College Regulations In 1700 Were Rigid

Edward Was Forbidden to Feed the Boys Scraps in "Ye Goode Olde Days Before Ye Revolution"; Students Were Not Allowed to Keep Race Horses in the College or Town.

Old journals of the faculty meetings at the college throw much light on the manner of living and the rules which governed the general procedure of the college in "ye olde days" of 1700. The matron of the college, according to records, was given the following instructions: "That you never concern yourself with any of the boys except when you have a complaint to make against them; that there be always both fresh and salt meat for dinner; that there be puddings and pies besides; and that the boys' supper be not, as usual, made up of different scraps.

"That a proper stocking mender be procured to live in or near the college, and as both masters and boys complain of losing their stockings, you are desired to look over their notes.

"That the negroes be trusted with no keys; that fresh butter be looked out for in time; that the boys may not be forced to eat salt in summer."

In another meeting, it was ordered that no scholar belonging to any school in ye college, of what age, rank or quality soever, do keep any race horse at ye college or in ye town; that all ye race horses belonging to any of ye scholars be immediately dispatched."

Similar regulations were made against cock-fighting, betting, playing billiards and bringing cards or dice into the college. It was also ordered that the student be punished who presume to go out of bounds of ye college, particularly towards the mill pond."

Another quotation from the code of 1700 is this: "To ye end that no person may pretend ignorant of ye foregoing regulations, it is ordered that a clear copy of them be posted up in every school of ye college."

Opening Dances Were Brilliant Affairs

Scheme of Decorations Was Most Elaborate Ever Carried Out by Cotillion Club; Many Alumni Return for Two Days of Old Time College Entertainment.

The large crowd which attended the opening dances held in the Blow Memorial gymnasium was unanimously of the opinion that the dances were a great success. The music furnished by the Peck-Mills orchestra, of Cumberland, Maryland, was excellent and the feature numbers were highly entertaining. The forte of the musicians was the waltz music and the pleasure of these dances was heightened by artificial moonlight effect.

INDIANS MEET DUKE UNIVERSITY BLUE DEVILS TO-MORROW IN NORFOLK, VA. LEAGUE PARK

North Carolina Aggregation Does Not Appear As Strong As in Previous Years, But Is Not Lacking in Line of Experience.

The William and Mary Indians meet the Blue Devils from Duke University tomorrow in Norfolk for the fifth consecutive time during recent years. During this time the wearers of the Green, Gold and Silver have turned in as many victories, but, according to all reports from Durham, the Carolina team is out this year to avenge their previous defeats.

Up to the present time this year the Duke eleven has not shown any unusual strength, having lost to North Carolina State, 13-0, and to North Carolina, 41-0. The Blue Devils took their first game of the season by swamping Guilford, 36-0, but were barely able to nose out a 6-0 victory over Elon last Saturday. Statistics, however, have but little meaning in forecasting football games, and Coach Tasker's warriors will face an experienced aggregation tomorrow that should give them plenty of trouble. Coach Herron started the season with a large majority of the varsity back from last year, as well as a wealth of reserve material and, according to all reports, the past week has been one of intense preparation in the Trinity camp.

The two teams which face each other tomorrow will be practically the same that played in Norfolk a year ago when the Indians attained a 21-3 decision over the Duke eleven. The game with Randolph-Macon last Saturday gave Coach Tasker his first chance since the Lenoir game to try out his new men and new plays, and the past week has been one of finishing on the part of the varsity, and the three football mentors, in anticipation of tomorrow's clash. The coaches and followers of the William and Mary eleven expect that the outcome of tomorrow's encounter will lead to optimistic hopes for the rest of the current season.

The Duke eleven that will start against William and Mary tomorrow probably will average 165 pounds, and will, therefore, be only slightly outweighed in the line by the Indians. Caldwell, veteran Blue Devil fullback, and Captain Grigg, left tackle, have been playing stellar ball for Duke this year and will bear watching by the Indians in tomorrow's game.

