The largest amphitheatre that the C. C. W. has ever built is under construction now on the west side of the campus. This amphitheatre will be called "Player's Dell."

The stage is forty feet deep, and it is over forty feet across the proscenium. Stumps and other rustic features will give it the true atmosphere, framed by tall old trees. Only one tree, a small ironwood, was cut during construction.

A low trimmed hedge of holly will cross the front of the stage to hide the footlights. The processional walk leads 150 feet back into the woods, affording an impressive entrance for all sorts of pageants.

SCREENINGS

Out in Hollywood—W. C. Fields making the second of his starring vehicles of this year "The Old Fashioned Way," dropped in at a local film house to sit in the balcony and laugh with the boys over his current "You're Telling Me."—Paramount is bragging that they have a college picture now under production without a football game in it. It is "She Loves Me Not," and stars Bing Crosby and Miriam Hopkins — Anna Sten, sensational new German importation of MGM is making a big hit in "Nana" — According to the Motion Picture review committee of four national Women's Clubs "The House of Rothschild" with George Arliss, "Melody in Spring" with Lanny Ross, and the British Graumont production of "The Constant Nymph" are the three best of the month. We would like to add "Men in White" to this list, also "Wild Cargo" and "It Happened One Night" — Sally Rand is electrifying the nation with her World's Fair Fan Dance in "Bolero." George Raft is the star, but 'tis said that the addition of Sally Rand to the cast is what is packing 'em all over the country. — MGM is soon to start on production of "West Point of the Air", a drammer of planes starring Bob Montgomery and Wallace Beery. The story is by John Monk Saunders, 'nough said! — also MGM is starting work on Clark Gable's first picture with Jeanette MacDonald titled "The Dutchess of Delmonico's," Norma Shearer's "Smilin' Through" won for her not only the "Photoplay Medal award for the best performance of 1933, but also the British "Picturegoer" award for that same year. Her "Riptide" went into its third standing room only week at the London Empire theatre, which reminds us that Liberty only gave this film two and a half stars! (We never did like Liberty anyway). — Fred Astaire has returned from the London performance of the "Gay Divorce" and has gone to Hollywood to play in the screen version of it to be made by RKO-Radio. — if you like 'em funny don't miss "Sing 'an Like It." All the funny ones are in it — among them Zazu Pitts, Nat Pendleton (who plays the gangster part as well as he did in that recent Bus Picture we saw at the local flicker house), Edward Everett Horton and the ever potent Ned Sparks! — Getting back in town, we wonder why all the college boys troop down to the RKO-Williamsburg for those Saturday morning "Kiddie Shows"—went down last Saturday morning and found all the boys there— may be the 15c admission, but those four Micky Mouse and those silly symphony shorts were plenty to cut class about. — Walter Connolly, who was the father in "It Happened One Night" is starring in Columbia's "Whom the God's Destroy". Just a quarter century ago, Lionel Barrymore stepped before a cumbersome black box that was the motion picture camera of that day, at the old Biograph studio in New York City, to play a role in "The New York Hat" with a little girl — who grew up to be America's Sweetheart, Mary Pickford. Today he is working other sensational rising star, Jean on "100 Per Cent Pure" with an Harlow.

ALL FRAT NINE CHOSEN TO MEET FROSH SQUAD

INDIAN TRACKMEN NIP OLD LINE HARRIERS

BRAVES DEFEAT OLD LINERS 76-50; MEET RICHMOND ON FRIDAY

Bullard, Little Star As Indians Win Nine First Places; Close Season With Spiders, Georgetown.

WIDYMER TAKES DASHES

Turning in their best performances of the season so far, Coach "Scrap" Chandler's trackmen defeated the University of Maryland 76-50 last Saturday at College Park, Md.

Platt Bullard ran a 1:59 half and a 4:35.6 mile to win both of these events handily. Joe Flickinger pole vaulted 12 feet, three and one-half inches and John Bacon high jumped six feet in taking their events. These performances were their best of the season.

Earl Widmyer, Maryland flash, beat out H. M. "Monk" Little of William and Mary by about a foot in winning the 100 yard dash in 9.8 seconds. The famous Old Liner again noised out the Indian ace in the 220, this time by the scant margin of a few inches, in the fast time of 21.8 seconds. Evans and Syle won the other first places taken by the hosts by winning the quarter hurdles, respectively.

The University of Richmond and Georgetown's trackmen will close out the 1934 season. Richmond will be met on Friday in the capitol and Georgetown will be met here on the nineteenth. The latter meet will be between the varsity and freshmen team of William and Mary and the varsity and freshmen of Georgetown.

FRANKLIN WILL PITCH

The Freshman baseball team will meet an all-star inter-fraternity nine at Cary Field. This event promises to become an annual function sponsored by the Inter-Fraternity Council.

Although the game this year will be unofficial, since there is no league, it will attract a great deal of attention. Jack Lembeck, President of the Council, has chosen a representative team with the assistance of Johnny Sullivan, Kappa Sig, and Preacher Franklin, S. A. E. It is virtually impossible to give everyone a trial so the squad has been chosen (Continued on page 7.)

PAPOOSE NINE DEFEATS WOODROW WILSON 13-6

Frosh Take Lead In First Inning With Three Runs.

ZABLE PINCH BATTERY

The William and Mary Freshman baseball team gained another victory here Saturday afternoon, this time Woodrow Wilson High School being the victims. The 13-6 score demonstrates sufficiently the Papooses superiority. It was a poorly played game with both teams making many errors. The Indians scored three runs in the first and from then on were always in the lead. Pitcher Zable came through in fine style, and Catcher Pinch showed up well, getting two hits and catching a good game. Benedetto came through with a home run over the center fielders head, a well hit ball.

MARYLAND NETMEN DEFEAT INDIANS

Ratcliffe and McLeod Win In Doubles 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

WILLIAM AND MARY NINE WIN ONE AND DROP TWO ON TRIP

Tribe Loses To Washington and Lee and V. M. I.

INDIANS DEFEAT MAROONS

The William and Mary Indians returned last Thursday after playing three games scheduled with Roanoke, Washington and Lee, and the V. M. I. Keydets. The tribe won the first contest but dropped the remaining two.

Tribe Defeat Roanoke

The William and Mary Nine topped the Maroons in the first game on their road trip, by the score of 8-7. When the eighth inning opened Roanoke led the Tri-Color 7 to 2. The Indians got two hits off relief hurler, Gene Barnett, to start the eighth, the Red Men hit Martin, second relief pitcher, for three more hits to score three runs.

The Indians retired the Maroons in short order in their half of the eighth to pave the way for a last inning victory. Smith drew a walk and "Waddy" Stewart singled. Jester was hit by a pitched ball. Marable followed with a single to score Smith. Jester stole home as Palese went to first on a fielder's choice, and the game went to William and Mary. The team from Salem went down in order in their half of the inning.

