M-W Symposium Concludes Program On African Theme

The final lecture of the Marshall-Wythe Symposium, entitled "Pan-Africanism: Its Political, Economic and Cultural Basis," was given today at 4 p.m. in Washington Hall by Dr. Alphonso A. Castagno, Professor of African Political Development at Hunter College, New York City.

Dr. Castagno is experienced in African affairs, having traveled in 1947-48 under the Ford Foundation in Ethiopia, the Republic of Somalia, Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika and the Republic of Sudan. He also holds membership in the Middle East Institute and is a Fellow of the African Studies Association.

A member of the National Selections Committee of the Teachers for East Africa project, Dr. Castagno has also directed a special project on Africa for the Council on Foreign Relations. He has written a booklet entitled "Somalia," concerning the political and educational development in Africa, which was published by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Dr. Castagno attended the Center of Colonial Studies at the University of Florence, Italy as a Fulbright Scholar, and later studied African affairs and administration at the University of London. He received his master's and doctor's degrees from Columbia University.

This was the conclusion of the annual Marshall-Wythe Symposium, which this year used Challenge and Opportunity in Africa as its main theme. Dr. Wayne Kernodle has been director.

W&M Choir, Chorus Will Present Concert Featuring Selections from 'The Music Man'

The William and Mary Choir and Chorus will present their annual spring concert tonight and tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Auditorium. The music of Handel and selections from The Music Man will be featured.

The fifty-eight member choir under the direction of Dr. Carl Fehr will sing a total of twelve selections for the program. Sue Sager will accompany the group.

Also participating in the concert will be the William and Mary Chorus, which will sing five selections including "Dusk in the Tropics," "Tell Me, Oh Blue, Blue Sky," "God's Bottles from Americana," and "Andalucia." The accompanist for the Chorus is Liz Hamilton.

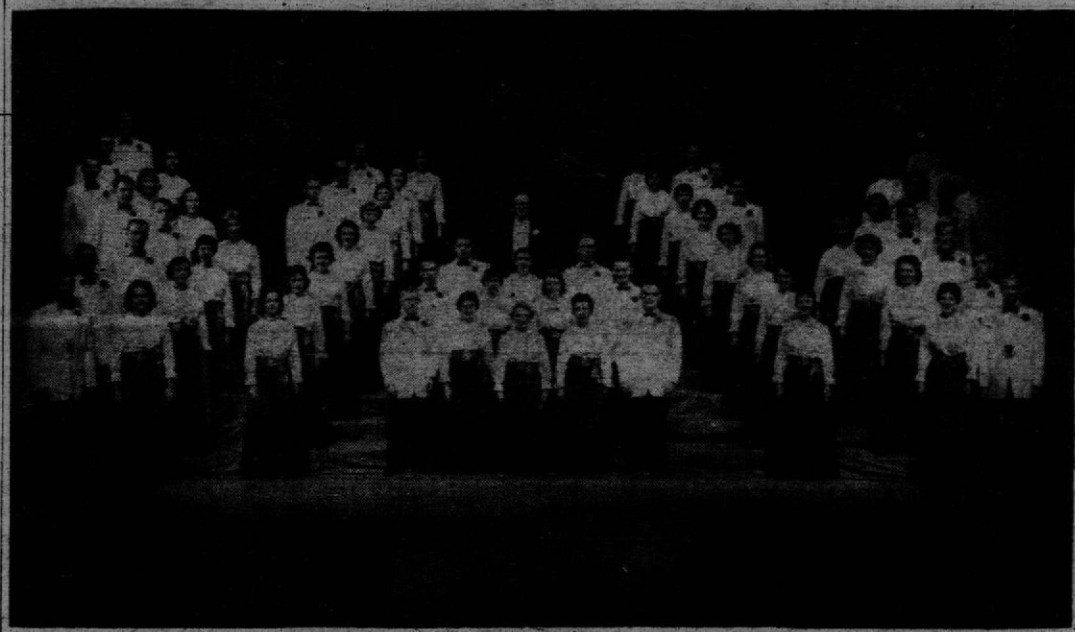

"The Dettingen Te Deum" by Handel has been shortened especially for concert use. It was composed in 1724, two years after The Messiah was written and is a hymn of praise commemorating the Battle of Dettingen in the War of Austrian Succession.

Other selections by the Choir will be "Holy Radiant Light," "Misericordias Domini for Double Choir," "Kyrie from Mass VII," "Brazilian Psalm" and music by Bach, Mozart, and Thompson. In addition they will sing "How Sweet the Moonlight Sleeps," "Every Night When the Sun Goes In," "Bim-Bam" and "Prelude" by Shuman.

Admission for the concert will be $1.00 and tickets may be purchased from members of the Choir and Chorus. The public is invited.

Choir officers for this year are David Brittain, president; Susan Hadden, Secretary - Treasurer; Nancy Cobb, historian; Donald DuVall, stage manager; John Humphries and William Overacre, assistant stage managers. John Evans and Jerry Davis will be in charge of the lighting for the concert. Albert Haak will be technical director.

The Choir and Chorus will also participate with the William and Mary band in concerts Wednesday nights, May 10, 17, and 24, at 7 p.m. in the Wren Courtyard. The concerts are part of the activities planned for National Music Week lasting from May 7 through May 14. The band will play on the first night, with the Choir and Chorus participating on Thursday and Friday evenings.

Members of the William and Mary choir in preparation for their annual Spring Concert to be given tonight and tomorrow in Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Auditorium at 8 p. m. The women's chorus will also be featured in the event. Campus favorite "Pappy" Fehr will be directing his vocal groups.

Sig Ep to Receive Charter

Sigma Phi Epsilon will officially become a national chapter on the William and Mary campus during installation ceremonies Saturday afternoon.

Founded here in 1953, Sigma Phi Epsilon had 15 charter members. In that year the fraternity became a colony of the national organization.

The Virginia Delta chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon will be reinstated as a national chapter tomorrow on this campus by officers of the national Sigma Phi Epsilon organization. This is a rare privilege for the group, which will have alumni, parents and friends at the installation ceremonies Saturday afternoon beginning at 2 in the Sig Ep Lodge.

At the banquet will be Sigma Phi Epsilon's national president, C. Mayher Turner. After the charter presentation, there will be talks by the honored guests, Dean J. Wilfred Lambert, Dean Carson Barnes, himself an SPE, and the President of the College, Dr. Davis Paschall. John Zolinger, winner of the 1960 Omicron Delta Kappa Alumni Award and Jim Odell, first president of the Pegis Club at the College.

Sigma Phi Epsilon has built up an impressive record of activities and honors on the William and Mary campus in their two year residence. They have had four members in Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary leadership fraternity, one member in Phi Beta Kappa, Roger Earls, who is also a 1960 Merit Scholar and two Flat Hat editors.

In the field of Student Government, SPE has one of its members, Tom Johnson, as President for the 1961-62 session. There have been seven members of SPE to serve on the Men's Honor Council; Fred Denny was last year's chairman.

Scholastically, SPE has ranked second and third among campus fraternities since its formation in 1953. This year it enjoys the number two spot among the Greeks.

This year's officers are President Buddy Rogers, vice president Hank Benson, recording secretary Terry Lady, historian, Steve Lopez and comptroller Wedell Schmidt.

Sig Ep had a chapter at William and Mary before World War II, but the organization went inactive in the late 1940's.

Junior, Senior Officers Chosen

Jim Thomas Will Preside Over Men's Honor Council

Jim Thomas, a junior from Alexandria, has been elected Chairman of the Men's Honor Council for the coming school year. Other senior officers for 1961-62 include Lynn Shaw, vice chairman; and Spud Tatem. Junior members are Tom Bosserman, secretary; Dean Flippo and Karl Zavitkovsky. Jess Bryant and Roger Hardy are sophomore members for next year's honor council.

Thomas is a transfer student from V.P.I. college in Norfolk. He was a nuclear physics major there and participated in the co-operative program. While in Norfolk, he was a member of the executive council of student government and was president of the inter-club council. He was a charter member of the Circle K club as well as being president of the Baptist Student Union.

In addition to studying in Norfolk, Thomas completed a year of research work at the Oakridge National Laboratories in Oakridge, Tennessee. He also traveled to Europe for one month last spring for a Bible fellowship conference. He is a member of the American Youth Foundation, the purpose of which is to develop Christian leadership.

Thomas is presently a philosophy major at William and Mary and is a member of the Philosophy Club. He is program chairman of the local Baptist Student Union and is president of the Baptist Student Convention of Virginia.

After his graduation from William and Mary, Thomas is planning to go into college chaplaincy and teaching.

Republican Club Considers New Officer Candidates

The nominating committee of the William and Mary Young Republican Club met in the theater of the Student Center to consider candidates for the officers or next year's club on Thursday, April 27.

The committee, chaired by Anthony Gallo, interviewed all candidates who expressed interest in any of the club's offices and who were able to appear before them before nominating two people for each of the club's six offices.