It is understood that many of the leading organizations of Norfolk are

Dr. Lonn, of Goucher, Will Lecture Here

Professor of History at Goucher College Will Deliver Series of Five Lectures in November on International Relationships; Sponsored by A. A. U. W. and College.

According to a report issued by a local representative of the Association of American University Women, Dr. Ella Lonn, professor of history at Goucher College, Baltimore, Md., will deliver a series of five lectures at the college under the auspices of that organization beginning on November 16. The A. A. U. W. is co-operating with the college in order to secure the speaker. These lectures will be given in the chapel of the main building beginning every night at 7 o'clock, and will be delivered in the High school auditorium every evening at 4 o'clock for the benefit of the town people and those students who are unable to attend the lectures given at the college.

Dr. Lonn was an instructor in history during the William and Mary summer session of 1925, and is known by all who heard her to be a very interesting speaker. She spent considerable time traveling in Europe during the summer of 1924, at which time she made an extensive study of the prevailing conditions and confronting problems of the European countries. The lectures by Dr. Lonn will be conducted chiefly on the contemporary

College Represented At Yorktown Exercises

One Hundred and Forty-fourth Anniversary of Surrender of Lord Cornwallis Celebrated at Yorktown on Monday; Ground Broken for Manor and the Country Club.

Monday, October 20, marked the 144th anniversary of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to the combined American and French forces at Yorktown. A huge celebration took place in honor of the occasion on the ground where the battle of Yorktown was fought. Among the officials present were Governor Trinkle and his staff, the secretary of treasury of the Republic of Panama, representatives from many northern and eastern States, army officials, faculty members and student delegations from William and Mary and Hampden-Sydney.

Many interesting addresses were made, commemorating the famous victory and lauding the great commander-in-chief of the colonial army, George Washington. Ground was also broken for the erection of the Yorktown Manor and Country Club, which is to be a memorial building, in which valuable historical documents will be preserved for future generations.

Dr. Clarence J. Owens, of Washington, director-general of the Yorktown Forum, presided over the ceremonies, and in acknowledging the presence of the William and Mary

W. & M. Vanquishes Randolph-Macon 54-0

Indians Run Rough Shod Over Yellow Jackets at Mayo Island Park in Richmond Last Saturday; Tasker Uses Twenty-two Men During Course of Game.

Playing before a small, but enthusiastic crowd, William and Mary defeated the Randolph-Macon eleven, 54-0, at Mayo Island park at Richmond last Saturday. Although displaying ragged football, the game was marked by the stubborn defense offered by Randolph-Macon against almost overwhelming odds.

During the first quarter the Jacket aggregation made their best showing against William and Mary, holding the Indians twice for downs in the

Twenty-one Students Join Megaphone Club

First Initiation of the Year Held Last Friday Night; New Megaphones Have Been Painted in a Uniform Manner, Using the College Colors of Green, Gold and Silver.

Initiation of new members into the Megaphone Club was held last Friday night, at which time twenty-one students, who had shown themselves capable of fulfilling the requirements of the constitution, were made full fledged members of the club. A number of others, who had qualified, were unable to be present.

An informal smoker followed the initiation ceremonies. Cigars and cigarettes were distributed among the members and iced punch and cakes were served to all present. A newly painted megaphone was issued to each member before leaving. The value of the new megaphones and the spirit of the new members was given an excellent trial in the parade which followed the initiation.

Those who were initiated into the club were: A. H. Magnus, J. W. Jackson, W. B. Vaughn, J. New, Thomas Helm, J. N. Parremore, U. B. Thomas, Jr., R. A. Clem, B. C. Embrey, Van Wormer, C. H. Trotter, H. A. Buckner, Lane Simmons, H. C. Smith, R. B. Liverman, N. M. Caffee, L. Lawson, P. Topping, A. H. Hunt, S. H. Hopkins and L. B. Copenhagen.

All the megaphones to be used by the club this year have been painted green with a gold monogram on a silver background, and a very pleasing effect will be secured when fifty or sixty of these are carried by the club in parades and marches before and after games. The club is expecting to make its greatest showing of the year at the Richmond game on Thanksgiving Day.