Indians Lose to Generals

The Tri-Color lost a tight, fast ball game to the Washington and Lee Generals, by a score of 3 to 2. The W. & M. nine took the lead with (Continued on page 7.)

Tommy Dowler, Indian back-field coach, who played for his Alma Mater, Colgate, in the annual home-coming day, gave the spectators the most thrills. In the first quarter he ran 85 yards for a touchdown and in the fourth quarter he intercepted a pass and ran 38 yards for a score.

Looking back at some of the most exciting events of the past school year, the defeat of Richmond on the gridiron was undoubtedly the highlight. Remember Stumpy Bryant's beautiful run of 35 yards for the score that beat the Spiders; and Billy Palese and his spectacular broken-field running that always kept the crowd on its feet.

And Monk Little jumping 24 feet 4 inches in the meet against V. M. I.; and the same Monk throwing the javelin 197 feet against North Carolina.

And William and Mary winning the Southern Fencing Championships. And the Richmond-Indian basketball game, in which the winning Indian basket was sunk simultaneously with the blowing of the whistle marking the end of the game.

And our baseball team, which, as this goes to press, is still fighting for the State Championship.

And many other exciting battles which made this year a thrilling, interesting athletic cycle for the Indian campus.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S DEGREE

"President Roosevelt will receive a degree from the College of William and Mary in Virginia," press notices all over the country said last week. Now comes the news by wire that Congressional business will detain the President, and prevent his being present for Jamestown Day.

William and Mary is sorry, for once again our little college was to have the distinction of conferring an honorary degree on a President of the United States. Perhaps people in other parts of our nation were beginning to think that this ceremony is becoming a presidential habit, when they recall that three presidents of the United States in succession have had similar degrees bestowed on them by our ancient institution before.

Warren G. Harding was the first President in recent years to receive the distinction, coming to the campus via Yorktown where he and his party had anchored aboard the old presidential yacht, the "Mayflower." Several years later, the President Calvin Coolidge was here, and spoke from the Wren Building porch after receiving a degree amid all the pomp and splendor that characterizes academic processions on these occasions. During the Sesqui-Centennial at Yorktown, two years ago last fall, Herbert Hoover received a William and Mary degree while he was in attendance at a luncheon given in his honor.

Now a Democratic President was to have followed the example of his Republican predecessors, and graciously accept an LLD degree, a gesture that brings pleasure to both the recipient and the donor.

William and Mary will welcome President Roosevelt some other time when Congress is not in session and when duties are not so pressing. Our College will be happy to be able to honor another "great American." The students, faculty, and alumni will all be proud.

It is hoped that President Roosevelt's acceptance will tend further to perpetuate and instill in White House occupants of the future, the habit of receiving William and Mary degrees. What could be finer than to have each President of the United States in his turn, leisurely and restfully cruise down by water from Washington to either Yorktown or Jamestown, both spots so closely connected with the origin and growth of our nation; come over to William and Mary, the trainer of many of the country's chief executives; and connect the presidential "past" and the White House "present" by receiving an honorary degree from the same school that Washington, the first president, served as chancellor?

IN HONOR OF DR. CHANDLER

On June the ninth there will be staged what is hoped will be the most impressive and meaningful ceremony ever witnessed on the William and Mary campus. On this day the alumni, the faculty, and the students of this college will unite in paying tribute to the man who has done more for the College of William and Mary than any other man living or dead. It is unnecessary to expound upon the record or achievements of Dr. J. A. C. Chandler. His record as president of the College is one which has brought him nation-wide acclaim and has established him as one of the foremost educators in the South if not indeed in the entire country. His fame has spread far and wide and great personages throughout the country are lavish in their praises of his endeavors. In the face of such wide recognition from people not connected with this college it is only fitting that those of us who are or have been actively associated with Dr. Chandler should pay a lasting tribute to the man who has done so much for us.

Nor could a more appropriate day have been selected in which to pay this tribute. June the ninth marks the completion of Dr. Chandler's fifteenth year as president of the College of William and Mary; and it likewise marks the completion of the year in which he was able to arrange the final steps in the extensive building program on which he has so long and faithfully labored. As such this day will be a banner one in the annals of this college. It is the ideal day on which to have all persons connected with this college, either at present or in the past, pay honor to the leader of the college.

The services in honor of Dr. Chandler will be held following the exercises of the graduating class and those of the Alumni Association. At them Dr. Chandler will be presented with a beautifully bound album of letters from countless friends and admirers throughout the country. This album, gotten up by the Alumni Association and containing more than five hundred letters, is expressive of the high esteem in which Dr. Chandler is held by all who have been associated with him or know of his work.

Following this presentation the Alumni Association and the faculty will present Dr. Chandler with scrolls signed by the officers or representatives and expressing the good wishes and appreciation of these organizations. The sentiments of the students of the college will then be expressed in the form of short speeches by the presidents of both student bodies and the graduating class.

This service will mark the high point of Dr. Chandler's regime and every effort is being made to make it as impressive and representative as possible. In order that this may be accomplished it is necessary that the service be well attended. It is hoped, and indeed expected, that every student of the college will be present, in this manner paying personal tribute to the genius of Dr. J. A. C. Chandler.

CO-OPERATE WITH THE LIBRARIAN

Recently a student took from the reserve shelf in the library an early edition of Longfellow's poems and tore from it twenty-four pages. Students continue to mark and mutilate library books. They carry these books from the library without charging them out. These things are done in spite of the fact that the librarians have repeatedly asked for better treatment of the books and more co-operation from students.

As it is, the College does not have much money to spend on new books. If part of this fund has to go to replace books that are destroyed by students, the library will be slow in growing.

The service that the library offers merits the full co-operation of students. It stays open longer than any library in the South, being open from 8:30 A. M. to 12 P. M., except for the two meal hours when it is closed. However, the librarian in charge often starts the process of closing up half an hour before the closing hour. Students are allowed to "browse" around in the open-stacks and remove from them any book they choose.

In case the librarians do not get better co-operation from the students, there are two things that the library could do. Both would be an added cost to the College. Both changes would inconvenience the students.

The library could put a guard at the door to search every person leaving the building to see that he is not taking out an uncharged book. This policing system is used at Harvard University.

The library might close the stacks. This would mean that a student would have to look up the call number of a book and present it to a librarian who would then go to the stacks and get the book for the student. It would take quite a long time to go through with this procedure. Of course, this measure would necessitate a much larger library staff.

The library does not wish to inaugurate either of these changes. However, unless there is an improvement in the co-operation of the students, something will have to be done. For your own convenience, if for no other reason, co-operate with the librarians.

THE SNOOP OF GLOUCESTER ST.

(By Snub McGrub.)