Nominated for president were Donald Goodrich and Edward Powers, both rising seniors. Vice presidential candidates are Nate Howard and Bob Spinelli, while Steve Hash and Bob Bolander were selected by the committee for the treasurer's office. Nominees for other offices include for corresponding secretary: Bruce Graham and Emily Renzel; recording secretary pits Dottie Shaw against Betty Slemp, and Mary Bradbury will oppose Nancy Hahn in a contest deciding next year's historian.

Retiring Young Republican President Charles E. Wright announced last weekend that elections would be held at the next Young Republican meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday, May 10 at Campus Center meeting rooms A and B.

WSCGA Proposes Changes in Lates Bermuda Statutes

The annual discussion concerning changes in the constitution and some social rules of the Women's Student Cooperative Government Association will be held Monday, May 8, at 6:30 p.m. in Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall.

The suggestions for changes have been made by women students, the committee investigating re-organization of WSCGA officers; the list of changes suggested will be given to all women students before the Monday night meeting.

One of the proposed constitutional changes is the addition of a section explaining the Honor Council is responsible only to the Honor System and exists as a WSCGA council because it deals with the women students.

Another change deals with the system of elections. All nominations will be made in the individual dorms. Each member of the Association will nominate two students and the four having the highest number of votes will be voted upon for the respective office. The Senior Nomination Committee will be replaced by a Senior Elections Committee.

It is also proposed that the WSCGA test apply only to freshmen, transfers, sponsors, and all WSCGA officers.

The following items are among the proposed social rule changes. First, all sophomores, junior and senior women will have social hours Sunday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Saturday social hours are unchanged.

Concerning bermudas, they may be worn when bicycling anywhere except in the business district of Williamsburg, and on picnics, beach parties or the like.

Because of limited space, not all proposed changes are listed.

Stewart's Folly

by Bob Stewart

WHEN WILLIAM HENRY SEWARD PURCHASED ALASKA IN 1867, people laughed and pointed crooked fingers at him. "It will never be worth anything," so they claimed. It took history to prove them wrong. Now I continue for another year to analyze the entertainment possibilities in Williamsburg and many times these criticisms fall by the wayside, among rocky ground and fall to bring forth fruit. For this reason, I am calling the column "Stewart's Folly" with the sincere hope that history may prove my critics wrong.

IF YOU HAVE DONE A DRAWING, A PAINTING OR A SKETCH, then you are invited to participate in the Student-Faculty Art Show in the main lounge of the Campus Center. The show commences May 8 and is under the direction of Babs Beaumont and the art and poster committee. You may call the main desk, leave your name and a member of the committee will pick up your contribution.

EVERY FRIDAY EVENING, Howard Scammon directs the 18th century comedy She Stoops to Conquer with such W&M notables in the cast as: Marcia Hoffman, Marvin Bowman, Edna Gregory, Jeanne Raab, Doug Goheen, Eric Howell, Johnny Reece and Terry Browne. Tickets are on sale at the Information Center ($1.50 adults, 70c students).

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW, the William and Mary Choir will present their final concert of this season. Selections include: Deffingen Te Deum, Misericordias Domini, Come Soothing Death, Holy Radiant Light, Brazilian Psalm, How Sweet the Moonlight Sleeps and selections from Music Man. Tickets are priced at $1 for these two performances which begin at 8 p.m. The annual outdoor concerts of the W&M Band begins Wednesday, May 10. This week the girl's chorus will join the band on the porch of the Wren Building at 7 p.m.

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT FLICK FOR THIS SUNDAY IS ALL THE KING'S MEN, a picture about the famous Huey Long, American politics, and the rise and fall of the Louisiana "farm-boy" dictator. Technically, it has been said that it tops Gone With The Wind.

THE BACKDROP CLUB PRESENTS ITS ANNUAL PROGRAM May 11, 12 and 13. The program will be Finian's Rainbow, with Howard Hill in the director's seat. Cast includes: Dede Savelson, James Perry, Marcia Hoffman, Tom Murphy, Marvin Bowman, Tinky Williams and Pete Kimelski. If this turns out to be anything like last year's Guys and Dolls, then it should be a big hit.

AT THE WILLIAMSBURG THEATRE THIS WEEK IS The Sins of Rachel Cade, starring Angie Dickinson, Peter Finch and Roger Moore. The story of the female Elmer Gantry in the Congo, Angie Dickinson portrays a convincing missionary faced with love in the jungle. Starting Wednesday and running for the entire week is the re-release of GONE WITH THE WIND (Let the bold type letters speak for themselves). Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh and Leslie Howard are still in these universal roles. There will be two performances daily at 2 and 7 p.m. And that's life among the savages.

'Echo' to Retake Pix; Book Due Soon

The 1961 Colonial Echo will probably be available before the end of the school year, according to Echo Editor-in-chief Margie Barnhart.

Margie said that several group pictures must be retaken, because some photographer, not a student, who was hired to help develop and print film, ruined several negatives.

The missing pictures will be taken this weekend by Echo Photography Editor Steve Cooper. He and Margie both asked that all groups involved cooperate as much as possible to ensure the soonest possible publication of the Echo.

Business manager Owen Knopping issued a reminder that all yearbook fees should be paid during the next week. He has set up special office hours during which he will be available, and stated that he will also make special appointments for any students who wish.

Senior Bennie Clemmer Receives Three-Year National Defense Grant

Bennie Clemmer

Bennie Allen Clemmer, a senior at the College, has been awarded a National Defense Fellowship in Genetic Statistics. The fellowship will enable Clemmer, a mathematics major, to begin graduate studies at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, working toward a doctor's degree.

Clemmer, a Phi Beta Kappa who is also a member of the Math club and Westminster Fellowship, will receive $2,000 for first-year expenses, $2,200 for the second year, and $2,400 for the third year. He has held two Merit Scholarships at William and Mary.

Future Plans

Clemmer has not decided between teaching, government work or industrial employment for a career after his graduate work. His plans for the summer include employment as a counselor at Massanetta Springs Presbyterian Church Camp.

Under the National Defense Fellowship Program, the government awards grants for fellowships in specified fields to various American colleges and universities. The institution receiving the grant selects the fellowship recipient, and final confirmation of an award is made in Washington.

Attention Seniors

Order blanks for graduation invitations are at the main desk of the Student Center.

To allow time for delivery and for mailing, the deadline is Friday, May 12. They may also be picked up at the College telephone desk.

Talented Modern Dancer

Committee Names Betty Ann Lewis Winner in Miss Williamsburg Contest

by Viki Williams

A William and Mary senior from Richmond, Betty Ann Lewis, is the new Miss Williamsburg. She was picked the winner from eleven contestants on the basis of talent, personality and beauty by a committee of five judges Friday, April 28, at James Blair High School Auditorium.

There were five finalists in the contest, all from the College. Connie Cone, a sophomore from Springfield who did a pantomime on a popular song, and Ann Haynes, junior from Norfolk who did a modern dance, placed second and third respectively. The other two finalists were Elizabeth Hamilton, a freshman, and Mary Ann Jones, also a freshman.

Betty Ann Lewis

The new Miss Williamsburg, whose talent was modern dancing, was crowned by last year's winner, Betty Risser, a sophomore. She received as prizes a $250 scholarship, $100 wardrobe, dinner for two, a bouquet of roses and several other prizes. Miss Lewis will represent Williamsburg in the Miss Virginia pageant and may go on to the Miss America contest as did Sue Ann Williams, the 1959 winner.

The contest was sponsored by the Williamsburg Jaycees. The girls participating were judged on a point system similar to that of the Miss America contest which gives emphasis equally to talent, personality and beauty.

Personality and poise were judged by the committee at a banquet for the contestants before the public contest. The program for the remainder of the evening consisted of evening gowns, talent and the traditional bathing suit judging. Entertainment was provided before the final judging and crowning of Miss Lewis.

The other six contestants were Susie Plummer, Nancy Carol Birch, Brenda J. Clewis, Rosalee Johnson, Fran McCampbell and Patricia Riley.

P. O. Construction Will Begin Soon

Colonial Williamsburg is planning to build a new post office on the corner of North Henry and Francis Streets where the old firehouse is now located.

The new building is to be constructed and owned by Colonial Williamsburg; however, as in the present building, it will be leased to the post office department for a period of ten years. During this period, the post office has the option to release the building.

It is expected that the new structure will retain the eighteenth century style of architecture that is characteristic of the city according to CW officials.

Mr. Foster, postmaster of Williamsburg, has been informed by Colonial Williamsburg that the ground breaking will take place sometime during this month.

One major convenience for college students will be the considerable increase in private post office boxes. The present building houses only nineteen hundred boxes; the new building will hold many more.

Pi Delta Epsilon Taps New Members, Honors Inductees at Publication Dinner

Pi Delta Epsilon, the national honorary journalism society, recently tapped twelve new members who were introduced at the Publications-Pi Delta Epsilon Banquet.