Y. M. C. A. Outlining An Ambitious Program

Eight Week Course in Boy Work Development to Be Given By Maynard Cassady, Local Secretary; Dr. J. R. Geiger and Professor Tucker Jones, of the Physical Education Department.

Conducted for the first time under the direction of a general secretary, the local Y. M. C. A. has outlined a definite program for the year in an effort to extend the influence of the college organization into the rural districts of the Virginia peninsula. The primary object of the program, according to Mr. Cassady, who was recently appointed general secretary of the college "Y" is to get the people away from the idea that a Y. M. C. A. exists merely as a prayer meeting organization.

With the large room in the George Preston Blow Memorial gymnasium placed at the disposal of the students of the college, and with the largest membership in its history taking an active part in the year's work, the success of the program seems assured. One of the features of the work for the year is to inaugurate an eight weeks' course in boys' work, stressing a threefold goal development of the individual, the community and a general moral influence. The work will be under the direction of the local secretary, Dr. J. R. Geiger, and Professor Tucker Jones, of the physical education department.

Efforts are being made at present to arrange a series of lectures at the college under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. Although no definite program has been announced at this time, it is expected that such speakers as Dr. Douglas Freeman, of the Richmond News-Leader; Dr. Henry L. Smith, president of Washington and Lee University, and various student secretaries of the State, will take part in the lecture program.

College stunt nights and interfraternity and inter-dormitory games will be under the supervision of the Y. M. C. A. this year and every effort is being made to arouse the interest of the students in the workings of this organization at William and Mary.

Two Gifts Made to "Y" And New Science Hall

Miss Bertha Moll, of Richmond, Presents Piano to Y. M. C. A.; Jeremiah Milbank, of New York, and Director of Southern Railway, Gives Room in the Barton Rogers Science Hall.

Among the most noteworthy donations received by the college recently, is a piano for use in the "Y" room, presented by Miss Bertha Moll, of Richmond, Va., and a room in the William Barton Rogers Science Hall, contributed by Mr. Jeremiah Milbank, of New York City.

Mr. Milbank, who is one of the directors of the Southern Railway, visited the college last year, and while here was favorably impressed by the future prospects of William and Mary.

SCRIMMAGE LINES

William and Mary overwhelmingly defeated Randolph-Macon last Saturday, but that defeat was administered to a game team backed by a game student body. The cheering of the small but enthusiastic Randolph-Macon student body not only continued unabated throughout the game, but grew more intense the more hopeless the prospects of a victory became. We hope yet to see the day when that same spirit is evinced by the William and Mary student body whenever the Indians are fighting an uphill battle against odds.

* * * * *

Although Randolph-Macon was too weak to serve as a fair criterion of renewed Indian fighting strength, apparently the morale of the entire varsity has undergone considerable improvement. The work of Irwin, Charles, Meb Davis and Captain Elliott in last Saturday's game was especially commendable.

* * * * *

Although Duke University has shown little strength this year, it must be remembered that the Blue Devils usually display their best brand of football against the Indians. We sincerely hope that every member of the student body who is able to do so will make the trip to Norfolk tomorrow and actively aid Coach Tasker's warriors in carrying the Green, Gold and Silver to victory.

* * * * *

At the present writing prospects of a football game for 1926 between William and Mary and Furman University seem exceptionally good. If the present arrangements go through, the Purple Hurricane will be booked to battle the Indians in Richmond next year. Such an arrangement should prove an immense advantage to both schools in many ways, besides affording another gradiron class to followers of the sport in this section of the country. For good many years Furman has had consistently good teams, and with William and Mary in her present position in the football world, such a game should prove an interesting one from every angle. It is sincerely hoped that a successful understanding can be reached.

* * * * *

The results of last Saturday's game were on the whole extremely favorable to Indian prospects, the most cheering side of which was a 7-0 victory of Johns Hopkins over Richmond University. Albright gained a 58-0 victory over Gallaudet bettering the Indians' score of two years ago by thirteen points. Harvard lost to the strong Holy Cross eleven 7-6, while Bucknell was battling the Haskell Indians to a scoreless tie.