And so, for the last time, your scribe sets down to scribble a bit of copy for your annoyance. . . scribble is probably the word to you—all . . . that is, "going about your business to get to my business" . . . as the radio canaries used to warble last fall . . . but ennyhoo, as they say down souse, if we've stepped on some people's feet in fashion not exactly appreciated by the stepped-on, pardon it . . . 'twas all in fun . . . Suppose that you heard that Jerry O'Neill of the Theta Delta Omicron, and Virginia Clemenson of the Phi Better Kapper Grades, have succumbed to Kid Romance as indicated by the transfer of a fraternity pin . . . that we were justified in making that remark last week about some Phi Tau jewelry going to the first house on the right in the court . . . because Ruf Winfree and Joy Smith have announced it to anyone who wants to know . . .

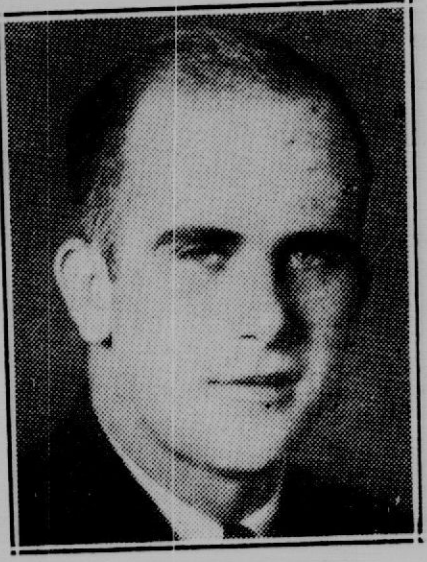

That Roby Robins and Jeanie Watt took the Navy by storm last week-end at Annapolis . . . (Jeanie asked her escort if he wanted those gold buttons on his coat and when he said yeah, she ripped them off and gave them to him) . . . that the lad Elliott who pitched such a swell ball game Monday against West Virginia has been seen plenty in the company of Polly Hurst . . . that the Colonial Echos are due to come out at the end of the month so don't ask the staff 'cause that's all they can tell 'ya.

Pete Causey (of the Kappa Jigs) and Jane Sutherland (a Theta frosh and called "Joe College") . . . he's tagged her as "His Problem Child" . . . that Miss Jane Thornburgh was heard to say last week that she wished so many guys wouldn't call her up for dates . . . (her Shields is her defense) . . . that Miss Lucy Grossman of Petersburg and Miss Alice Edwards of Lynchburg were in town last week do 'ya remember the send-off at the station many moons ago when Lucy and Henry Whyte took the train for points eastward amid showers of much confetti and well wishes) . . .

That Gene Barclay and Bee Torrence have decided to seal the combo with the aid of a Pi Kappa Alpha pin . . . the boys from University of Virginia are down here in full force looking for fossils . . . (do they have to come down here for the hunting?) . . . the rumor spreads that Jack MacManus and Helen Harwood of the Theta clan are that way . . . and speaking of merges, the rumor also appears that wherever Miss Frances Moorland is in town, a Phi Tau handled Belknap appears in the vicinity of the Gamma Phi mansion . . . a correspondent sends in the tip that Parker Buck "is weakening" . . . ask Parker about the little gal in New York who thinks a lot about him . . . and how about all those boasts you made last fall kid? . . .

And looking backward to the days of September and on . . . when we learned that Art Hart put his pin on Margaret Lane . . . and "Dumpling" Porter and Bill Richardson began to notice one another considerable . . . and Betty Fiester and Bob Kelly "met in a revolving door and have been going around together ever since" . . . and Sophie Croxton began to frequent the Pharmacy on numerous occasions . . . and George Bishop tried to turn canary outside of the Theta house . . . and we suggested to Bob Ramsey that he pull his shoes up . . . and that Mary Jean took a Deke pin, sent direct from Portsmouth . . . and Jeff Davis put his pin in the Phi Mu house and that Jerry Quirk and Roslyn Richardson were still carrying the torch . . . and all about the swell reunion at the New Yorker during Christmas vacation . . . and if frozen water equals iced water, what does frozen ink equal? . . . and Murray Harrison continued to come all the way from Norfolk for co-ed dances . . . but he broke down one time a few weeks ago and came for a regular affair . . . and then big Ned LeGrande gave his pin to Florie Saybolt . . . and Jimmy Radcliffe dittoed the action and gave his pin to Betty Gordon . . . and Bill Harmon gave his pin to Betty Phillips . . . as was the case of Hardy Dudley and Yette Winslow . . . and ditto for Jimmy Warner and Beth Robinson . . . and Dot Harris and Alec Dempster . . . and Lou Plummer and Evelyn Miller . . . and Eddie Kerner and Huck Finn . . . and Monk Little and his out-of-townie . . . and Mike Branch and Helen Kimmel . . . and Dallas Entsminger and Ruth Jett . . . and George Mason and Ketti Smoot . . . and so on and on . . .

MAN ABOUT CAMPUS

G. LOUIS CARNER

It has been the aim of this column to present each week some outstanding member of the Men's Student body. The men thus far presented have been ones who because of their activities in one or many phases of campus life are outstanding figures on this campus; they have been true Men About Campus.

There are several qualifications essential to the true Man About Campus. He must have a marked degree of ability along some line, he must be somewhat of a natural leader, he needs a certain amount of poise and sophistication, and he must enjoy a considerable amount of popularity. The make-up of the man selected to the last outstanding campus leader contains all of these qualities to a marked degree: he is indeed a real Man About Campus . . . Readers! G. Louis Carner.

Louis, or "Pop" as he is better known, came to William and Mary from Maury High School in Norfolk. His high school record may best be summed up by saying that there were few if any Maury activities in which he was not a leading spirit. It is hard to comment in a limited space upon "Pop's" collegiate record, his activities are too numerous and too varied. Perhaps the best field in which to start is that of athletics. His first endeavors in this field were as a member of the Freshman football track and football teams. Though he showed much promise in both of these sports, "Pop" in his Sophomore year decided that he was more interested in the managerial end of sports, and rather than participating in any as a player he worked hard and well on the business side of all. In recognition of his faithful services and his natural ability during his Sophomore and Junior years he was named, in the spring of the latter year, Student Director of Athletics. In this position, one of the greatest responsibility and requiring a great deal of work, he served faithfully and with good results; and in addition served as manager of the basketball team, and as a member of the Athletic Council. Naturally he is a member in good standing of the Monogram Club.

Journalism is another field in which "Pop" has taken an active part. Here, as in athletics, it has been the business end which has held his interest and attention. He has been a member of the Literary Magazine and the Indian Handbook staffs since his Freshman year, and during the year '32-'33 represented the former publication on the Board of Control. When aviation was first installed at this college "Pop" was one of the first students to enroll for the course. He became a charter member of the William and Mary Flight Club, of which organization he is now president. Not only is he a capable flyer as is testified by the commercial pilot's license he holds, but he is also a member of the national committee on Civic Aeronautics appointed by the National Aeronautical Association and has written several articles which have been published by a well known aviation magazine.