The new initiates are representatives of the Colonial Echo, Flat Hat, Seminar and the Alumni Gazette. Mr. James Kelly, Alumni Secretary of the College and a William and Mary graduate, was tapped for his work on the Alumni Gazette.

Mary Ellen Lytton, Colonial Echo editor-in-chief, and her associate editor, JoAnn Dotson, were both tapped. JoAnn is a Flat Hat columnist from Richmond. Mary Ellen, from Staunton, has been on the yearbook staff for three years.

Jerry Van Voorhis, Flat Hat editor-in-chief, and a '60-'61 Men's Honor Council member, was tapped as was the outgoing feature editor of the Flat Hat, Connie Catterton. Van Voorhis is a sophomore from Greenwich, Conn.; Connie is a junior from Falls Church.

Seminar editor Dennis Thompson from Hamilton, Ohio, is another new member. Thompson is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary fraternity, and of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity.

Beth Poole, from Salem, was selected for her work on the Colonial Echo and at WCWM, the college radio station. Other WCWM representatives are Bill Young, from Lynchburg and Jenny Yoder from Wooster, Ohio.

Other Members

The other two members are Owen Knopping, business manager of the Colonial Echo from Mount Vernon, New York and T. Scott Glenn, of the 'Seminar' from Bryn Athyn, Pa.

Each member elected must maintain a 1.4 quality point average, uphold college journalistic ethics and contribute outstanding work to a college publication.

The Change in Command

Once again the time has come for a new group of editors to assume control of The Flat Hat. These new editors, in taking command of their respective positions, have brought with them a fresh set of ideas concerning the way in which they would like to edit the paper. And so we are using this opportunity to evaluate before the student body some of the aims and purposes, policies and objectives of The Flat Hat next year, as well as the attitude and relationship we wish to have with the Campus Community at large.

As a college newspaper, The Flat Hat has four basic purposes, each of which is inherent in the nature of the paper. To inform the college and disseminate news of campus interest is our first and most important function. We shall at all times strive to present the news fairly and objectively and in as interesting a manner as possible. We shall continue to maintain our wide coverage of campus affairs and to extend this coverage proportionately as the campus itself expands. To all interested groups and organizations we make mention of our deadline on Wednesday evening at 6, in the hope that you will cooperate with us in this respect.

In addition to informing the campus, The Flat Hat serves as a living record of the history of the College. The many rich and colorful events that mark our college careers will be folded in the pages of our newspaper, and will survive at the College long after we have left and been forgotten.

Not only, though, is The Flat Hat a historical journal for the students of the College; but also it performs a third and most important service to all outsiders who come in contact with William and Mary. Indeed, to alumni, to parents, to advertisers, to subscribers, to incoming freshmen, to guest speakers and to other universities, The Flat Hat is the most important public relations media of this campus. Our campus newspaper, like any campus paper, provides these people who have no other relation to campus life with an over-all impression of William and Mary. We are extremely conscious of our responsibility in this regard, and will do all we possibly can to make The Flat Hat a real credit to the College.

Finally, The Flat Hat, through the use of editorials, must further the interests of its readers. We mention this purpose last because it is the most noticed by the reading audience; and for this reason we wish to elaborate on our editorial policy for next year, giving it careful attention.

In considering editorial policy, we must understand its meaning and implications. Among other things, editorial scope, editorial opinion, and editorial responsibility must be included in any intelligent discussion of editorial policy.

The Flat Hat, due to its existence as a college newspaper, does not have a publisher who imposes any definite school of thought and action. As a newspaper we are responsible to no single group, but rather to a number of interests. We owe consideration to the faculty, alumni, administration, and students in what we say, do, and print. While in a very legal sense the College is the publisher of The Flat Hat, we are not tied down or forced to restrict ourselves in any way. Thus it is that whatever appears in the paper is free from censorship and the Editor is responsible and liable for it. For this cherished privilege and responsible self-guardianship, we are entirely grateful. John Montgomery, Editor-in-Chief of The Flat Hat two years ago, remarked appropriately: "... when the Editor does not own the paper ... as the case here ... the question of obligations and responsibilities ascends to a higher plane and becomes necessarily a matter of agreement and compromise between the Editor and the publisher. In this respect, however, one thing should be made perfectly clear ... the word 'compromise' does in no way involve curtailment of freedom of the press."

We accept our editorial responsibility with this understanding and will use it accordingly, in order to make freedom of the press worthwhile. While we will not indiscriminately say whatever we please, we will feel free at all times to state with clarity, simplicity and conviction our beliefs on crucial matters of editorial importance. And matters of editorial importance, we feel, include any subject with which we are adequately acquainted. It is important to keep in mind that The Flat Hat is read widely by parents, faculty and alumni, as well as students. Nevertheless, the paper is directed primarily to the students and, therefore, our editorial policy will center on campus questions and issues. Although we will from time to time editorialize on issues of national and international affairs, we shall speak out firmly and boldly on many critical matters that affect all of us right here at William and Mary.

We do not intend that our editorials constantly mirror student or campus feeling. This is not their purpose. Rather do we believe that our editorial page should lead campus thought and opinion, and stimulate ideas for improving William and Mary and making this a better and better campus in which to live and learn. It should, likewise, inspire thoughtful discussion on the larger questions of national and international significance.

In order to stimulate ideas for editorial comment, the Editor will continue to make use of an editorial board. The function of this selected group is to serve in an advisory capacity to the Editor. The editorial board will be a sounding board, one that will suggest and discuss matters with the Editor. Many of our editorials will represent the views of the editorial board, and for this reason all editorials will go unsigned next year, with the exception of those that the Editor himself specially chooses to run. It should be made clear, however, that the decision on these editorials is up to the Editor himself, and that he, not the editorial board, is ultimately responsible for that which is said.

We shall strive diligently to make next year's editorial page one that will be positive in its approach to campus matters, one that will spark stimulating and healthy thought, and one that will generate spirit and enthusiasm on the part of students at the College. We will be critical where it will do good to be critical; and we will try to be fair and just in our criticism. We will suggest, we will propose, we will take positive and resolute stands, and we will not shrink abashingly from doing this; but we will do it in a spirit of understanding and cooperation.

That we may succeed in our editorial goals, the Editor, in addition to consulting the editorial board, hopes to have sufficient time to do some serious and original thinking with his senior and associate editors about some of the pressing situations that harass the campus at the present time. To be able to think, to contemplate, to ponder, and to judge, so that the fundamental problems affecting William and Mary may be faced squarely, intelligently and with mature judgement is perhaps our greatest and most promising challenge next year.

We must not stop here however. That some of our ideas and editorializing be put into actual operation, we have established an executive study commission, to be composed of leading students on campus. This group, under the direction of the Editor, will take to task many of the important campus problems that arise and make studies of them. It will also take some of our major editorial ideas and project them to the student body, to the end that these ideas may be achieved in practice. This, we believe, is one way to continue from the editorial itself and to effect ideas that will improve the campus.

We do not claim to have all the answers to campus needs; but we do believe the time has come to begin to look for some answers and The Flat Hat is willing to take some of the initiative through the establishment of this commission.

We say to all who read this editorial that we will at all times be open to any ideas, remarks, or criticisms any of you may have. In accordance with this, we encourage letters to the Editor in order to give students the opportunity to express their viewpoints concerning the newspaper. However, we must insist that a few understandable requirements be fulfilled. All letters to the Editor must be received no later than Wednesday noon preceding the publication date on Friday. Furthermore, all letters must be signed and deposited in the Editor's box in The Flat Hat office, unless they are mailed to our post office box, number 1445, or put in the Flat Hat box in Marshall-Wythe 112. Although a signature is required, we will withhold the individual's name should it be so desired.

Upon receiving letters submitted to The Flat Hat, the Editor reserves the right not to print the letter at all. He also has the right to withhold any part of that letter which is slanderous or which fails to contribute to the point in question, in which case he will contact the writer of the letter and explain the difficulty in printing it in toto.

And so from us to you, our readers, we pledge our service, our time, our effort and thought to The Flat Hat, in the hope that we may serve the College well next year and fulfill our role as a leading organ of campus communication.

Spaceman Returns Safely

After two postponements because of weather conditions, American John Sheppard from Virginia Beach, Virginia, was shot into space from Cape Canaveral, Florida, at 10:30 this morning.

The country was able to witness the preparations for the space venture, as well as Sheppard's return fourteen minutes and fifty-five seconds later off the coast of the Grand Bahama Islands, three hundred and five miles off the coast of Florida.

Sheppard's capsule rose to speeds which topped fifty-one hundred miles per hour. Shortly after his landing in the Bahamas, he was picked up by a carrier to be returned to Florida.

In addition to the outstanding scientific achievement such a flight indicates, we commend the fact that in our country the whole nation was able to share, along with the higher echelon members of the space project, the drama of this event, and success or failure was not announced subsequently through the all-too-frequent veil of diplomatic mystery and secrecy which exists throughout the world today.