Fort Eustis Defeats Ducs For First Time

The Freshmen suffered their first defeat of the season last Friday at Fort Eustis, when the more experienced soldier team succeeded in gaining a 13-0 verdict over them. A heavier line and several fumbles by the Frosh proved big items in the victory, though spectators declared the teams pretty evenly matched. The score stood 6-0 until the last few minutes of play, when Fort Eustis intercepted a pass and ran for their second touchdown.

The Ducs were weak in offensive work and Coaches Nilsson and Keister are giving them special instructions during the week in that phase of the game.

Frosh Meet Newport News Independents

The regular game scheduled between the Freshmen and Benedictine has been cancelled and in its place the Frosh will meet the Independents of Newport News tomorrow. The latter team is composed of former college and Newport News High school stars, and has developed to such an extent under Coach Bradburn that they should prove themselves worthy as an opponent.

This week has been spent by Coaches Nilsson and Keister in straightening out the kinks brought to view in last Friday's defeat. A better balanced aggregation will represent the first-yearmen on the field tomorrow.

Cross-Country Team Enters Hard Training

Coach Chandler's Squad Goes on Pledge and Begins Serious Preparation for Meet With Randolph-Macon Here Next Saturday; Sixteen Men Out to Date.

Track Coaches Siersema and Chandler placed their cross-country men on pledge last Wednesday. With the opening cross-country meet less than two weeks off, the track mentors felt that the time had arrived to supercede preliminary work with more intensive training. As previously announced, the first track meet of the fall season will be held here on the thirty-first of October with Randolph-Macon College.

Manager Bruce Stuart announced that sixteen men had signed the pledge, definitely going into training, and that he expects the total to reach two dozen before the end of the week. Coaches Chandler and Siersema report that the track squad is making rapid progress and indications are that William and Mary will have an even more successful track aggregation this year than the champion team of last.

Tennis Team Planning Long Trip In Spring

Present Plans Include Week's Trip Through Maryland and District of Columbia, in Addition to Regular Matches Scheduled With Virginia Colleges; Four Letter Men Are Back.

William and Mary's tennis team will make a week's trip through Maryland and Washington, D. C., as well as the regular Virginia trips next spring, if present plans materialize, according to Marshall Travers, manager. This prospective trip, together with the regular matches which the Indian racqueteers schedule each year will make the 1926 season the best ever attempted.

Charles Pollard, who graduated last June, will be the only member of the old squad missing. Four letter men are back, including Lane Parrott, captain; John Marshall, Richard Howard, and Marshall Travers. The full team will be composed of either five or six men, the open positions to be filled by old men or freshmen, who will be chosen in the elimination matches to be held later in the year.

Gym Classes Organize Six Basketball Teams

The six classes of Physical Education, under the direction of Coaches Siersema and Chandler, have organized basketball teams to represent them in an inter-class tournament which begins this week, and considering the fact that they have some of the best from the high schools over the state, some spirited contests should result. This plan should prove of great help to Coach Tasker in picking freshmen material for his varsity squad, since he can size them up without taking time for his regular training season.

The teams have selected the following men as their captains: Sec. 1, Aranow; Sec. 2, Vaiden; Sec. 3, Snyder; Sec. 4, Hightower; Sec. 5, Cristo; Sec. 6, Blair.

We move that no more notices be tolerated on the bulletin boards except those written in the English language.

A Column Devoted Exclusively to William and Mary Alumni

J. MALCOLM BRIDGES,
Alumni Secretary

A survey of the records in the office of the registrar discloses that there are at present 29 students enrolled on the current session who are either sons or daughters of alumni of William and Mary College. Of this number, 15 are men and 14 are women. Texas is the most remote state represented in the list of students whose parents attended the college, while 24 of the number are registered from Virginia. The following sons and daughters of William and Mary alumni have enrolled for the session 1925-26:

Joseph James, son of L. W. James, '96, Dendron, Va.; Edwin Ramsey, son of Dr. E. B. Ramsey, '92, Isle of Wight; Frances Saunders, daughter of J. H. Saunders, '96, Newport News; Pauline Hines, daughter of A. P. Hines, '99, Washington, D. C.; L. B. Copenhaver, son of N. H. Copenhaver, '01, Bristol, Tenn.; Upton B. Thomas, Jr., son of Rev. Upton B. Thomas, '94, Troy, Ohio; Frank S. and Sewell H. Hopkins, sons of N. S. Hopkins, '99, Nuttall, Va.; W. J. Sturgis, Jr., son of Dr. W. J. Sturgis, '96, Franktown, Va.; Genevieve Whitman, daughter of J. A. Whitman, '91, Wytheville, Va.; Frances Hunt, daughter of H. A. Hunt, '01, Portsmouth; George F. Wilkins, Jr., son of George F. Wilkins, '94, Cowen, West Va.; Cynthia Coleman, daughter of George P. Coleman, '90, Williamsburg; Kathryn Brooks, daughter of Archie Brooks, '76, Williamsburg, Va.; George R. Mapp, Jr., son of George R. Mapp, '93, Machipongo; Mary Hunt, daughter of H. A. Hunt, '01, Portsmouth; Roy R. Powell, son of R. D. Powell, '93, White Plains, Va.; Nelson and Mason Peebles, sons of Peter Paul Peebles, '94; Williamsburg, Va.; Annetta and Hayden Gwaltney, daughters of W. A. Gwaltney, '96, Spring Grove, Va.; Dorothy Farrar, daughter of F. S. Farrar, '93, Burkeville, Va.; Virginia Shaven, daughter of E. Shaven, '99, Richmond, Va.; T. G. Burke, son of W. H. Burke, '00, Hampton, Va.; Elizabeth Duke, daughter of C. J. Duke, '90, Portsmouth, Va.; Stuart Jones, son of J. F. Jones, '03, Java, Va.; Lowndes Scott, daughter of B. S. Scott, '95, Swell, Va.; Virginia Hardy, daughter of Dr. John A. Hardy, '95; El Paso, Texas; Marrison Parrimore, son of George F. Parrimore, '80, Eastville, Va.

The news of the recent injury suffered by George Backerville Zehmer, '16, when struck by a passing automobile on the streets of Charlottesville last Saturday, came as a shock to the campus of William and Mary. Mr. Zehmer served as assistant director of extension at the University of North Carolina and as superintendent of schools in Dinwiddie county before accepting the work in extension at the University of Virginia this fall. While attending William and Mary, he served for four years as varsity catcher on the baseball team. He is a member of the Theta Delta and Phi Beta Kappa fraternities.

Miss Mary Ottley Parker, '25, was one of the alumnae who visited the college over the week-end to attend the opening dances. Miss Parker is now teaching in Norfolk at the Blair Junior High School where she has charge of the new department of hygiene instituted at that school for the first time at the beginning of the present year. She also teaches several courses in science. Miss Parker took her degree in physical education from William and Mary last June. While here she had the honor of being Queen of the first May pageant and was active in many branches of students activities.

Department of Physical Education One of Best

Personnel of Department Now Consists of Professor, Two Assistant Professors and Four Instructors; Boxing, Wrestling and Swimming to Be Given If Applications Numerous.

With the return of Professor L. Tucker Jones to the college, William and Mary has one of the largest well trained physical education faculties in the South. The staff at present consists of a professor, two assistant professors and four instructors. Such a personnel enables the college to carry on a great number of athletic activities, as well as thoroughly to prepare students to make physical education and coaching a profession. The department is eager to reach as many students as possible, and plans are constantly being formed with this in view, the latest being a proposal for a class in boxing, wrestling and fencing, if enough upperclassmen apply to warrant the formation of the class. No extra charge will be made except regular gymnasium and locker fees.

The work of the department is divided into five heads, as follows:

Division I.

Required physical education for freshmen constitutes this group. Individual remedial exercise is prescribed for those having physical defects and poor condition. This work has been in operation among the women for some time, but lack of facilities prevented its application to the men until this session. In addition to this exercise the director will make nutritional studies with the view toward the correction of cases of malnutrition.

