man, Coleman, javelin tosser and Kidd, shot putter are back in school with a fair scattering of material from last year's freshman squad. Among these are Nance, Butler, and Jennings in the two mile; Pilley in the mile run, Claunch in the 880 yard dash, Simmons in the 440 yard dash and Janney in the high jump and javelin throw.

Lining up the two teams together things look about even with locals having the advantage in the field events while the Generals are more likely to pile up their points in the dashes and hurdles.

OPEN FORUM

Editor Flat Hat,
Williamsburg, Va.

Dear Sir:

The president of the college has expressed the fact that he wishes to see the Forum in the Flat Hat used by the students for asking questions. How about this? The Phi Beta Kappa Hall was given as a memorial by many prominent men throughout the country. It is a fine gift and is, no doubt, appreciated by all. It is a fine building and is quite an addition to the campus, but why was the auditorium constructed as it is? As a lecture hall it is impossible. It is difficult to see the stage or to hear the lecture. As a place for the presentation of plays it is still worse. Are the seats arranged either in the balcony or in the main floor to the best advantage for the audience? I say "no." It is difficult to see or hear the speaker.

The floor of the auditorium is not stained. It therefore appears dirty. The wood finishing is poorly done. Sitting under the balcony, one can see many nail heads which are neither covered by paint nor by putty. This probably comes from the type of painters employed. The joints of the wood show many cracks. This comes from poor carpentry or from using green wood which later dried out and contracted. It is a poorly designed and poorly constructed building.

I am interested in the building program and do not mean to criticize the administration but I do think that these things do not appeal to any audience present.

Your very truly,

A Casual Observer.

States; the North Central Association of colleges and secondary schools, and the University of California. But institutions located outside of the territory covered by these agencies are naturally not barred from consideration but are studied separately on the basis of their academic qualifications.

A summary of the standards required for entrance is as follows:

1. Academic standards:

a. Entrance requirements consisting of a complete secondary school course of good quality, pursued with success.

b. A four year course so arranged as to oblige the student to acquire some idea of each of the great fields of human knowledge, and to be proficient in one of them.

c. A faculty well trained in their subjects. They must not be overburdened and must have time for research work.

d. An administration so organized that students receive careful individual advice and guidance. In co-educational institutions there must be a dean or advisor of women.

2. Physical care and development:

a. Physical education directed toward the maintaining of bodily fitness and skill.

b. Instruction in personal and social hygiene.

c. A health service to assist students in preventing illness and in learning to make the most of their physical endowment.

3. Living conditions must be sanitary and comfortable, conducive to maintaining the health of students, to their social well-being and to the cultivation of a friendly and democratic spirit among them.

4. Student activities:

A student government association or other means of enabling students to express their sense of responsibility for the welfare of the group. Athletic sports giving recreation and exercise to a large number of students. Opportunity for the development of a special talent in writing, acting and singing.

5. Equipment and endowment:

Such class rooms, laboratories, and libraries as are necessary to carry on the program just outlined.

A financial situation which insures stability and continuity.

William and Mary has met all of the above requirements and her co-eds may justly feel proud that as alumni they will be classed with women of the leading colleges and universities. Much credit is due Miss Annie M. Powell, who since coming to William and Mary as Dean of Women, has worked in every possible manner to raise the standards of the College to meet the requirements.

SCHEDULES PRINTED

Word comes from the registrar's office that a number of small pamphlets have been printed which contain the complete schedule of the baseball games, track meets, and tennis matches. These will be given to all students who apply for them at the office in the Brafferton building. These are found very convenient in keeping the different athletic events straight and thereby making a misunderstanding of the schedule impossible.

DEBATERS WIN OVER VISITORS

knowledge of the proposition and its connotations, but careful study of debating method. Neither team took refuge in sophistical definition, or in the numerous tricks employed by debaters.

Thompson debated for the first time in an intercollegiate engagement. His argument and his presentation gave promise of great possibilities for development. Bolton has appeared before local audiences before and his work has been excellent with the team this year. The two men presented an argument that showed team preparation as well as individual ability.

Westminster's debaters were equally as good and kept the William and Mary representatives in action from the beginning of the debate. The defeat was the second in 41 meets for the visitors.

Lamkin has been State Orator of Missouri for the past two years, although he is only a Sophomore in college. Sweeney is a Senior this year, and is prominent in activities at Westminster.

Judges for the debate were Messrs. R. S. Huff, L. H. Stinneford, and G. B. Stevens, all members of the faculty of Hampton Institute. The Chairman for the occasion was Dean Kremen J. Hoke, of the College of William and Mary.