'Flat Hat' States Changes in Format

In this issue of The Flat Hat, we have incorporated several changes in news stories and feature columns:

We have asked Bob Stewart to continue his entertainment column, which shall be entitled "Stewart's Folly." Bob will broaden the scope of his column to include leading television programs, exhibits in Colonial Williamsburg, plays, concerts and other college performances.

For a number of years, The Flat Hat has featured a column called "Coed of the Week." Beginning with the present issue and continuing throughout next year, we are initiating a column entitled "Student of the Week."

Also beginning with this week's paper, we are including in our bi-monthly Student Government story a brief, but special column written by the president of the student body.

The traditional "College Calendar," which appears each week in the paper, will remain under a new name: "This Week—On Campus."

We are privileged to announce that junior, Ed Powers, will become the Flat Hat columnist.

White Speaks on 'Middlebrow Music'

by Pete Crow

Speaking before the initiation meeting for three new members of Phi Beta Kappa Tuesday evening, May 2, Dr. John Reeves White, scholar of the University of Richmond and columnist for the Richmond Times Dispatch delivered a lecture entitled "The Music of Middlebrow Culture."

Dr. White while directing the University of Richmond music department has been the author of the Sunday Times-Dispatch feature "The Full Score" for the past seven years.

At the Phi Beta Kappa meeting which was open to the public, Dr. White began his lecture by carefully differentiating between the highbrows and the middlebrows. According to White, the cultural groups of highbrow and middlebrow may best be understood by drawing an analogy to certain comic strip characters: for example, Dagwood Bumstead and his wife Blondie are socially middlebrow, while Peanuts, especially Schroeder is headed for highbrowhood.

White went on to discuss brief problems which the highbrow must deal with while trying to raise the culture of the middlebrow, coming finally to his primary point: that the moral obligation of the highbrow is to raise the middlebrow culture. There are indications, White said, that the highbrow is fulfilling his obligation and that the highbrow is indeed raising the level of middlebrow culture.

With the advent of the long playing record since the Second World War and hence an expansion of available music, the middlebrows have begun to listen more and more to highbrow music. Orchestra groups have been organized on local levels and FM radio stations are beginning to play good music throughout the day.

Like literature, it will have an amazingly broad audience. The small community groups which have recently sprung up will continue to prosper while large professional orchestras will fade from existence with one or two notable exceptions. The audience, especially the highbrow, will move from the concert hall to the living room, and the media will be stereo tapes and records.

O'Donnell To Talk On Catholic Beliefs

The Reverend Father A. O'Donnell, professor of philosophy at St. Paul's College in Washington, D. C., will speak on "The Philosophic Basis of Catholic Belief" Sunday, May 7, at 7 p.m. in rooms A and B of the Campus Center.

Father O'Donnell, who plans to stress points of Catholic belief not ordinarily understood by non-Catholics, has done graduate work in philosophy at the University of Louvain in Belgium. He has been a member of St. Paul's College faculty since 1956 and is now also a member of the faculty at Trinity College in Washington, D. C.

SOCIAL NOTES ON CAMPUS

by Jo Ann Dotson

Beach parties, pledge presentation dances, initiations and pledging rate the top positions in the Greeks' activities for the last five weeks of school.

At the annual Chi Omega banquet, the best pledges award went to Bea Dillard, '62, and Karen Back, '64. The Madge B. Lambeth award for the outstanding seniors went to Anne Willis and Joan Beck.

Six delegates from Beta Delta Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega attended the Province District Convention at the University of Maryland April 15. The pledges held a pajama party at the House April 22 and partied April 23 with Lambda Chi Alpha's pledges. Sixteen new Alpha Chi's were initiated May 1: Sara Baughan, Gail Blake, Jo Anne Bode, Pamela Bradley, Rosemary Brewer, Beth Chiles, Mikey Cloney, Joyce Dooley, Janet Fohs, Julie Johnstone, Dedo McFadden, Judy Parker, Alois Tinsman, all '64, Sandy Ingles, Michelle Montgomery and Judy Murdock, all '63. The initiation banquet was held at the Williamsburg Lodge May 3. New pledges are Peggy Ann Brown, Joan Thompson, Nell Gracey, Cathy Parsons and Frances Kubitz, all '64. Sally Swoope is Alpha Chi's new second vice-president.

Sigma Phi Epsilon will hold its Charter Day Dinner Dance May 6 in the Campus Center Ballroom. The banquet was held at the Holiday Inn. On May 5, a lawn party was given at the home of Robert M. Usry, advisor to the Virginia Delta Chapter, which will be formally chartered and initiated May 6.

Phi Kappa Tau recently pledged John Hazard, '64. The annual Delta Delta Delta Garden Party for the administration and newly elected officers of student government and Greek organizations was held May 3 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Guy from 7-9 p.m. Sponsor service was held for Tish Paschall and Dianne Wilkins, both '64, May 4. The Tri Deltas partied with Lambda Chi at the Lodge May 7. The pledges had a pajama party at the House May 6 and presented a skit for the actives the following day.

Pi Beta Phi celebrated Founders' Day April 29 with a luncheon. On May 1, the Pi Phi's gave a dessert for Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Recently engaged are Regina Holland, '61, and Tom Hamilton, '60, Kappa Alpha.

Kappa Alpha Theta recently pledged Ginny Hester and Alice Hall, both '64. The Thetas will present their pledges at a formal dance May 5 in the Student Center Ballroom. Their annual initiation banquet will be held May 7.

Sigma Nu partied with Alpha Chi April 29 at the Lodge. Sigma Nu will hold its annual White Rose Formal Dance May 5 in the Little Theater of the Campus Center.

The Lambda Chi Conclave was April 29 in the Student Center Ballroom. Julie Kneen, '63, Gamma Phi Beta, was crowned sweetheart. Gamma Phi's Pledge Presentation Dinner Dance was held at the Lafayette Restaurant April 29.

The Sigma Pi Lodge was visited last weekend by Emil Cekada, '59. On April 29 Sigma Pi and Tri Delta pledges headed for Jamestown for an afternoon at the beach. The activities were victorious in a softball game with the pledges on April 23.

Alpha Phi Omega Landscape Project To Include Bridge Designing Contest

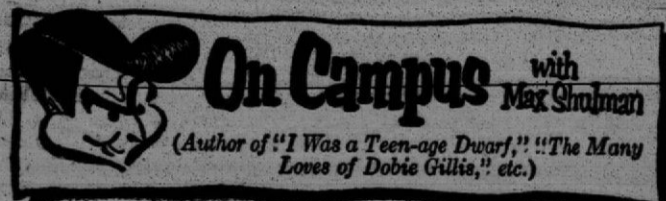

Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity plans to landscape the area behind Landrum Hall, which will include the dredging of the pond and building a bridge across it according to President Dave Greenfield. A contest is now open for the designing of a bridge across the Landrum "Lilly Pond."

Plans call for the rustic bridge to be made of wood; any proposed designs should take this into account as well as provide for maximum utility and decorativeness Greenfield stated. Entries will be judged on the basis of adaptability to the surroundings and the suitability of cost.

Open to all interested students, the contest will run until May 20. All entries must be submitted on a large sheet of paper and should show all essential details. Entries should be submitted at the main desk of the Campus Center. Prizes donated by several Williamsburg merchants will be awarded.

Judges for the contest will be the faculty advisors for Alpha Phi Omega. For additional information, contact any of the following: Ron Alvarez, Greenfield, Bob Stewart or Tom Sode-man.

A ROBE BY ANY OTHER NAME

As Commencement Day draws near, the question on everyone's lips is: "How did the different disciplines come to be marked by academic robes with hoods of different colors?" Everybody—but everybody—is asking it. I mean I haven't been able to walk ten feet on any campus in America without somebody grabs my elbow and says, "How did the different disciplines come to be marked by academic robes with hoods of different colors, hey?"

This, I must say, is not the usual question asked by collegians who grab my elbow. Usually they say, "Hey, Shorty, got a Marlboro?" And this is right and proper. After all, are they not collegians, and, therefore, the nation's leaders in intelligence and discernment? And do not intelligence and discernment demand the tastiest in tobacco flavor and smoking pleasure? And does not Marlboro deliver a flavor that is uniquely mellow, a selectate filter that is easy drawing, a pack that is soft, a box that is hard? You know it!

But I digress. Back to the colored hoods of academic robes. A doctor of philosophy wears blue, a doctor of medicine wears green, a master of arts wears white, a doctor of humanities wears crimson, a master of library science wears lemon yellow. Why? Why, for example, should a master of library science wear lemon yellow?

Well sir, to answer this vexing question, we must go back to March 29, 1844. On that date the first public library in the United States was established by Ulric Sigafoos. All of Mr. Sigafoos's neighbors were of course wildly grateful—all, that is, except Wrex Todhunter.