Ever since his first appearance on this campus "Pop" has been active in Y. M. C. A. work and in the doings of the Cotillion Club. He is also a member of the International Relations Club and of Alpha Kappa Psi, national honorary business fraternity. Still further proof of his abilities and popularity may be found in the facts that he was Secretary-Treasurer of his Freshman Class, and since that year has been a representative of Theta Delta Chi to the Inter-Fraternity Council. These honors are far more than are achieved by the majority of students. They are not enough, however, to satisfy "Pop." In his Sophomore year he was taken into the "13" Club, and during the past year has served as president of this organization. Another honor was bestowed upon him but a few weeks ago when the Flat Hat Club Society elected him to its membership. The final proof of "Pop's" ability and character comes in the announcement of his membership in the "7" Society, William and Mary Senior Honor group. Not only is he a member of this distinguished organization, he is the president of it. Such an honor comes as a fitting and appropriate close to an illustrious collegiate career, and all that needs now be said is — Congratulations, "Pop", and so-long.

runs in the third and fourth innings, one of them Jester's homer, but the Generals retaliated with four hits in their half of the fourth, to tie the score. Miller, General's short stop, tripled in the seventh and scored on a passed ball by Stewart, to win the ball game.

V. M. I. Tops Tri-Color

The Indian nine lost the last game of their road trip to the V. M. I. Keydets to the tune of 7 to 4.
The Tribe made a desperate rally in the sixth hitting the ball freely, and bringing in three runs to tie the score. The Keydets came back in the seventh with three runs to recapture the lead, and the ball game. The game was featured by the home run by Waddill Stewart, Tribal backstop, and heavy-hitting Bair and Penn of the Keydet nine, who were the main cog in the attack on three William and Mary pitchers.

DR. WILLOUGHBY OFFERED GRANT

Library Science Head Receives Offer From American Council.

Dr. E. E. Willoughby has recently been offered a grant by the American Council of Learned Societies in Washington. This grant, if accepted, will enable Dr. Willoughby to spend three months in London studying the printing of the second quarto of Hamlet, and of other Shakespearean quartos issued by James Roberts. The chief problem involved is a study of the relationship between the three texts of Hamlet.

Holds Guggenheim Fellowship

Dr. Willoughby's book, "The Printing of the First Folio of Shakespeare," which appeared in 1932, is largely responsible for the fellowship. This is the second grant awarded the present head of the Library Science Department. In 1929 he was given the Guggenheim Fellowship, under the terms of which he spent two years in Europe working on a similar problem.

Author of New Book

Dr. Willoughby has just completed another book, "A Printer of Shakespeare, The Books and Times of William Jagard," which will come out this spring.

from those men whose ability has been proved. The line-up, however, is still tentative, and there is ample time for anyone to try out.

The Fraternity team will meet the regular Freshmen nine which has lost but one game this season. The Papposes have a fine team with such ball players as Benedetto, Zable, Coates, and Dailey, providing the life. The batteries for the game will be: For Freshmen, Dailey and Coates; for Fraternity, Franklin and Lembeck.

The officials have not been decided upon as yet, but Otis Douglas is an almost certain choice for umpire.

The tentative line-up of the Interfraternity team is:
P—Preacher Franklin, S. A. E.
C—Jack Lembeck, Pi Lambda Phi.

PALM BEACH... like raising a window

Ventilation! Air entering to evaporate body perspiration! That's what you get all summer through the wide-open pores and patented weave of the new Palm Beach.

Wide open because each pore of the cloth is a real little window in itself—with no fringe around the edges—with none of the whiskers or scales (scillia) found on the fibres of wools and worsteds, to catch dust and close the openings. That's why scientific tests show Palm Beach to be many times as porous as other summer fabrics.

Have you been a Palm Beach post-poner all your life? Then let this summer introduce you to its luxurious coolness. It is dirt-repellant, wrinkle-resisting, crease-holding, washable, fully pre-shrunk—and it comes in white and many colors. Smartly tailored by GOODALL. $18.50

GOODALL COMPANY - CINCINNATI

Showing how Palm Beach lets in the air and evaporates body perspiration... Your body is apt to give off a pint of perspiration on a warm day. Hence, these five jars, each containing a pint of liquid, were exposed to air. In 4 1/2 hours the jar without any covering evaporated all the perspiration. In the same length of time, 95% was evaporated in the jar covered by porous Palm Beach Cloth. Note the contrasting results in the jars covered by other summer fabrics.

"International Aspects of the Labor Problem" was the topic of Mr. Magnusson's talk. He stressed the close connection between the social and economic aspects of labor from an international viewpoint. Mr. Magnusson is the American representative of the International Labor Board in Geneva, and part of his discussion concerned the workings of this organization. He stressed the fact that there was no connection between the League of Nations and the International Labor Board, and urged that the United States should join the Labor Board, and aid in promoting the equalization of labor conditions throughout the world, citing examples of how the board adjusted difficulties between nations having treaties pertaining to labor questions. Following his talk an open forum discussion was held during which time members of both organizations asked questions concerning the Labor Board and its work.

WHERE THE RARE WINES come from they know that the two most important things in wine-making are the selection of the grapes and the long years of ageing in the wine cellars.

IT'S VERY MUCH THE SAME in the making of a cigarette. You have to get the right tobaccos, then put them away to age and mellow in wooden casks.

You can't make a good cigarette like Chesterfield in a day. It takes over two years to age the tobaccos for your Chesterfields—but it adds something to the taste and makes them milder.

Everything that modern Science really knows about is used to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.

ORIENTATION PLAN BACKED BY W.S.G.A. AND THE Y. W. C. A.

President of Women's Student Government and Y. W. Vice-President are in Charge of Plans.

TO HOLD FOUR MEETINGS

Freshman women and transfer students are fast becoming adapted to college life at William and Mary under the Orientation Program sponsored by the Women's Student Cooperative Government Association and the Young Women's Christian Association. W. S. C. G. President Kitty Chiswell and Y. W. C. A. Vice-President Mary Jean Roth are jointly promoting the Orientation schedule through a number of Sponsors and Assistants.

"Big" and "Little Sisters" The two groups divide responsibilities. The Y. W. C. A. is taking charge of the "Big Sister" plan, whereby each new girl becomes the special interest of an older student. During the summer the Vice-President sent the names of a group of about 15 new girls to each of 15 Sponsors selected last spring. "Big Sisters," chosen and notified by the Sponsors, wrote welcoming letters to their "little sisters;" then assumed particular concern for them this fall. Sponsors Hold Meeting W. S. C. FRESHMEN DUC RULES ADOPTED BY TRIBUNAL

Tribunal Meeting To Be Held Wednesday Night; Penalties Will Be Discussed.