CO-EDS TO DEBATE RICH. WOMEN

Women to Meet Westhampton Debaters in Dual Meet Next Friday: American Intervention in Nicaragua the Question

William and Mary will meet Westhampton College in a dual debate on next Friday night, April 22. On that date, representatives from William and Mary will argue both here and in Richmond the proposition, "Resolved that the United States is Justified in Her Intervention in Nicaragua." The visiting team at each college will defend the negative.

Minnie Rob Phaup and Ruth Yeamans, both seniors, will go to Richmond where they will be opposed by Sarah Cohn and Catherine Branch, who won out in tryouts held for this debate. Miss Phaup has served on the Debate Council three years, having been its chairman last year. Miss Yeamans began work with the Council a year ago.

Helen Gasser and Frances Noblin were chosen to represent Westhampton here. The local team will be composed of Miriam Silberger and Catherine Topping. Miss Silberger is the present manager of the Debate Council. This is Miss Topping's first year on the team, but she shows a good deal of ability as a debater.

While it has been customary to engage in debate annually with Westhampton, this is the first time in two years that a question has been argued simultaneously at both colleges. The subject of the debate is one that is of wide interest at present.

DRAMATIC CLUB ENTERTAINS

The Dramatic Club of the College of William and Mary entertained at an informal dinner at the Tea Room at 6:15 last Tuesday evening, Mr. Nathaniel Reeid, who is here as a representative of the Drama League of Amere. Mr. Reeid is here partly in the interest of the Play Competition for the Comnock Cup to be held at Northwestern University later this year.

SOUTH CAROLINA HONORS DRIVER

University of South Carolina Dedicates $100,000 Field House to James G. Driver, Former William and Mary Man

James G. Driver, former student here and later Director of Athletics, has been singularly honored at the University of South Carolina where he now serves as sports mentor. At a meeting of the Block C Club of that institution, composed of all varsity letter men at the university, resolutions were passed commending the work of Director Driver and recommending to the Board of Trustees of the University that the new $100,000 Field House erected on the campus be officially designated as the Driver Field House.

This building, which was recently completed, is one of the finest of its type in the country and is unique in arrangement and equipment. Especially constructed to stage inter-collegiate and intra-mural athletics, the structure contains seating accommodations for four thousand spectators, a basketball court, spacious lockers and dressing-rooms, and all the facilities of an open-air stadium.

The resolutions of the Block C Club describe Director Driver as "a conspicuous advocate of clean sportsmanship wherever gentlemen meet in friendly competition, on the field or off." Higher tribute has been paid to very few men and the college is justly proud to claim him as an alumnus. The resolution reads as follows:

"It is unanimously resolved by the Block C Club of the University of South Carolina that, whereas James Glenn Driver, Director of Student Activities, has worked indefatigably for the promotion of athletics at the University, and has, with the unstinted cooperation of a highly capable coaching staff, established and maintained highly desirable athletic relations between the University and other institutions, and has brought University teams to a point of development commanding the wholesome respect of supporters of athletics at the University and competing teams alike, and whereas, in addition to promoting athletic conditions at the University in a general way, he has been largely instrumental in the erection of the recently completed Field House, the Block C Club would deem it especially appropriate that the Field House which, it is believed, will still further advance the athletic welfare of the institution, be known as the Driver Field House in honor of James Glenn Driver, Director of Student Activities at the University and a conspicuous advocate of clean sportsmanship wherever gentlemen meet in friendly competition, on the field and off."

Director Driver has had a most interesting career as athlete and athletic coach. He was born at Harrisonburg and in time entered school here. He had the extreme distinction of being a four-letter man and of being captain of four varsity teams at the same time. He was also a four-letter man at Virginia when he attended there later. For four years he was head coach here and resigned from this position to assume the duties of Director that he now performs.

According to reports Driver has firmly established himself in the hearts of the South Carolinians and enjoys the status of a regular member of the University faculty. He has been instrumental in the construction of a magnificent stadium with three playing fields, and has greatly enlarged the athletic facilities and equipment of the institution.

RUPERT HUGHES WELL RECEIVED

Well Known Author of Modern School Speaks Before Convocation Tuesday; His Humorous Style Wins Over Audience Easily

A short talk by Rupert Hughes, well known author of the modern school, featured the regular weekly convocation held in Phi Beta Kappa Hall last Tuesday morning. Mr. Hughes, who was visiting in Williamsburg was persuaded to come before the student body by President Chandler. He delivered a delightful discussion of the problems of the young author, telling how and how not to get works into print. His sense of humor quickly won over the audience and the time of his lecture seemed ever shorter than it actually was.

Announcement by President Chandler that William and Mary had been placed on the accredited list of colleges and universities by the A. A. U. W. was greeted with loud applause. The president also took the opportunity to answer a letter in The Flat Hat of last week questioning the comparative fees for athletics and the library. He urged that the paper be used for asking questions which he would try to answer in the convocations. This, he said, is for the best interests of the college.