Division II.

Intramural Athletics. It is planned to enlarge this phase of physical work in order to enable all non-varsity men and women to participate in some form of competitive sport. The activities under consideration are varied, all being designed especially for those who elect to take work in this division. Among the branches to be developed are volley ball, basketball, boxing, modified track, swimming, speedball, playground ball, fencing and horseshoe pitching. One of these sports, speedball, is comparatively new. It combines many of the features of both football and basketball.

Division III.

Plans have been formulated which provide a life-saving course for men, operated under the standards of the American Red Cross. The women have had this course for some time, but the men have not had the advantages of a swimming pool. With the completion of the Blow gym this obstacle is removed and the department

Recently, however, it has occurred to me that a series of international relationships might be more vital and, therefore, more acceptable."

The five topics on which Dr. Lonon will lecture are listed as follows: Czecho-Slovakia, Its Defense, Finance and Relations With Other European Countries; The Security Pact, Its Growth and Results in Stabilizing Europe; International Problems of France, Its Finance, Debts and Political Situations; The Riffian War in Morocco, A Sketch of the Background of the Riffs; French Desires in Africa, the Present War and Possible Consequences on the Entire Mohammedan World; and The Chinese Tangle, Including Its Problems, Imposition of Tariff Rates on Foreigners, and Internal Division Into North and South China.

A Glimpse Into the College World

Here and There Among the Exchanges of The Flat Hat

It is said that all college presidents have hobbies. Some choose golf as an avocation, some fishing. But Dr. Weaver, president of Chowan College, has been writing words to songs. Six of them have been set to music and are very popular at Chowan.

Out of a class of one hundred and sixty sophomores at Davidson, only seventy-five returned as juniors. This sounds as if they had broken all records when it came to a decrease in membership.

Roanoke College students voted to give one hundred dollars toward the forensic program this year. They are sponsoring a schedule with six colleges, William and Mary being among the number.

A new magazine has recently been introduced called, "Music and Youth." It is the first music magazine ever published for the young people of America. The aim is to increase the appreciation of music and to gain a greater recognition of its importance. The magazine contains a discussion of orchestras, modern musical instruments, methods of playing and other musical features.

The Dramatic Club at Chowan College, N. C., has a custom of having amateur night once every fall. On this occasion the students are urged to appear on the program in some sort of an original performance. In this way the new students are given an opportunity to reveal their talents.

It is reported that Einstein, of relativity fame, will join the faculty of the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena this autumn.

Johns Hopkins was a Baltimore merchant, bachelor and Quaker. He founded the university that bears his name because he believed only two institutions would endure—"a university, for there will always be youth to train; and a hospital, for there will always be suffering to relieve."

delegation, he spoke at length of the College of William and Mary, telling of its high ideals and the famous men who have left its halls to become such important factors in the establishing of American independence.

The college was represented by Dean Hoke, Drs. Morton, Pollard, Goodwin and Mr. Swem; Jisses Virginia Hardy, Louise Sale, Thomas Bland, Ladybird Hurt and Virginia Smith; and Messrs. Andre Goetz, George E. Gregory, Herbert Ganter, James D. Murphy, Maurice Pinel and James A. Bell. After the addresses, the professors and students were guests at a luncheon given for the visitors.

Literary Societies Change Meeting Night

Following the suggestions made recently by Dr. Chandler, both the men's and women's literary societies have changed their meeting night from Saturday to Friday, still maintaining the regular hour of seven o'clock. The change was made to facilitate the arrangement of a schedule of the other student activities, which are constantly in conflict with the four societies. The approach of the basketball season was the greatest reason for the change, the statement being made by athletic authorities that it is impossible to avoid the scheduling of conflicting games on Saturday nights.

There will be no debate at the Philomathean hall this Friday, but a series of short talks will be made on "The Movement for the Abolition of Inter-collegiate Athletics," by R. E. Brewer, A. Garrett, Cooper Ponton and E. M. Castle.