Mr. Todhunter had hated Mr. Sigafoos since 1822 when both men had wooed the beautiful Melanie Zitt and Melanie had chosen Mr. Sigafoos because she was mad for dancing and Mr. Sigafoos knew all the latest steps, like the Missouri Compromise Mambo, the Shay's Rebellion Schottische, and the James K. Polk Polka, while Mr. Todhunter, alas, could not dance at all owing to a wound he had received at the Battle of New Orleans. (He was struck by a falling praline.)

Consumed with jealousy at the success of Mr. Sigafoos's library, Mr. Todhunter resolved to open a competing library. This he did, but he lured not a single patron away from Mr. Sigafoos. "What has Mr. Sigafoos got that I haven't got?" Mr. Todhunter kept asking himself, and finally the answer came to him: books.

So Mr. Todhunter stocked his library with lots of dandy books and soon he was doing more business than his hated rival. But Mr. Sigafoos struck back. To regain his clientele, he began serving tea free of charge at his library every afternoon. Thereupon, Mr. Todhunter, not to be outdone, began serving tea with sugar. Thereupon, Mr. Sigafoos began serving tea with sugar and cream. Thereupon, Mr. Todhunter began serving tea with sugar and cream and lemon.

This, of course, clinched the victory for Mr. Todhunter because he had the only lemon tree in town—in fact, in the entire state of North Dakota—and since that day lemon yellow has of course been the color on the academic robes of library science. (Incidentally, the defeated Mr. Sigafoos packed up his library and moved to California where, alas, he failed once more. These were, to be sure, plenty of lemons to serve with his tea, but, alas, there was no cream because the cow was not introduced to California until 1931 by John Wayne.)

The first "Student of the Week" is Shore Robertson, who has recently been tapped by Omicron Delta Kappa honorary fraternity. This year's varied activities include president of Monroe dormitory, a member of the Men's Honor Council, Vice-president of the Political Science club class representative to the Student Government and Dance Committee chairman. During his four year stay, he has been pledge trainer for his fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha, and made Dean's List. Now majoring in government, he plans to continue his studies at the University of Virginia Law School.

Mermettes Name Officers for '61-62, Study Varsity Plan

Mermettes, William and Mary's synchronized swimming team has announced officers for the coming year.

These will be, show director, Mary Margaret Dameron; assistant show director, Fran McCampbell; secretary, Judy Linton; treasurer, Bunny Becker; historian, Pat Parker; and production supervisors, Crellin James and Jancy Schrup.

The members of Mermettes are planning to present several of the members from this year's show later this year at Queens Lake Community Pool. The group will present one of the attractions for the pool's opening shortly after May 15.

Several members of the organization are investigating the possibility of forming a varsity synchronized swimming team for competition. Students interested in participating in this project may obtain information from Mary Margaret Dameron or Miss Mildred Barret, faculty advisor for Mermettes.

Time Change Effects

Williamsburg is merely one small patch in Virginia's quilt of intricate time systems, but the effects on campus and in the community have been startling. A disillusioned girl arriving at 9 o'clock Monday morning for her 8 class, the English professor wearing two watches, the student showing up at 12 for breakfast in the small cafe because he had changed his alarm the wrong way and the couple arguing in Jefferson lobby over which one was late for their date typify the general campus atmosphere.

Frosh Mile Relay Team

Frosh Favorites in Virginia Meet, Seek to Avoid Penn Relays Mishaps

Who's got the baton? Such was the plight of the talented foursome of frosh quarter-milers experienced in the recent Penn Relays.

The unbeaten team of John Randolph, Al Insley, Bill Corley and Jerry Gimmell accompanied the varsity thinclads of Harry Groves last Friday to compete in the prestige-laden relays held in Philadelphia. The only race the quartet entered was the mile relay.

With nine teams their heat, Al Insley was jarred on the corner and dropped the baton. Amidst spikes and runners, Insley grasped for the lost baton, picked it up and continued the race. The loss of time was too much to make up and the contingent finished out of contention.

The cindermen will carry an unblemished outdoor record into the meet and will rule as the favorites. Ace sprinter and relay man, John Randolph, is ailing from a pulled ankle but hopes to be in shape tomorrow, while half miler Jerry Gimmell has been running slow in practice due to a strained muscle.

Depth will be the key word for the William and Mary netters today and tomorrow as they group their forces in quest of the coveted Southern Conference tennis championship. Action got under way yesterday for the Coach Dave Nusz's boys on the home court of The Citadel, in Charleston, South Carolina.

The host Citadel and Furman are the betting favorites, but the Indians are expected to be in the thick of the fight. All three squads are undefeated in conference play, but the Tribe has not met either the Paladins or the Bulldogs.

Captain Art Vandroff, victorious in his last four matches, heads the Tribe parade. Although rating Vandroff as a top performer, Nusz sees a real dogfight among the number one seeds. "The Tribe's strength," the coach contends, "lies in the men down the line. Much depends on the play of a pair of sophs, Steve Parker and Chico Herrick.

Parker will man the number two slot for the netters while Herrick plays out of the third man slot. Both have faired well during the season with Parker winning six of his nine matches and Herrick five. They form the second seeded doubles team.

Lettermen Tom Fridinger and Remy Aronoff with Soph Jim Delaney round out the team and are looked to as the key to the depth. Fridinger will team with Vandroff in the doubles while Delaney and Aronoff will form the third doubles duo.

In tune-up action over the weekend, the Tribe swamped

In action yesterday, the Indian netters placed all their singles players in the semi-finals and lost but one doubles. They tallied 16 points for a third spot.

travelling West Virginia in easy fashion. The Mountaineers went down in straight sets to the title-hungry Tribesmen except in the second singles match. It was the Tribe's last SC dual match, bringing their league ledger to 6-0. A match with Fort Eustis will conclude the season on Friday, May 12.

Harriers Contend for Title In State Meet Saturday

"It looks like anybody's meet on Saturday." This was the way Coach Harry Groves summed up the chances of his track squad when they travel to Lynchburg on Saturday for the State Collegiate outdoor track championships. In the inaugural of this event last year, VMI ran away with the championship, but the feeling around the conference is that there is stiff competition facing the Keydets tomorrow.

Tribe Stars

The Tribe will be counting heavily on Dale Bickert, Bob Diederich and Keith Larson in the running events. Bickert will face strong competition from University of Virginia's Faccio in the 220.

Diederich, the Tribe's ace hurdler, along with Roger Hale, Jerry Saunders and Doug Hinkle, should provide points for the Tribe in the high and low hurdle events. Chief competition will come from Keith Hardwick of Virginia Tech. In the mile, Keith Larson will run against the Southern Conference champion, Larry Williams of VMI, who also runs the 880.

In the field events, Stacey McMarlin and Kirk Gooding will meet a strong Gene Engel from Virginia in the shot put and discus events. Engel, who has thrown the discus 150'8 1/2", will also be throwing the javelin. For the Tribe, Bev Vaughan and Paul Cowley are entered in the javelin event.

Although the Indian's Dale Thomas has been improving all year, Davis Martin of the Cavaliers holds the State record in this event. Martin has been close to 14' all spring, but his present record stands at 13'10 1/2".

The William and Mary freshmen, who stand unbeaten so far this spring, are expected to continue their winning ways. Their only close competition seems to be V.P.I., whom they have once beaten this spring. Standouts for the frosh have been Bob Lawson in the mile and two mile, Jerry Gimmell and Frank Brown in the 880 and John Randolph, who runs the 100 220 and 440.

One week from Saturday, the Grovemen will travel to Norfolk and the Southern Conference Finals in their final test of the 1961 season.

Mance's 153 Ties for Third, Leads Golfers to Second Place

Behind the brilliant shot-making of senior co-captain Dave Mance, the William and Mary golfers registered their fifth win of the season in downing visiting University of Richmond yesterday. Posting the 7-2 triumph, the Tribesmen had little trouble on the Williamsburg Inn nine-hole layout. Mance topped the Spiders best, Larry Dixon, 5 and 3, while teammate Chip Ingram lost.

Posting a team aggregate score of 622, the William and Mary golfers fell to VPI's top-rated quartet in the State Intercollegiate Golf Tournament held last Monday at Hot Springs, Virginia. Dave Mance led the Tribe to their second place finish with a 36-hole total of 153. In placing behind Tech's winning 613 score, the Indians for the second year raked in a second place spot as Tech repeated as champs.

Joe Robertson topped the field for medalist honors to lead the Tech attack. His 148 bested State amateur champ from Randolph Macon, Wayne Jackson, who took 151 strokes. Mance tied for third.

In a tune-up for the meet, the Tribe downed West Virginia last Friday on the home ground to up their record to 4-5. Winning by the slim margin of 5-4, the Tribe had to send three matches to extra holes to take the match. Dave Mance, playing extremely well, posted a superb medal 68 which was sparkled with amazing recoveries. Next for the Tribesmen is the Southern Conference shindig at the James River Country Club in Richmond May 8, 9 and 10.