Dr. Pollard entertained the students for a few minutes with his rendition of the old negro sermon on the parable, containing fourteen Biblical inaccuracies.

The next Convocation will be held Tuesday, April 19, at 12 o'clock.

JUPITER PLUVIUS BREAKS UP HIKE

Lucy Pilcher Leads Fair Hikers With Record of Eighty-One Miles to Her Credit; Rain Slows Up Progress

Frequent rains put the damper on fair young hikers for a while, but with the dawn of real spring days, several were found out making up for lost time. Hiking season will soon be at an end, and both clubs and individual members are working for highest honors. Miss Lucy Pilcher with 81 miles to her credit seems to be leading the list at present.

The following hiking regulations govern the clubs:

Scoring:

5 points for the club with largest total number by April 4, 1927.

25 points for the club with largest per cent making 150 miles.

10 points for the club with largest per cent making 215 miles.

10 points for the club with largest per cent making 275 miles.

50 points for the club with largest total number of miles estimated on the per cent membership.

Requirements:

I. Observation of college hiking rules is required.

II. No hiking after 6:45 unless with permission for supper out.

III. Records must be reported to the captains by 1 p. m. on Saturday, or they will not be counted.

IV. Captains must give their reports to hiking leader, Loundes Scott, by 2 p. m. on Saturday.

The Senior-Sophs proved themselves champions of the ball and bat, when they defeated the Junior-freshmen Friday with a score of 28-14, and Monday with a score of 28-9. Perhaps the reason for such a great success is their motto, "We want twenty-eight."

ROUGH-ASHLER CHARTERED BY MASONIC FRAT

Square and Compass National Inter-collegiate Masonic Fraternity Grants Charter to Petitioning Group at William and Mary

INSTALLATION IN MAY

Local Founded in 1921 as Association on Master Masons; Has Had Steady Growth Toward Large Membership; National Has Fifty Squares

The Rough-Ashler Club, composed of Master Masons in college, has just received information that its petition to the National Inter-collegiate Fraternity of Master Masons, Square and Compass, has been accepted. It is expected that the new William and Mary Square will be installed sometime in the latter part of this month, or the first of May.

The Rough-Ashler Club of William and Mary was organized in 1921, with Dr. W. T. Hodges as its first president. The purpose of the club was to bring together Masons in the college, and to create a better relationship between such Master Masons as might be on the campus, as students or faculty members. A feature of the club was an annual banquet each spring. The Rough-Ashler Club since its organization has enjoyed steady growth, and has been at all times an active body.

Square and Compass was organized in 1917 at Washington and Lee University, being the outgrowth of a club similar to the local Masonic Club. However, it was early realized that a similar need for such an organization was felt at other schools and universities, and thus the club soon began to expand. It was the recipient of many petitions from schools throughout the country, and from these petitions, a number of chapters have been carefully selected. At the present time, the fraternity includes over fifty chapters in all parts of the United States. Although it is purely a social fraternity for members of the Masonic order, it does not exclude members of Greek Letter social fraternities. Members of the faculty, and officers of the college are active members on the same basis as students. Each of the local chapters of the fraternity are called Squares. The present National Secretary of Square and Compass is Dr. William H. Brown, formerly Professor of psychology at Washington and Lee University.

The members of the Rough-Ashler Club who will be installed into the new national are, Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, Dr. W. T. Hodges, Mr. P. P. Peebles, Mr. P. B. Coffman, Mr. A. E. Nilsson, Mr. W. F. Gibbs, Mr. W. P. Cooke, W. H. Hickson, H. O. Cole, H. P. Hicks, G. E. Hunt, H. B. Frazier, L. M. Ober, H. S. Jones, and G. T. Morecock. Honorary members will be Mr. T. F. Rogers, Mr. B. E. Creasey, Mr. E. T. Davis, and Mr. B. F. Wolfe.

Chapters in this district are, Washington and Lee University, Medical College of Virginia, Emory University, Columbia University, Rensselaer, and several other large eastern universities.

baseman, Sallie Cogle, who drove out several singles and a home run, in both affairs, the odd number classes hopped on the offerings of several opposing pitchers for an amazing total of runs.

Pitchers Pat Riley and Bups Tanner were in great form on Monday keeping the opponents hits well scattered. Errors, however, helped to swell the total number of runs.

A GLIMPSE INTO the COLLEGE WORLD

Here and There among the Exchanges of the Flat Hat

Oberlin College is scouring the country to fill the vacancy left when Dr. Henry Churchill King ends his term in June after twenty-five years at the head of the institution. Among those mentioned as possible successors to Dr. King is Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war in the Wilson cabinet.