The Phoenix Society will have as the subject for its debate: "Resolved, That Evolution Should Be Taught in the Public Schools of Virginia." The affirmative side will be argued by W. A. Teagle and L. C. Hodges. Those defending the negative side will be H. A. Buckner and A. M. Keesee. All men are invited to attend and, if they wish, to join one of these societies.

Do You Know? "HOW TO STUDY"

The Students' Hand-Book of Practical Hints on the Technique of effective study
By WILLIAM ALLAN BROOKS

A GUIDE containing hundreds of practical hints and short cuts in the economy of learning, to assist students in securing MAXIMUM SCHOLASTIC RESULTS at a minimum of cost of time, energy, and fatigue.
ESPECIALLY RECOMMENDED for overworked students and athletes engaged in extra curriculum activities and for average and honor students who are working for high scholastic achievement.

Some of the Topics Covered

Scientific Shortcuts in Effective Study.
Preparing for Examinations.
Brain and Digestion in Relation to Study.
How to Take Lecture and Reading Notes.
Advantages and Disadvantages of Cramming.
The Athlete and His Studies.

Diet During Athletic Training.
How to Study Modern Languages.
How to Study Science, Literature, etc.
Why Go to College?
After College, What?
Developing Concentration and Efficiency.
etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.

Why You Need This Guide

"It is safe to say that failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the whole educational machine. Prof. G. M. Whipple, U. of Michigan.

"The successful men in college do not seem to be very happy. Most of them, especially the athletes, are overworked." Prof. H. S. Canby, Yale.

"Misdirected labor, though honest and well intentioned, may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study. Without knowledge of this his labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swain, M. I. T.

"To students who have never learnt "How to Study," work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Inglis, Harvard.

"HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all misdirected effort.

Get a good start and make this year a highly successful one by sending for this hand-book and guide NOW.

Literary Magazine To Offer Usual Awards

James Barron Hope Scholarship Is Offered for Best Poem Published; Two Fifty Dollar Prizes for the Best Short Story and for the Second Best Poem.

In order to stimulate greater interest in writing for the Literary Magazine, the staff will offer this year its customary prizes. For the best prose essay appearing in the magazine during the year, there will be an award of fifty dollars; for the best short story, fifty dollars, and for the best poem, not considering the one for which the James Barron Hope Scholarship is awarded, fifty dollars likewise. The James Barron Hope Scholarship is awarded for the best poem published in the magazine, and exempts the holder from the payment of college fees, except matriculation, student activities, athletic fees and tuition. It is offered each year by the Hon. Robert M. Hughes, of Norfolk, a distinguished alumnus of the college. All students are eligible to compete for these prizes. The editors of the Literary Magazine are anxious to arouse as much interest in them as possible. Winners of last year's prizes will be announced at an early date.

The first issue of the magazine goes to press this week and will appear early in November.

French Students Now Have Two D. H. Tables

There are now two tables in the dining hall for all French students who are interested in learning to carry on every-day conversation and acquiring a good table vocabulary. Under the direction of Monsieur Maurice Pinel and his assistant, Mr. "Pat" Murphy, much interest has been created. Monsieur Pinel and Mr. Murphy alternate from table to table, and in this way all have the benefit of Monsieur Pinel's criticisms and experiences.

Since the beginning of this plan the Spanish students have become interested and will start tables of their own, to be run in the same manner. Senor Jayahana and Mr. Adam will direct these students.

The organization of these groups is a result of the general plan of the Department of Modern Languages to give students in this work as much practical experience as possible. Mr. Williams, head of the department, and his assistants are considering every method available to accomplish this end.

W. & M. VANQUISHES RANDALPH-MACON 54-0

shadow of the Randolph-Macon goal. In this period the Jackets made their only down of the game, which came as the result of a pass for 20 yards well up in their own territory, and from that time on it was only a question of time as to what the final score would be.

Coach Tasker used altogether 22 men in the game, and after the variety had worn down the Jackets in the first quarter, none of these men encountered any great resistance. By the end of the first half the game had degenerated into a dogged attempt of the Ashlanders to keep down the score against a team that was running wild. Probably the outstanding features of the day for William and Mary were long runs by Irwin and Charles and the defensive work of the Indian line.