Drewer Selects New Frosh Coach

Larry Peccatiello, former All-Southern Conference end at William and Mary, will return to his Alma Mater this coming fall as head freshman football coach, it was announced yesterday by Milt Drewer, athletic director and head coach of the Indians.

Peccatiello, who also co-captained the Tribe in 1957 and made honorable mention All-America that season, will formally join W&M's coaching staff on August 1, replacing Danny DeFalco, who was named an assistant varsity tutor last month upon the departure of Jack Prater to Virginia Tech.

challenge to champions

by Barry Frattkin

With tomorrow's state meet, the freshman track team will conclude another successful year under the tutelage of track mentor Harry Groves. Combining the mixture of top-notch talent and three-deep strength, the thinclads raced undefeated in dual meets with hardly a scare. Four times the frosh cracked the century mark, indicative of a mismatched romp.

Undefeated seasons is not unusual for frosh squads during the brilliant tenure of Harry Groves. Two seasons ago the frosh romped unblemished and last campaign they dropped but one meet. In the past three years the first-year Grovemen have lost but one dual meet!

Why then has the varsity not reaped the benefits of the powerful freshmen? Surely the frosh eventually form the nucleus of a strong team, but too many fall by the wayside for Coach Groves to field a championship team.

Groves has no actual full scholarships in its full sense. He is not in the position to offer to any incoming frosh a scholarship before he competes. This is a grave disadvantage. Most of the State schools have track scholarships and VPI, especially, has an extensive program to lure top state runners to their school.

Groves has one bargaining point in recruiting thinclads — William and Mary's high academic standards. Jerry Gimmel and John Randolph both turned down near full scholarships to attend W&M in order to get their best education. But this factor also works against the track program. The extensive training and time necessary to stay in top shape works havoc with an athlete's grades.

There is little glory for a trackster; the crowds are slim and the big meets are few. Many of Groves' men run cross country, indoor and outdoor track. The squad is thin and top runners are handicapped because they have to compete in several events. Groves, unable to field a mile relay team in a recent meet, commented, "I should have 25 runners but I have only 17." Talent is not enough; there must be depth.

Groves has the best recruiting in the state. During the track season W&M hosts two top high school meets, the prestige potent Tidewater Meet and the Championship State Group I contest. The personable Tribe chief gets a chance to attract top trackmen to see W&M and visit the facilities.

Groves will contend that he has the potential for a top winner. With an undefeated season under their belts, with the favorite role tomorrow, it will be an athletic challenge to the present crop of track greats to continue their winning ways throughout their years at William and Mary.

After his graduation from William and Mary, Peccatiello served as assistant frosh mentor during the 1958 season when the Pa-poses posted a 4-1 mark. His work with the line, according to Drewer, was largely responsible for the development of such current lettermen as ends Dennis O'Toole and Ernie Phillips and guard Eric Erdossy, a 1961 co-captain.

"We are quite pleased that Larry will be joining our staff," said Drewer. "He has demonstrated his outstanding ability as a coach and should prove a definite asset to our program. We also hope that, when time permits, he can work with our varsity ends."

Peccatiello, whose home was originally in Newark, New Jersey, led the 1957 Indians in pass receiving with 10 receptions for 134 yards and two touchdowns. He was especially prominent on defense.

He is currently serving as a first lieutenant in the Army and is stationed at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, where he has played two seasons of service ball. Peccatiello is married to a former W&M head majorette.

The addition of Peccatiello leaves one other coaching vacancy on the Tribe's staff, that of varsity offensive backfield coach.

Theta Delt Heads Loop; Handball Action Ends

Sigma Nu, the intramural trophy champion to be, padded its already huge (228 points) leads by controlling the handball doubles tourney. Trailing the leader's total of 804 points are Lambda Chi, 676, and PIKA, 650, with three other fraternities within distance of a second place finish.

Handball Winners

In the handball doubles competition, Theta Delt's crack duo of Bill Shuler and John Findlay polished off KA's team of Bob Nicholson and Calvin Wheaton in the semi-finals and then downed Wayne Cheek and Dave Fiscella of Sigma Nu for the title.

Pool Champ

Lacy Compton's individual victory lead Lambda Chi to the domination of the first annual pool tournament. Compton triumphed over KA's Jim Hunsucker in a two-hour plus final match. Mac Simpson of Sigma Nu and Joe Watson of PIKA finished third and fourth, respectively.

With the completion of one third of the softball season, it appears that there will be some drastic changes in the order of finish from last year. US, winner last season, is now 2-6 while the fraternity champion, Sigma Pi, is 2-3. The new frontrunner is Theta Delt's nine with a 6-0 slate followed closely by Lambda Chi, 5-1, Kappa Sig, 4-1, and PIKA, 4-1.

Rifle Tryouts

Coach Raymond Patrick has announced that anyone who is interested in being a member of next year's Varsity or ROTC rifle team is requested to report to the rifle range behind the football stadium. The range is open Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 3 to 5 p.m. Those students who have experience with a .22 caliber rifle are preferred although anyone, whether he can shoot a rifle or not, is eligible.

Board Names Vaughan Cage Coach At Homer L. Ferguson High School

At an April 20 meeting of the Newport News School Board, four-year basketball ace Bev Vaughan was named head basketball coach at the new Homer L. Ferguson School.

John Mackintosh, assistant superintendent of schools in Newport News, approached Vaughan several months ago and explained the situation to the Tribe cager. The new high school will be in Group I and was formed from the old Warwick Junior High.

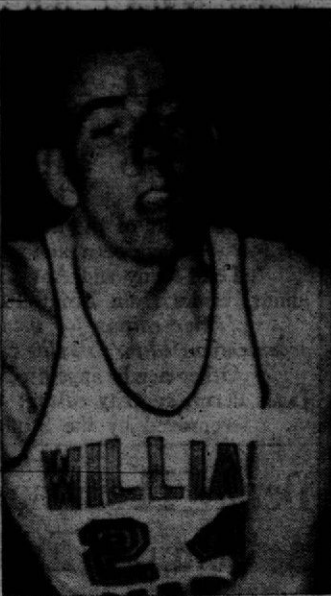

"I am eager to take my new position and to be given the chance at coaching," stated the pleased Portsmouth native. He went on to say the job would be a real challenge for him because this will be Ferguson's first year in Group I competition. Vaughan remarked that since it would be the school's first year anything his young cagers did would be a new record.

Vaughan anticipates a schedule mixed with Group II schools in addition to a heavy Group I ledger. Included in the schedule will be games with Woodrow Wilson, Vaughan's high school stomping ground. Vaughan is optimistic but adds that he wants his yearlings to taste victory early.

The new job entails teaching physical education in which Vaughan is a major, here at the college.

Vaughan had been drafted by a professional basketball team but is expected to take the coaching post. Vaughan got his chance to play varsity in his frosh year as a result of a car wreck that injured the varsity reserves.

Bev Vaughan, hard-luck cager for four seasons, will switch from player to coach when he moves to Ferguson.

Lacrossers Finish Jaunt; Tri Delts Win Aquatics

Last Tuesday night in Blow Gym, the WAA intramural swimming tournament lured 31 mermaids with four teams participating. Tri Delts, behind the heroics of Fran McCampbell, ran, up 34 points to edge Chandler for the team title.

Fran swam home first in the good time of :34.8 to take the 40-yard breaststroke and then splashed her way to further laurels in the 60-yard individual medley. In the diving competition, the Tri Delt ace topped Gene Ayres for her third win of the evening.

Independent Judy Moore topped the field in the 20-yard freestyle and then anchored the winning team in the 60-yard medley. Dot Young of Chandler raced to a :27.8 clocking in the 40-yard freestyle to win the event.

Chandler also captured the 80-yard freestyle relay. The meet's other standout was Eve Rothrock of Theta who won the 40-yard backstroke.

On tap next for the girls is the archery competition on Tuesday.

Hindered by the loss of their two top players, the William and Mary women netters dropped their third match of the season to visiting Mary Washington. Neither Donna Floyd nor Luby Lane were able to compete.

Judy Bryan played number one for the netters of Coach Martha Barksdale, but the team went gamely down, 4-2.

In a tournament starting today at Bryn Mawr, the playing status of top-rated Donna Floyd is questionable due to a hand injury. It may also keep her out of the Mary Baldwin tourney later this week.

Wednesday and Thursday of this week the William and Mary women's lacrosse team travelled to Sweet Briar and Hollins to encounter two of the state's better teams. The road trip leaves the Squaws with a 2-1 record, having defeated Westhampton 9-1 last week and winning over Hollins 9-3. The one loss was received at Sweet Briar, where the score ended 7-5 against W&M.

W&M travels to West Hampton on May 13 to participate in the state tournament. The Squaws will meet Hollins and Westhampton for the second time during this competition.

LUCKY STRIKE PRESENTS: DEAR DR. FROOD!

DR. FROOD'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: In college, it isn't who you know that counts—it's whom.