Prisoners at the New Haven county jail have demanded that compulsory chapel attendance be abolished, basing their appeal on the fact that Yale University officials have recognized the unfairness and cruelty of forcing human beings to be present at religious services. Copies of the petition were shown by a prisoner whose term at the jail expired recently. It was drawn upon the same language and obtained the same arguments that the Yale undergraduates used in petitioning the faculty to abandon compulsory chapel attendance.

Publicity given the recent roller skating craze at the University of Illinois has led a Chicago woman to offer as a prize to the best woman skater at the University a pair of wooden roller skates, especially made to order forty-four years ago for herself as the winner in a roller skating prize contest held in the early eighties.

The skating fad has increased so rapidly in the last few days that sections of the city streets have been roped off for the skaters. An army of news reel photographers recently took pictures of several hundred skaters performing in one of the skating "reserves."

Officials of the university and city have been forced to ask the skaters to keep away from classrooms on week days and churches on Sundays because of the disturbances created.

A roller skating derby was held on Saturday April 9 in which there were four races for women and four for men with silver loving cups offered to winners of both second and first places in each race. As a final event in the derby there was an eight-block relay.

Harvard is still the country's richest college. This was revealed lately with the publication of the treasurer's report for 1925-26; showing assets exclusive of land and buildings of $86,540,000.

Of the twenty-two girls at Vassar College selected to carry the daisy chain at the annual commencement exercises this year, only five have bobbed hair. The carrying of the daisy chain is considered the highest honor that can come to a Vassar girl.

According to Dr. Max Westenhoefer, professor of pathological anatomy at Berlin University, "monkeys originated from human beings."

Signs of Spring

SPRING is here... Confound that chemistry! Must have been asleep. Eleven-thirty and nothing done. What a mess! Atomic weights—ionization—reversible reactions. [Eleven-fifty.] No headway. Better get up at 5:00 and do the blasted problems. Spring's in the air. Maybe it's that. Or a touch of nostalgia. [Vague memories, dreamily reminiscent of other spring times bring back thoughts of home.] Well, it won't be long now. Gee, it'll be great to see the folks again.

Sure it will. But why wait till school's over. You can TALK to them ANY TIME. You'll find there's nothing so cheering as a weekly telephone chat with Mother or Dad.

DRAMATIC CLUB SPONSORS THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS

The Ragged Man—William H. Morrow.

The Police Sergeant — Truman Welling.

The Other Policemen — F. James Barnes, Jr., Samuel G. Staples.

All of these men are old hands at the game, all of them having been in the Winter Play. Morrow has always been prominent in Campus dramatics. He played the lead in "The Goose Hangs High" last winter and in "Minus Mary" this Spring, acquitting himself in both most excellently. He has also played many other parts. Welling is only a Freshman, but he made his stage debut at the College with his very creditable performance of the title role in "The Goose Hangs High." Barnes and Staples also had parts in the Christmas Play.

The second play, "Joint Owners in Spain" by Alice Brown, is a remarkably humorous story of an Old Ladies Home. This play should furnish enough laughs to last the campus all through examinations. It is the narration of the squabbles between the inmates of the Home over their respective shares of their "castles in Spain." It is a play which has been produced with a great deal of success in numerous college communities in the past several years. The cast for this play will be as follows:

- Mrs. Fullerton, Polly Hines.
- Mrs. Mitchell, Polly Venable.
- Mrs. Blair, Margaret Bowen.
- Mrs. Dyer, Marguerite McDaniel.

Polly Venable has been on the stage here before, having played in "The Goose Hangs High." The other three, however, are appearing for the first time on the stage at the College of William and Mary, although Miss Bowen was understudy to the lead in "The Goose Hangs High."

The final play, a delightfully charming little fantasy by Oliphant Down, is "The Maker of Dreams." It is the story of lonely little Pierrette who cares so much for Pierrot who hardly notices her and the Dream-Maker who weaves the two of them into a beautiful dream and as usual "they lived happily ever after." The parts will be played as follows:

- Pierrot—Polly Venable.
- Pierrette—Lucille Parker.
- The Manufacturer—Polly Hines.

The tickets, which will be seventy-five and fifty cents, are now on sale by members of the Dramatic Club and will be sold at the door Tuesday evening. The tickets and programs are the work of Donald K. Van Wormer. The staging and lighting effects will be done by Upton B. Thomas Jr. and Robert L. Brewer.

FINAL DEBATE OF SEASON IS HERE TONIGHT

bate, in order that the debating season may be drawn to a fitting close. With one victory to their credit, the Indian team will extend every effort to collect the Wake Forest scalp, and from the record which the visiting team is making on the remainder of its Virginia trip, there is every indication that lively debate will be the result.

The judges of the debate have not yet been announced by the Debate Council. Dr. Joseph Eugene Rowe, of the Mathematics Department, will act as Chairman.