The Senior-Junior-Sophomore Tribunal met last Wednesday night, September 19, 1934 at the Kappa Sigma House to discuss rules for the regulation of Freshmen men. It is required of every Freshman to obey all of these rules. The Tribunal will meet again on this Wednesday, September 26 for the election of officers and discussion of penalties for violation of the Duc rules. The following are the rules: 1934-35

- 1. Freshmen men are required to wear the regulation Duc cap and green tie at all times while outside of academic buildings. The date of removal will be announced at a later date. 2. Freshmen are required to walk only on brick walks and gravel paths and no cutting of campus will be tolerated. 3. Freshman men must carry (Continued on page 6) of the College to allow them to set up the Board of Control for the collection and distribution of student fees. Before this all these fees had been collected by the College.

At the present time the Board of Control has been built into a smooth working organization, and has handled funds in such a way as to keep all campus activities on a paying basis. Various campus organizations having accumulated surpluses which have been used to carry on the other organizations who have been as fortunate.

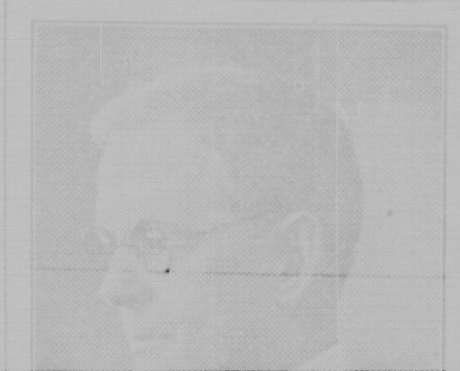

Compulsion is not used in the sale of Student Activity tickets. Students are merely asked to support their own activities. In the case of Freshmen it is almost necessary that the fee be paid, for no society or fraternity may pledge a freshman until he, or she, has paid their activity fees. Those who are trying out for debating must pay the fee in order to be eligible for debate teams.

The Flat Hat has with this issue inaugurated a new picture section which is expected to add materially to the paper. In recent years the Hat has become more and more a student newspaper, and various improvements have been added from time to time. No student can keep up with campus affairs unless he, or she, reads the Hat each week. The payment of the Activity Fee gives the student his copy of the Hat each week.

The Colonial Echo is a year-book to be proud of, and no one may secure a copy of it until he has paid both semesters activity fees. The book is a memento of Campus life, and will be a source of pride in years to come to students who look back upon their College careers. The Literary Magazine is also included in the Activity Fee, and this magazine, judged among the best in the south, contains the best in Campus stories, poems, and essays.

The sale of tickets to date has not been encouraging, and the Board of Control hopes that more will be paid in the near future so the campus activities will be able to expand, as well as keep up the good work they have been doing the past years. The Board of Control Office is open each day from two until five for the payment of fees. Support your activities!

Tells of Old Traditions at William and Mary and Aim of College Career; Musical Selections Were Given.

HALL FILLED TO CAPACITY

John Stewart Bryan, president of the College of William and Mary, made his initial address to the student body and faculty in the Phi Beta Kappa Auditorium last Tuesday night. Upon his arrival the entire student body stood up and cheered until Mr. Bryan motioned to them to sit down. A larger crowd was present than has been at any convocation since Miss Amelia Earhart spoke here last year.

Tells of Tradition

In his speech Mr. Bryan emphasized the advantage of living amid the traditions of William and Mary, citing some of the famous graduates of the College, such as John Marshall, Richard Bland, and James Monroe. He also spoke of George Washington and Patrick Henry, both of whom were associated with the College.

Aim of College Career

Mr. Bryan defined the main object of a college career to be the ability to lift yourself above yourself, to control life. The greatest accomplishment of man is not money, fame, or (Continued on page 6.)

Wishes to be Regarded as a Fellow Student and a Fellow Son of William and Mary; Asks For Cooperation of the Students.

STATES ONE PURPOSE

Treasures Distinction of Being Made an Honorary Alumnus of College.

I gladly avail myself of the opportunity offered by the Flat Hat to say a word of introduction and expectation to the students of William and Mary.

For the Freshman class, as for myself, this is a new experience. For the entering students it is their first year in college; for me it is my first and only experience as president of an institution of learning.

For my first association with this College I got the feeling of kinship that is essentially that of an alumnus, and when I was made an honorary alumnus of this College I treasured it above any other distinction I had ever received.

So I would say to the students, both those who have just entered and those who are well along their way, that I wish them please to regard me as a fellow student and a fellow son of William and Mary.

I have but one purpose for this College, and that purpose I am sure is the same that is in the mind of every other well-wisher and servant, namely, to extract the uttermost of growth, learning, and power from the time the students step within these walls. To do this we must have teachers of superior attainment, and these I believe we possess; we must have a student body of more than ordinary ability, and one that is willing to pay the price of intense application for the attainment of the inestimable prize of full accomplishment.

COTILLION CLUB PLANS DANCES

John A. McManus was elected president of the Cotillion Club at their last meeting in May. Other officers elected at this time were Harrell Pierce, vice president, and Eddie Boisseau, secretary-treasurer.

Plans Not Complete

Plans for the formal dances to be held this year have not yet been completed. It is thought that the first will be held about the same time as the annual Homecoming Day in November.

The club hopes to clear up the remaining part of the debt incurred a few years ago. The officers of the club last year cut the outstanding debt to the Board of Control in half by the receipts of the two dances held.

Membership to the club permits a great saving in admission fees to the formal dance sets given throughout the year.

OPEN AIR THEATRE WILL BE DEDICATED

Dr. Hoke to Give Address; President Bryan Will Make Speech of Acceptance.

The tentative date for the dedication of the new open air theatre in Matoaka Park has been set for Tuesday afternoon, October 2nd, at 4:00 p. m. At this time an introductory address will be given by Dean Hoke. The theatre which will be called Players' Dell, will be presented by Mr. G. B. Arthur, who was the government official in charge of the project constructed by the C. C. C. workers. President Bryan will make the speech of acceptance.

As a part of the program, a play will be staged combining the departments of dramatics, music and physical education. The play is "The Ghost of Windsor Park," a fantasy by Harold Brighouse. The play has been selected with much care and is particularly appropriate since its setting is in 17th century Jamestown. The first portion of the play is staged in modern time. The cast consists of over thirty people, including the dancing girls and the chorus. The cast is as follows: (Continued on page 6)

LITERARY GROUP HEARS SPEAKER AT RECEPTION

Delivers Interesting Address to Old and New Members of Society; Reception Preceded by Business Meeting in Washington Hall.

The Phoenix Literary Society held an informal reception Wednesday evening in room 200 of Washington Hall for old, and new men at the college. The reception, which was preceded by a business meeting of the old members on the preceding Friday was very interesting and instructive. Mr. Robert C. McClelland, instructor in the Department of Ancient Languages, gave an interesting address. Mr. McClelland gave those present an idea of his philosophy of life along with some excerpts from some Greek and Roman drama. The subtle humor displayed by Mr. McClelland brought smiles to the faces of all those present and made the evening enjoyable for all. Ernest Goodrich, a member of the society, made an informal talk.