Dear Dr. Frood: I have a confession. All my life I have been trying to learn how to whistle. I just can't. Please, will you tell me how to whistle?

Puckered

DEAR PUCKERED: Watch the birds. Notice how they gather a pocket of air deep within the breast, then push thin jets of this air into the throat, through the larynx, up and around the curled tongue, and then bounce the air from the roof of the mouth out through the teeth (which act like the keyboard on a piano). Practice this. In no time your friends will be amazed at the beautiful, warbly trills that flow from your beak.

Dear Dr. Frood: I just can't seem to get in step with the rest of the students here. They enjoy parties, dancing, folk singing and dating. None of these things interest me at all. Am I behind the times or what?

Dear Dr. Frood: Hamlet killed Polonius. Macbeth stabbed Duncan. Richard murdered his little nephews. Othello strangled Desdemona, and Titus served Tamora her two sons in a pie before killing her. Don't you think this obsession with violence would make an excellent subject for a term paper?

English Major

DEAR ENGLISH: No, I don't, and my advice to you is to stop running around with that crowd.

Dear Dr. Frood: What do you think accounts for the fact that college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular?

Marketing Student

DEAR MS: Collegiate Lucky smokers.

Dear Dr. Frood: My coach is writing this letter for me because I am illiterate. We want to know if I got to learn how to read to get into college. I am the best football player in the state.

ABC

DEAR X: Every college today will insist that you meet certain basic entrance requirements. I'm afraid you're just out of luck, X, unless you learn how to read diagrams and count to eleven.

Freshmen Netters Succumb to Jeffs In Richmond Battle

After being washed out by the elements on Monday, the frosh tennis teams became wiped out by a different element the following day—Thomas Jefferson High School. Meeting the powerful high schoolers, the netters fell on Richmond's Byrd Park courts, 7-2.

Charlie McEwen provided the only bright spot in an otherwise gloomy day as he copped his singles match and then later teamed with Dave Hunter to win in the doubles. McEwen, playing out of the number four singles slot, downed the Jeffs' Tom Schreck, 6-4, 6-3. In all the matches, the decisions were taken in straight sets.

Top man on the frosh totem pole, Dave Hunter was outclassed by state junior champ O. H. Parrish. Hunter managed but one game against the powerful Richmonder. Steve Malls fell to Tom Chewning 6-2, 6-1, and number three man, Dick Roberts, lost to Mike Starr in straight sets. John Kerr also lost in straight sets.

Scheduled to meet potent Suffolk on Monday, the rains, consistent for this time of year, postponed the proposed clash.

People have been writing columns for quite some time. Usually no one reads them. I don't know of any reason why you should turn over a new leaf and read this one, except that it's new. You could keep your record nearly intact and just read this one installment. No one would know — if you didn't do it again. Since I've never written a column before, I have absolutely no idea how one is supposed to go about writing one. Since my only interest is getting across some ideas — original and otherwise — my method will be to write the allotted space full of what seems worthwhile. If you don't agree with what I put down, don't be a martyr and cuss me behind my back; open up by writing me a letter or by chasing me down on campus and giving me the tongue lashing in person.

Though I plan to talk about anything that comes to my mind, my chief interest will be what happens — or does not happen — on the campus. Without further build-up, let the deluge begin.

There is something wrong with this campus. The age old complaint. Since the day I hit town more than three years ago, people have been whining about this place. What is the difficulty? A fellow Kansan told me last night that "everyone just sort of hangs around here." Her point was that the freshmen come down here with some high hopes of joining a campus where activity is the standard, where new things and new ideas are always taking place. She found out that things are actually "pretty stodgy" around here. But she guessed that this was because the people are more mature at college. I question this logic which assumes that as people grow older they become less original. For a picture of action, look at the President — at least until Cuba came along. — Even that was action, just the wrong kind at the wrong time.

The idea exists around here that any serious interest in campus activities such as Student Government, any of the major clubs or sitting in on the lecture series is being "gung ho." People join these things and then never go to their meetings or support the clubs by participation in any of their activities. There are more people just sitting in their rooms around here than any college I know of. Maybe people want to sit in their rooms. Maybe they are so busy drinking beer, they never give any thought to the idea of leaving except to get more beer. Maybe the poor souls around here who think a re-organized Student Government, controversial speakers talking to the students and students doing their own thinking and planning of their activities to be worthwhile things are out of the picture, and the real thing to do is "hang around," drink beer for four years and blow town — never to return. The next question: what is a college education — four years away from reality while you reach the age of majority? Neat work if you can get away with it. But what the devil happens when the hayride is over? Where are the "responsible citizens" of tomorrow — "laying around"? Some sociologist said that we are what we are by the time we are twenty-one. Abraham Lincoln is a good contradiction to that; but we are not all lucky enough to be Lincolns. Is the answer four years of books, professors and esoteric discussion? Not all of us were cut out for this sort of diet. A country of deep intellectuals would be an admirable thing, but who would dig the ditches then? We could all go to the Lodges during the winter and to the beaches during the summer, but what good would a country of Castles or Weismullers be? What is the answer? You tell me.

Dr. Seeger Visits W&M, Addresses Sigma Pi Sigma

Dr. Raymond J. Seeger, Assistant Director of the National Science Foundation, spoke at the physics department lecture and the Sigma Pi Sigma national honorary physics society initiation banquet last night in the Campus Center.

Initiates
"Shockwave Phenomena" was the title of Dr. Seeger's afternoon lecture. In the evening, he spoke on "Natural Philosophy" before a meeting of the honorary society.

New Members
In addition, ten new members were initiated into the organization: David Buckle, William I. Salmon, Paul Shepard, William Pineo, Willard Bauserman, Leo Rogon, Joseph Alexander, Robert N. Dennis, Jr., Shirley Burke and Dr. James D. Lawrence.

22 Students
Sigma Pi Sigma now has 22 student members. Louis Deach is president of the organization with Joseph Blinick as vice-president, Shiras Elliot as secretary, Lynn Shaw as treasurer and Robert Kernell as the faculty advisor. The William and Mary chapter received its charter in 1927. It is the fourth oldest of the 106 chapters which are now in existence.

Qualifications for membership in the honorary society include the individual's completion of advanced physics courses, a 2.0 average in physics and a 1.5 over-all grade point average.

Hale Almy and Ann Crist have been chosen for membership on the editorial board. Hale, a junior, comes from Front Royal, and Ann, also a junior, comes from Bridgewater.

Junior editors for next year's annual include Rhea Neuroth, class editor; Margaret Johns, organizations editor; Phyllis Eason, copy editor; Stuart Richardson, literary editor.

Approved by the Student Publications Committee, the editorial board was organized to

Denny Thompson Accepts Position As 'Seminar' Editor for Next Year

Next year's editor of the Seminar will be Dennis Thompson, a junior from Hamilton, Ohio. The appointment was made by outgoing editor Gene Haislip and faculty advisor Dr. Edward Rhyne with the approval of the Seminar's editorial board.

Thompson was recently tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary fraternity, and is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, the national journalism honorary fraternity. He is vice president of his social fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha.

Majoring in philosophy, Thompson is participating in honors study in this field. He is a member of Sigma Pi Sigma, the honorary physics fraternity. Previous to being announced Seminar editor-in-chief, Thompson worked on the critical staffs of both the Seminar and the Royalist.

In addition to his work on campus publications, Thompson works part time as a reporter for the Richmond Times Dispatch. He is the recipient of a newspaper fund grant for summer work in 1961 as a reporter on the Dayton Daily News, Dayton, Ohio.

New editor Thompson has not yet selected his junior editors. They will be announced within the near future.

SG Accepts Arrangements of Spring Finals Chairmen

by Cathy Day
Flat Hat News Editor

In a brief meeting Tuesday, May 2, Student Government board and approved plans for the upcoming Spring Finals and Colonial Festival week-end feature, May 12, 13 and 14. Committee Chairmen Shore Robertson and Don Farrell, in charge of the dance and Festival, respectively, reported that publicity for both events would be out this week. Robertson also reported that ticket sales started Wednesday in the Campus Center with freshmen Chris Herr and Dave Schmidt.

Belle of the Green

Farrell explained that the Belle of the Green election results would remain a complete secret until the festival and that the court members would not be known until that day. This would heighten the interest in the contest, he said. Also, the committee thought that each person having eight votes would make the election fair, and that the results would be the same.

President Bottoms brought up a previously tabled motion to abolish the cafeteria committee. A definite action was taken, and President-Elect Tom Johnson interjected that he planned to abolish the committee after he took office.

Installation

Pat Wade reported that the hospitality committee had planned a reception for the new Student Assembly and class officers, the old Assembly, faculty, administration, and the entire student body.

Bottoms Speaks

"At this moment our concern in Student Government is with the anticipated participation of Colonial Festival weekend. Rather than contract a big name band for a dance in the ball room we have invited two well-known performers, Lloyce Price and Roy Hamilton, for a concert in Blow Gym. It is our hope that this concert will attract a greater percentage of students than previous performances.