Irwin, assisted by the excellent hole making of the line, stood out during the entire game as the most consistent ground gainer for the Indians, while Fraeley and Anthony showed up best for Randolph-Macon. After using practically all of his first and second string men, Coach Tasker sent in his third string team in the closing minutes of play. The game ended with the ball in their possession on the Jackets' 2-yard line.

The line-up and summary:

W. & M.	Po.	R.-M.
Davis	LE	Matthews
Elliott	LT	Anthony
Parson	LG	Andrews
C. Anderson	C	Kent
Eason	RG	Butterworth
Fletcher	RT	Brown
Todd	RE	Dory
Goetz	QB	Arnold
Charles	RH	Weaver
Walleck	LH	Lewis
J. Anderson	FB	Fraley

Score by periods:

W. & M.	7	21	13	13	—54
R. - M.	0	0	0	0	—0

Touchdowns — Charles (3), Irwin (2), Todd, Davis. Points after touchdown—Matsu, 6 (dropkick). Substitutes—Randolph-Macon: Durrett for Weafer, Hill for Kent, Whitehurst for Butterworth, Regan for Matthews, Goode for Hill, Rudd for Brown, Finch for Fraley, Kent for Goode, Robinson for Finch. William and Mary: Irwin for Walleck, W. Elliott for Todd, Matsu for Goetz, Fletcher for Weber, Cain for J. Anderson, Weber for Fletcher, Drewry for Davis, Walker for Parsons, Groves for Elliott, Goetz for Matsu, Walbert for Charles, Parsons for Walker, Huguely for Anderson, Walleck for Irwin, Barnes for Huguely. planning to make the game tomorrow a gala event, and the attendance promises to be one of the largest that ever attended a football game in that city. Many alumni of both institutions live in Norfolk and the surrounding community, and their interested presence at the game seems assured. It is hoped that arrangements can be made for a special train from Williamsburg. If this is supplied the entire student body from William and Mary is expected to attend, while the Blue Devils will undoubtedly bring a large following with them from Durham.

Class In Mechanics Offered by Math. Dept.

Department of Mathematics at William and Mary Is Growing Stronger Each Year As It Expands and Offers New and Varied Courses Instruction.

As part of a constant effort on the part of the department head to raise the standards of mathematics at William and Mary, a class is now in progress in mechanics. This is the first time that such a course has been offered, and Dr. Rowe, who teaches the group enrolled, in commenting on the comparatively small number, stated that it would not be advisable to offer a course for the benefit of a few if it were not for the fact that this will assist in establishing the class as a permanent part of the work of the department.

Only a few years ago, mathematics work at William and Mary was not considered good. Since the present faculty took over the work great advances have been made in raising the standards. At present graduates of the college who have taken their degree in mathematics are able to compete with graduates of other colleges for positions requiring mathematical training.

hopes to develop a good course in practical life-saving.

Division IV.

The work of this group is professional in nature and is designed to enable those who wish to become directors or coaches to take work which will fit them for their careers in high school or other educational fields.

Division V.

This division is closely allied to Division IV and consists of practice and extension work in the public schools of Williamsburg and Norfolk and Newport News.

Professor Jones is in charge of all the work of the department, both for men and women. He also teaches the professional courses as well as those designed to meet the requirements of the West law. Mr. Reynold C. Siersema, assistant professor, has charge of the individual gymnastics work among the men. In addition, he will manage the intramural sports and direct the Norfolk extension division. Assistant Professor Martha Barksdale has charge of the required courses for women and is coach of women's athletics. J. C. Chandler will coach the men's track team, instruct the courses in men's required work, and teach life-saving. Miss Marguerite Roberts has charge of intramural sports for women, instructs the classes in dancing, and will take over the work in practice teaching. Miss Anna Wilkins is swimming instructress for girls, and Miss Louise Love is to instruct the classes in individual gymnastics for women.