Founded in 1732
The Phoenix Literary Society was organized at William and Mary about the year 1732 and has been an outstanding organization on the campus since that time. The society has as its main objective the training of young men in the fields of reading with ease and appreciation, orating, declaiming, and debating. The society does not do this collectively but gives every man a chance to develop his literary ability in the field in which he is most interested.

This is done by giving each member and opportunity to take part in the program. Every fall a contest is held with the members of the Philomathean Literary Society, the other outstanding literary society, for men of Freshmen class. This contest includes reading, debating, orating, and declaiming. Another similar contest is held in the spring, in which any members of each society may participate. Max Doman is president of the society. Meetings are held each Friday evening in the Phoenix Hall in the Wren Hall.

WILLIAM AND MARY SPORTS

HENRY G. SEYMOUR, EDITOR

Dartmouth And Army Listed on Football Schedule For 1935

INDIANS TO OPEN FOOTBALL SEASON WITH NAVY GAME

KELLISON AND DOWLER COACH VARSITY TEAM

Contest This Saturday Marks First Game of Year For Both Navy and William and Mary.

TICKETS NOW ON SALE

Team Has Been In Practice Since September 3; Predictions Favorable to Indians.

William and Mary will open its 1934 football season this Saturday when the team travels to Annapolis to play Navy for its first game.

Navy has suffered much by graduation this year. Fourteen first string men have been lost to the squad and such stars as Chung-Hoon, Baumberger and others who helped make things hard for the Indians last year will not be in the line-up.

Since September 3, the Indians have been practicing daily on Cary Field. This year the coaching is being done under the cooperative system. The linemen are in charge of John Kellison and the backs are being instructed by Tommy Dowler.

The Indians have lost a number of letter men this year, but the regulars who have returned along with some good material from last year's freshman squad have combined to form a good team.

In the backfield outstanding men who have returned are Junie Smith, Stumpy Bryant, Swede Yerkes and Lutz Blaker. Charlie Shade, who did a great deal of the quarter-backing last year, has not fully recovered from a shoulder injury and will probably not see much action this season.

Back in the line are Captain Joe Bridges and Bob Wallace, who will alternate at center, Spack, Stewart, LeGrande, Murray and Franklin. Outstanding freshmen who have come up are Beech, Marino, Brickell, Hatke, Walton, Sherrill Zable, and DeGutis.

Although it is practically impossible to make predictions about a football team, the Indians should have a good season if they click, for there is plenty of good material on the squad.

Coaches Kellison and Dowler have not selected or at least have not announced a first team, but is probable that the starting line-up for the opening game will be as follows: center Bridges; guards, Spack and Hatke; tackles, Stewart and LeGrande; ends, Zable and DeGutis; quarterback, Blaker; halfbacks, Bryant and Travers; fullback, Yerkes.

Tickets for the game this Saturday can now be secured at the Athletic Office in Blow Gymnasium. In order to obtain the reduced prices for students, athletic tickets must be brought.

CAPTAIN, 1934

JOE BRIDGERS

W. & M. FACES TOUGH FOES NEXT SEASON

Dartmouth, Army, Navy, Richmond, V. P. I., and V. M. I. on Definite Schedule for 1935.

Six games have already been scheduled for the 1935 edition of the Tri-Color grid machine, according to Wm. S. (Billy) Gooch, Indian athletic director.

Three other games will probably be scheduled in order to give the Braves a nine game schedule. There is a possibility that Harvard's powerful Crimson may journey down to Williamsburg to dedicate the new stadium which will be constructed in a natural bowl in the woods just back of the campus.

The games, with Navy, on September 28, Army on October 5, Va. Tech. on October 12, Dartmouth on November 9, and Richmond on November 28 will be played at Annapolis, West Point, Richmond, Hanover, N. H., and Richmond again, respectively.

With many of the mainstays of the present squad juniors and Sophomores and with a good looking bunch of freshmen coming up for varsity next season, the prospects are bright for a team that may match in fight and courage the Indian elevens which tied the Crimson in '30 and upset the Middies in '32.

Other possible opponents for the season are Emory and Henry, Washington and Lee, and Roanoke. Many of the alumni are in favor of opening the new stadium with a game with Virginia, and if it is impossible to sign up with Harvard, this may be done.

The athletic office expects to have the schedule definitely arranged within a short time.

Mr. Gooch is still negotiating with several colleges as to the dates and locations of the games.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS PLANNED FOR 1935

Department of Physical Education to Sponsor Comprehensive Program of Athletics.

The department of Physical Education has begun to plan for a very wide and complete intra-mural activities program. The program will be under the direction of the department, personally supervised by Tucker Jones, Professor of Physical Education.

For the past ten years there has been only a fair percentage of students engaged in Intra-mural sports, such as touch football, baseball, basketball, swimming, boxing, and volley ball. It is the aim of Mr. Jones to establish a program broad enough to attract every student on the campus.

Interest charts have been issued to each member of the men and women gym classes. These charts will to a large extent determine seasonal arrangements of activities. One of the principal goals of the entire program is to give the participants exactly what they like.

It is the object of the Intra-mural program to carry on sports suitable to the climate and season and also include certain social activities as checkers, chess, bridge, ping pong, etc. A class in social dancing is being planned for. This class will be open to both men and women and will be under the direction of Miss Lowry.

The divisions of competition are: 1. Classes 2. Dormitories 3. Departments and schools. 4. Fraternities 5. Gym sections 6. Social and literary organizations 7. Independents

The eighth division will probably be devoted to church organizations, although it has not been definitely decided. The plan if carried out as arranged will be without doubt the broadest, the most complete, and the most progressive program of intramural activities in the country today.

RALLY SCHEDULED THURSDAY NIGHT

A rally will be held Thursday night at 7:15 p. m. in Phi Beta Kappa Hall in order to honor the Indian football team, which leaves Friday for the Navy Game.

Several members of the team will speak at the rally and Dave Rutledge, cheer leader, will lead the students in college songs. All Freshmen are required to attend this rally and to know the words of all the songs and cheers.

Rallies the night before football games have been a custom at William and Mary for many years. The entire student body is expected to attend them as a demonstration of school spirit. While the freshmen are required to attend these gatherings it is hoped that they will come voluntarily and lend their whole-hearted support to the team. Last year, before the Richmond game, a huge and enthusiastic rally was held, which undoubtedly helped in making the William and Mary team victorious.

BECK CAPTAIN 1934 FIELD HOCKEY TEAM

Transfer From Savage Proves Welcome Material For This Year's Varsity Hockey Team.

The Varsity Hockey Team is reported to be exceptionally strong this year, according to Ruth Personius, manager. Many of last season's stars are back. Lined up for the first team are: Dot Beck, Captain, playing center forward position, Ann Cummings, Ann Edwards, Dot Channings, Aubrey Holladay, Jane Whittaker, Margaret Dawson, Geddy's Wood, and Nancy Horn. The line-up is not definite yet.