Dave Bottoms

"I am pleased to report that Tom Johnson and I are working to exact a turnover of administration for next year. In the coming weeks Tom will present his committees and ideas. I think the interest in Student Government will be greatly enhanced if all students scrutinize his operations in order to better understand his motives.

'Flat Hat' Receives Award

Sizemore, Dameron Assume Posts In State Journalism Association

by Connie Catterton

Two Flat Hat editors, H. Mason Sizemore and Mary Margaret Dameron, were elected to top positions of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, and the Flat Hat was awarded second place in competition with other Virginia collegiate newspapers during the VIPA Convention held in Williamsburg last weekend.

Sizemore, business manager of the Flat Hat, will preside over the Press Association for 1961-62 and Mary Margaret, associate editor, will assist him as vice president. A sophomore from Halifax, Sizemore is majoring in history. Mary Margaret, a junior English major, comes from Arlington. Virginia Gibson, a staff member of Richmond Professional Institute's Postscript will serve as secretary and Kay Newkirk of Radford College's Grapuchat as treasurer.

Judging

Judged on the three categories of writing, make-up and content, the Flat Hat placed second behind Richmond Professional Institute's Postscript. Sue Smith, editor of the winning paper, received a silver cup from outgoing VIPA president, Al Volkmann. Third place in the competition went to Mary Baldwin's Campus Comments.

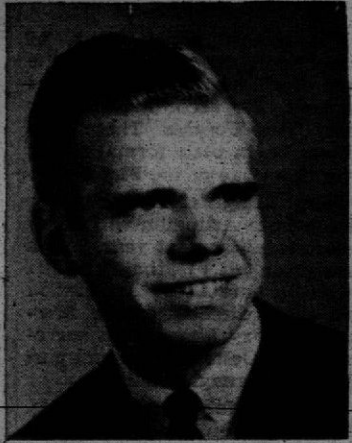

The two-day convention closed with the presentation of the awards and the election of the new officers at the Saturday luncheon held at the Holiday Inn. Cameron Gregory, personnel director of the Virginian Pilot, was the principal speaker at the luncheon.

Three one-hour seminars were held Saturday morning for delegates from Virginia collegiate newspapers at the convention. Edward Grimsley, top staff writer, and Omar Martin, recently appointed news editor, of the Times Dispatch and John Gravely, publisher-editor of the Virginia Gazette, participated in the forums. John J. Walklet of Colonial Williamsburg, held a discussion meeting for yearbook staff members at the convention.

Newspaper and yearbook editors and staff members from the State's colleges and universities were invited to the annual conference in order to discuss publication problems with professional journalists and to receive awards for outstanding undergraduate work during the past academic year.

Volkmann, this year's president, expressed the belief that there was an increase in interest in VIPA this year and that he hoped that it would grow during the coming year. Volkmann, a senior from Long Island, New York and editor-in-chief of the Flat Hat this year, was responsible for bringing the VIPA Convention to Williamsburg for the first time.

Lloyd Price, Roy Hamilton to Give Entertainment in Blow Gym May 14

Lloyd Price and Roy Hamilton will perform for the campus on Sunday afternoon, May 14, in Blow Gymnasium from 2 until 4 p.m. The performance of these two artists will be considered a concert, and no dancing will be allowed in the gym for this reason. Admission for one person is allowed on the combination ticket, while single admission price is $3 per person. There are 800 single concert tickets available. Because the concert will be very informal, Shore Robertson and his committee urge girls to buy their own tickets and to come without dates.

Leading up to the concert, which is the highlight of the week-end, will be two dances and the annual Colonial Festival. Bill Clements and his band will play on Friday night from 9 p.m. until 12 midnight in the Campus Center-ballroom for an informal dance. Because the band is not a big-name group, the usual hours for the Spring Finals dance have been changed. Admission price at the door for this dance will be $1.

Preceding student dancing to the Bonnevilles in Wren Yard on Saturday afternoon will be the traditional colonial games of the Colonial Festival. The crowning of the Belle of the Green will climax the afternoon's activities. A foot race down the Duke of Gloucester Street, greased pig and greased pole races, and pie-eating and pie-throwing contests are some of the games planned by Don Farrell and his committee.

The 200 combination tickets are available, cost $6 apiece and include both dances for a couple and the concert for one person. Advance tickets are being sold at the Campus Center and by Dave Smith in Morris and Chris Herr in Madison.

Rehearsing for the approaching production of Finian's Rainbow are Dede Salvason as Sharon, Mary Bowman as Finian and Tom Murphy as Woody. The Backdrop musical will be presented during Colonial Festival weekend.

Backdrop Presents 'Finian' During Colonial Festival

by Ron Alvarez

Finian's Rainbow, a light-hearted comedy will be one of the highlights of the 1961 Colonial Festival, May 11-13.

Presented by the Backdrop Club, the play will be presented at Phi Beta Kappa Hall at 8 o'clock next weekend. Headlining the cast will be Marvin Bowman as the ill-fated Finian who steals a crock of the Little People's gold to finance his trip to America.

A leprechaun follows Finian stateside to get back his gold and the fun is on. James Perry as the riotous imp follows Bowman to Massachusetts where they engage in a hide-and-seek with the gold pot. Includes Tom Murray as Woody, Tinky Williams as Susan, Dede Salvason, and James Perry as Og, the imp from the Emerald Isle.

Howard Hill, director of the play, is assisted by Mary Virginia Reed. Hill promises an evening of musical comedy at its best. As rehearsals run into the last days before the performance, he says that the show will be well worth the work it requires.

The Backdrop Club produces one play each year as its project and it usually manages a musical. Last year's Guys and Dolls was a smash hit.

Tickets This year's play received rave reviews from the New York critics when it played there, and had an extended run. Tickets for the shows will be on sale at $1.50 at the Box Office in Phi Beta Kappa Hall on the days preceding the production. They

The recent appointment of junior editors for the Flat Hat for next year, according to editor Jerry Van Voorhis. These new editors begin their formal duties with this issue of the Flat Hat.

Mary Margaret Dameron, a senior from Arlington will be an associate editor next year. She is vice president of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association and show director of the Mermettes. Mary Margaret is secretary of Pi Delta Epsilon and past Flat Hat managing editor.

Sandy McNair from Ashtabula, Ohio, and a senior next year will serve as the other associate editor. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Sigma Pi Sigma, the Alumni Gazette, GE Quiz Bowl team, a Dean's List student and new editor of the Royalist.

Cathy Day, a rising junior from Parma, Michigan, will assume the position of news editor, after serving this year as assistant. Cathy is a member of the Methodist Church choir and the Pep Club.

Bucky Reigelman, a former member of the feature staff and sophomore next year, moves up to the position of feature editor. He is from Washington, D. C. and is active in the Pep Club.

Barry Fratkin of Richmond is the new sports editor. Fratkin, a member of the class of 1964, is a member of Balfour Hill.

Judy Jorg, also from Richmond moves up from the position of make-up editor this year to the position of co-editor of the newly formed study commission.

Carol Duke, also a rising senior from Rocky Mount, will serve as the other co-editor of the study commission. Carol has served on the Flat Hat copy staff this year and is the new managing editor of the Royalist. She is a member of the Student Education Association and vice president of Kappa Delta Pi.

Dave Blood, a member of the Flat Hat and Colonial Echo photography staffs and a rising sophomore, will be the new photography editor. Blood who is from Linwood, New Jersey, is a member of the William and Mary Choir and Wesley Foundation.

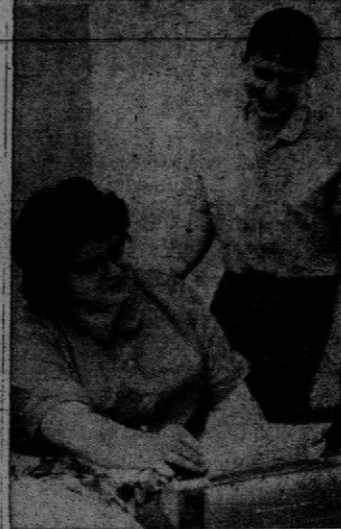

Ed Long, a rising junior from Lexington assumes the position of copy editor. He was an Orientation group leader and is a Phi Lambda Phi pledge.

Mary Beth Anderson, a member of Kappa Delta social sorority, will serve as exchange and publicity editor. A rising junior from Falls Church, she is a member of the Pep Club and the Newman Club.

Jackie Johnson, also a rising junior and a native of Norfolk will move up to the position of make-up editor. Jackie is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, social sorority.

Gordon Feherson of the class of 1964 and from Glenview, Ill., is the new advertising manager. He is a Phi Lambda Phi pledge and a member of the Pep Club.

Mike Flattery from Arlington will serve as the circulation manager. Flattery, a sophomore next year has served on the staff this year as well as participating in the Young Republican Club.