A new player is expected to add to the strength of the team this year. Peggy Shehan, a graduate of the Savage School, New York City, is scheduled to star in center half position when the season opens. Shehan was varsity player at Savage for three years, where her playing at this position won favorable comment. She also played on a New York City Club Team before coming to William and Mary.

The teams have already been in practice a week. The coach this season is Miss Martha Barksdale, assisted by Miss Pat Lowry. Assistants to Ruth Personius, manager, are Florence Fisher, Dixie Sterling, and Adele Stephenson.

The game schedule is not settled definitely, but probably opponents include Drexel, Swarthmore, Bryn Mawr, Panzer, Baltimore Reserves, and members of the Southeastern Tournament.

INDIAN FRESHMEN OPEN SEASON FRIDAY

Open Here With Louisburg, North Carolina, College in First of Six-Game Series.

Coach Bill Scott's Freshmen team will clash with Louisburg College of North Carolina Friday afternoon on Cary Field in the first of a six-game schedule which will be climaxed on November 24 when they entertain the Baby Spiders of Richmond University here.

Although it may be a bit early to predict the strength of the Fresh who have yet to appear under fire, the scrimmages to date have shown several outstanding performers both in the line and backfield who are likely to be heard from this season and on the varsity later. The only casualty so far has been a broken wrist suffered by Bob Walroth, half-back from New York City.

The Duc's are expected to better considerably the Freshman record of last year in which the team of '37 won only two contests and lost three, including a 25-0 shellacking at the hands of Richmond. Oak Ridge Military Academy of Oak Ridge, N. C. is a newcomer on the Papoose schedule this season, bringing the total games to six.

The schedule is as follows: September 28, LouisburgHere October 19, Oak RidgeHere October 26, W. and L.There November 3, V. M. I.There November 10, W-M (N. D.)There November 24 RichmondHere

DELTA PSI KAPPA ELECTS OFFICERS

Alpha Alpha Chapter of Delta Psi Kappa formerly H2E Club, held the first meeting of the year at 2:30 o'clock, September 22, in the old H2E room in Jefferson Gym. The following girls were formerly pledged at this time: Dorothy Beck, Roberta Brittle, Winifred Cummings, Margaret Dawson, Geddy's Weed, Virginia Sterling, and Jeanne Tenny. The new officers are Margaret Yeaman, president, Nancy Horn, vice-president, and Ann Edwards, treasurer.

WOOFIN' ALONG

Hae Duc's and Ducesses, Sophs and Juniors, Seniors and Five-Year-Men, Six-Year-Men, Seven-Year-Men—what does time matter? The Woofer is back, woofin' and spoofin' along—attempting in his woofin' way to entertain you with witticisms (what modesty), facts, whats and whatnots about the campus and the world in general.

Apologies are in order—Ye sports editor of the Indian Handbook made two errors—Errata—Harrell Pierce is the manager of the track team—Bill Schmidell is captain of the tennis team—Sorry Mercer and Kerner.

The football team is coming into its own in fine shape. Looking over the boys on the squad we find Captain Bridgers a stone wall at center, with Playboy Beech and Bob Wallace as able-bodied reserves. Joe Marino, Mush Brickell, Frank Livesay, and Walt Hatke are battling for the guard positions. Four seasoned veterans, Waddy Stewart, "Brute" Murray, Harry Spack, and Ned LeGrande are at tackle—but since inter-collegiate rules state that only two men can play at one time at tackle, it looks like a battle royal. Walt Zable and Al DeGutis look like probable starters at end with Preacher Franklin and Jud Sherrill affording no let-up by the starters.

Little Hutzy Blaker is calling signals this year and gets the call at quarter. Al Michaels and Bendetto are doing good jobs as under studies. Stumpy Bryant and Red Woodward, the two Indian triple-treats are in fine shape and expect to give opposing linemen many a headache—Junie Smith and Shorty Trueheart are giving these two stellar half's plenty of opposition. At fullback, Swede Yerkes is a tower of strength—a fast and aggressive back. Stumpy Travers will see plenty of work. Charlie Shade injured quarter of last season's team, is out on the field and is getting into condition as rapidly as possible and will in all probability see action before the termination of the season. The boys are all looking forward to the Navy game and expect to make the Middies holler "Uncle."

The Dean brothers of the St. Louis Cards are just about the best brother act in all baseball. Paul Dean pitched the first no-hit game of the year against the Brooklyn's, and Dizzy followed with a three-hit shutout.

Speaking of brother acts, in baseball, today there is a battery with the Red Sox of Beantown, les Freres Ferrell, brother Rick, the catcher, and brother Wes, the pitcher. A few years with the Washington Senators the Ferrell brothers played a prominent part in the Senators' pennant fights.

Lick Burke, star of the William and Mary golf team two years ago, has returned to school and with his return the Athletic Association has deemed it advisable to re-emphasize the Old Scottish pastime. Johnny Mapp, Woody Vaughn, and Normy Weinberger are rarin' to go and bring some bacons back to Williamsburg.

Some people spend ten dollars a seat to see an Earl Carroll production which features, legs, legs, legs. Since we are in the throes of a depression, (apologies to F. D. R.) an economical way to feast the eyes would be to go out to Cary Field and watch the huskies go through a calisthenic drill. Beech, Spack, Benedetto, and Walton would arouse envy in any Broadway beauty.

It seems that the Physical Ed. Department intends to stress intramural sports this year. Complete schedules and preference sheets (which do you like better, ping-pong or Badminton? That kind of stuff) are already being prepared. They'll probably be published in the Flat Hat next week. Personally, we think it's a great idea. Not only can you compete, but you have a chance to learn such sports as shooting, archery, and so forth. The Physical Education Department intends to make this a big thing, but nothing can be done unless the students cooperate.

Take a glance at the football schedule for 1935. It's a honey. By that time the new stadium will be up, and we hope to get some good games here.

The fraternities are beginning to get busy. The Inter-Fraternity Basketball tourney is starting soon. Almost every House on the campus is optimistic over the outcome. The Kappa Sigs won last year in a thriller against the S. P. E's. The technical arrangements have not been completed as yet, but the contests are sure to be closely fought insuring a fine show to all spectators. Intra-mural sports have always been well received on the campus and there is no reason why they should not be expanded. Touch football would be a pleasant way to spend a few hours on some sunny afternoon. An Inter-fraternity league would without doubt, greatly increase the spirit and activity on the campus. Why not have a touch football league?

PAN HELLENIC GROUP START PREFERENTIAL PLEDGING OF WOMEN

Miss Weeks Explains New System to Freshmen; Preferential Parties to be Held Thurs.

Rushing for the women's social fraternities opened September the tenth with half hour visits in the dormitories between the hours of four and six and seven and nine. The rushees visited the houses for the first time last Friday night when each sorority held open house. This marked the beginning of rushing held at the various houses. This is the first time that the Preferential System of bidding has been used on this campus in several years. In many colleges this system has proven to be more successful than any other method.

Miss Weeks, Pan-Hellenic adviser, has spoken on behalf of the Pan-Hellenic Council explaining to the new girls this system of Preferential Rushing. She made it clear to the girls that they were only to accept the invitations in which they were interested and not more than three invitations for the Preferential Parties on Thursday.

Pan-Hellenic Council at a recent meeting decided to bring Women's Rushing to a close Thursday, September 29 with a Preferential party at each house. Friday and Saturday will be silence days at which time no sorority girl may talk to a rushee. Sunday all bids will be returned to the Sororities.

TAYLOR'S NEW TEXTBOOK TO BE USED AT COLLEGE

Business Professor Now Engaged in Writing "Labor Problems and Labor Legislation."

Taylor, head of the Economics and Business Department, is writing an up-to-date text on labor. The title of this book is "Labor Problems and Labor Legislation."

The book is over half complete and is made up in manuscript form. First semester students taking the business and economic course are now using the manuscript as a text book. Dr. Taylor looks forward to finishing the text during vacation time of next year when his present duties will be temporarily relieved. The College plans on using the text in its regular business and economic curriculum at the beginning of the 1935 fall term.

Dr. Taylor stated that Prentice and Hall, Inc., of New York, will publish his book. The contract was signed several months ago. He also stated that competition in this field is great as several other texts of this type are being published.

Five New House-Mothers in Dorms.

Several of the dormitories and houses have new house mothers this year. Mrs. Pfeiffer of Boydton, Virginia, is in Barrett. She is new on campus. Mrs. King of Churchland, Virginia is the house mother of Chandler, while Mrs. Lambeth formerly in Chandler is at the Chi Omega House. Mrs. Delia Carter of Lexington, Virginia, is at the Pi Phi House. In 1932 Mrs. Carter was the house mother in Richmond Road dormitory. Mrs. M. E. Garnett of Richmond is new at the Alpha Chi House. The other houses and dormitories have retained the same mothers they had last year.

Three Frats. Move To New Addresses

The opening of the fall session at William and Mary has brought about several changes in fraternity addresses for the ensuing year.

The Epsilon-Alpha Chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha has a new house at 607 Richmond Road which was purchased during the summer months. The house was completed last spring and was the former residence of Mr. T. A. Painter. It is insulated brick construction, having twelve rooms.

The Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity has moved from Chandler Court to the Maupin House on Duke of Gloucester Street.

The Phi Alpha Fraternity is now located in a twelve room house on Prince George Street.

SORORITY HOUSES OPENED TO RUSHEES LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Rushees Entertained on Friday, September 21, from 7 to 10 by Sorority Parties.

The nine women's fraternities on campus held open house for rushees on Friday evening, September 21, from 7 to 10. Pi Beta Pi, Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, and Kappa Alpha Theta gave formal receptions carrying out some theme of the fraternity. Dahlias, chrysanthemums, and zinnias added color to the gathering at the Pi Phi house. A large golden cake in the shape of an arrow was cut and served with tea and punch. Each guest received a small arrow on which her name was printed.

The Alpha Chi Omega house was decorated with tube roses and dahlias. Merangs and peach ice cream were served. The favors were candy nose-gays.

The Chi Omegas presented each rushee a metal horseshoe tied with fraternity colors. Punch and cookies were the refreshments.

The Thetas gave corsages of orange carnations to their guests. Tea and toast were served.

The Phi Mus carried out the comic strip idea with a Mickey Mouse stand and Mickey Mouse comic faces as favors. Brick ice cream, pink cake, and mints were served.

The Tri-Delta house was the Crescent Cafe for the evening. A large crescent with electrically lighted pearls decorated the wall. The bar and a cocktail shaker carried out the atmosphere of a cafe. Refreshments were served.

A colonial theme was carried out at the Gamma Phi Beta house. Spinning wheels, kerosene lamps, and colonial costumes added to the effect. Caramel ice cream and cakes were served. Black mummies were the favors.

The Club Kappa Broadcast included a floor show with songs and dances by members of the fraternity. Balloons and streamers were hung from the chandelier. The guests received nose-gays tied with sorority ribbons. Punch and sandwiches were served.

The train idea was the theme for the Kappa Delta Special. The first floor was decorated as the station, while upstairs were the lounge, the pullman, and rooms representing large cities visited on the trip. Refreshments were served in the diner.

a good cigarette gives you a lot of pleasure

... just about every cigarette smoker knows that—but here are some other facts to keep in mind ...

For a cigarette to be milder and taste better it must be made of mild, ripe Turkish and home-grown tobaccos.

We wish you could go into the factories and see Chesterfield made. The mild ripe tobacco is cut in long even threads—then packed into the cigarette so as to make Chesterfield draw right and burn evenly.

A good cigarette can give you a lot of pleasure, and we would like for you to try Chesterfield.

J. LESLIE HALL PLANS RECEPTION FOR WOMEN

Society to Follow Last Year's Plan of Work. Meetings Will Begin With Reception for Those Interested in Work.

The cabinet members of the J. Leslie Hall Literary Society held their first meeting of the year Monday night, September 24 at 9:00 p. m. in the living room of Brown Hall. Jane Gilmer, president of the group, presided. Other officers for this year are: The vice president, Ann Renforth, the secretary, Doris Van Dine, the treasurer, Jessie Lee, the chaplain, Elizabeth Tate and the program chairman, Margery Croft. It was announced that Laura Coleman, who is now a senior, will serve as co-chairman with Margery Croft. Laura was elected program chairman at the end of her sophomore year, but was a junior transfer student to France and so was unable to fill her position last year. A vacancy is left in the office of sergeant in arms. The former sergeant in arms, Mary Ann Burns, has transferred to the Richmond division. The person to fill that office will be elected by the group at their first business meeting.

Reception to be Held
The latter part of this week the society will give an informal reception at Barrett Hall. All women students who are interested in joining are cordially invited. The purpose of the organization and its plans for the coming year will be explained so that everyone will understand the standards of the literary society.

Two Groups in Club
Last year the society was divided into two groups the portrait group and the modern novel group. The work done by these groups was interesting and instructive. The groups met separately twice a month and also had one joint meeting. The monthly dates of the meetings were usually the first, second, and the fourth Fridays of the month.

Credit Given Members
An activity credit will be awarded for membership and attendance. The dues are fifty cents a semester. Anyone who is interested in the work and aims of this literary society is urged to attend the informal reception to be given the latter part of this week.

Mr. Duke stressed in his announcement to the Flat Hat that the program was subject to change by the White House staff, and that a complete program for the occasion could not be made public until final arrangements had been made.

The entire proceedings will be broadcast over the complete networks of both the National and the Columbia Broadcasting Systems, and radio time for two hours, from eleven until one, has been allotted for the ceremonies. The broadcast will begin with descriptions of President Roosevelt's arrival and the dedicatory parade on Duke of Gloucester Street.
